31 The Jews therefore, because it was <sup>32</sup>the Preparation, that <sup>33</sup>the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a <sup>34</sup>high day), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and <sup>35</sup>that they might be taken away. 32 The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that <sup>33</sup>was crucified with him: 33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: 34 howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and straightway there came out <sup>35</sup>blood and water. 35 And he that hath seen hath <sup>36</sup>borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, <sup>37</sup>that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be <sup>38</sup>broken. 37 And again another scripture saith, <sup>39</sup>They shall look on him whom they pierced.

of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but <sup>a</sup> secretly for <sup>b</sup> fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took away his body. 39 And there came also <sup>c</sup> Nicodemus, he who at the first came to him by night, <sup>d</sup> bringing a <sup>e</sup> mixture of <sup>f</sup> myrrh and aloes, about a <sup>g</sup> hundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and <sup>h</sup> bound it in <sup>i</sup> linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a <sup>j</sup> new tomb <sup>k</sup> wherein was never man yet laid. 42 There then because of the Jews' <sup>l</sup> Preparation (for the tomb was <sup>m</sup> nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 <sup>n</sup> Now on the first day of the week cometh <sup>o</sup> Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth <sup>p</sup> the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other <sup>q</sup> disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, <sup>r</sup> They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 <sup>s</sup> Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and <sup>t</sup> stooping and looking in, he seeth the <sup>u</sup> linen cloths lying: yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, 7 and <sup>v</sup> the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the <sup>w</sup> linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who <sup>x</sup> came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet <sup>y</sup> they knew not the scripture, <sup>z</sup> that he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again <sup>a</sup> unto their own home.

11 <sup>b</sup> But Mary was standing without at the tomb weeping: so, as she wept, she <sup>c</sup> stooped and looked into the tomb; 12 and she beholdeth <sup>d</sup> two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say unto

She saith unto them, Because <sup>f</sup> they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. 14 When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and <sup>g</sup> beholdeth Jesus standing, and <sup>h</sup> knew not that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>i</sup> Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. 16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto him <sup>k</sup> in Hebrew, <sup>l</sup> Rabboni; which is to say, Teacher. 17 Jesus saith to her, <sup>m</sup> Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto <sup>n</sup> my brethren, and say to them, I <sup>o</sup> ascend unto my Father and your Father, and my God and your God. 18 <sup>p</sup> Mary Magdalene cometh and <sup>q</sup> telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that he had said these things unto her.

19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for <sup>r</sup> fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, <sup>s</sup> Peace be unto you. 20 And when he had said this, <sup>t</sup> he showed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore <sup>u</sup> were glad, when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus therefore said to them again, <sup>v</sup> Peace be unto you: <sup>w</sup> as the Father hath sent me, even so send I you. 22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit: 23 <sup>x</sup> whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But <sup>y</sup> Thomas, one of <sup>z</sup> the twelve, called <sup>aa</sup> Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in <sup>ab</sup> his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into <sup>ac</sup> his side, <sup>ad</sup> I will not believe.

"My Lord and my God." The Writer's Object. The Epilogue: — The Appearance at the Sea of Tiberias. "Lovest thou me?"

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, <sup>a</sup>Peace be unto you. 27 Then saith he to Thomas, <sup>b</sup>Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach <sup>c</sup>hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. 28 Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. 29 Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, <sup>d</sup>thou hast believed: <sup>e</sup>blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 <sup>a</sup>Many other <sup>e</sup>signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book: 31 but these are written, <sup>f</sup>that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, <sup>g</sup>the Son of God; and that <sup>h</sup>believing ye may have life in his name.

And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh <sup>h</sup>the <sup>i</sup>bread, and giveth them, and the <sup>j</sup>fish likewise. 14 This is now the <sup>k</sup>third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had <sup>l</sup>broken their fast, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, <sup>m</sup>son of <sup>n</sup>John, <sup>o</sup>lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I <sup>p</sup>love thee. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, <sup>h</sup>Follow me. 20 Peter, turning about, seeth <sup>i</sup>the <sup>j</sup>disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also <sup>k</sup>leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that <sup>l</sup>betrayeth thee? 21 Peter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus,

The Introduction. The Ascension. "The Upper Chamber." The Fate of Judas

<sup>6</sup>They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, <sup>p</sup>dost thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel? <sup>7</sup>And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which <sup>q</sup>the Father hath <sup>r</sup>set within his own authority. <sup>8</sup>But ye shall receive power, <sup>s</sup>when the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be <sup>t</sup>my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa and <sup>u</sup>Samaria, and unto <sup>v</sup>the uttermost part of the earth. <sup>9</sup>And when he had said these things, as they were looking, <sup>w</sup>he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup>And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold <sup>x</sup>two men stood by them in white apparel; <sup>11</sup>who also said, <sup>y</sup>Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, who <sup>z</sup>was received up from you into heaven, shall so <sup>aa</sup>come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

21 Of the men therefore that have accompanied with us all the time that <sup>a</sup> the Lord Jesus went in and went out <sup>4</sup> among us, <sup>22</sup> <sup>b</sup> beginning from the baptism of John, unto the day that he <sup>c</sup> was received up from us, of these must one become a <sup>d</sup> witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and <sup>e</sup> Matthias.
24 And they <sup>f</sup> prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, <sup>g</sup> who knowest the hearts of all men, show of these two the one whom thou hast chosen, <sup>25</sup> to take the place in <sup>h</sup> this ministry and <sup>i</sup> apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they <sup>k</sup> gave lots <sup>5</sup> for them; and the lot fell upon <sup>e</sup> Matthias; and he was numbered with <sup>l</sup> the eleven apostles.

2 And when <sup>m</sup> the day of Pentecost <sup>6</sup> was now come, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled <sup>n</sup> all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> And there appeared unto them tongues <sup>7</sup> parting asunder, like as of fire; and it sat upon each one of them. <sup>4</sup> And they were all <sup>o</sup> filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to <sup>p</sup> speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

ye yourselves know; 23 him, being delivered up by the <sup>a</sup>determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, <sup>b</sup>ye by the hand of <sup>1</sup>lawless men did crucify and slay: 24 whom <sup>c</sup>God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death: because it <sup>d</sup>was not possible that he should be holden of it. 25 For David saith concerning him,

<sup>2</sup>I beheld the Lord always before my face;

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved;

26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; Moreover my flesh also shall <sup>3</sup>dwell in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul unto <sup>e</sup>Hades, <sup>f</sup>Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life;

Thou shalt make me full of gladness <sup>4</sup>with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the <sup>g</sup>patriarch David, that he both <sup>h</sup>died and <sup>i</sup>was buried, and <sup>k</sup>his tomb is with us unto this day.

30 Being therefore <sup>l</sup>a prophet, and knowing that <sup>m</sup>God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins <sup>n</sup>he would set <sup>one</sup> upon his throne; 31 he foreseeing <sup>this</sup>spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he left unto <sup>o</sup>Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. 32 This Jesus did <sup>p</sup>God raise up, <sup>q</sup>whereof we all are <sup>r</sup>witnesses. 33 Being therefore <sup>s</sup>by the right hand of God exalted, and <sup>t</sup>having received of the Father <sup>u</sup>the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath <sup>v</sup>poured forth this, which ye see and hear. 34 For David ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,

<sup>35</sup>The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.

36 Let <sup>36</sup>all the <sup>house</sup>of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both <sup>w</sup>Lord and Christ, this Jesus <sup>x</sup>whom ye crucified.

37 Now when they heard <sup>this</sup>, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, <sup>37</sup>what shall we do? 38 And Peter <sup>said</sup> unto them, <sup>y</sup>Repent ye, and be <sup>z</sup>baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For to you is <sup>38</sup>the promise, and to your children, and to all that are <sup>39</sup>afar off, <sup>even</sup>as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. 40 And with many other words he <sup>40</sup>testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this <sup>41</sup>crooked generation. 41 They then <sup>41</sup>that received his word were baptized: and there were added <sup>unto</sup>them in that day about three thousand <sup>42</sup>souls. 42 And they <sup>42</sup>continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and <sup>43</sup>fellowship, in <sup>43</sup>the breaking of bread and <sup>44</sup>the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many <sup>44</sup>wonders and signs were done through the apostles<sup>44</sup>. 44 And all that believed were together, and <sup>45</sup>had all things common; 45 and they <sup>46</sup>sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had need. 46 <sup>46</sup>And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and <sup>47</sup>breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 praising God, and <sup>48</sup>having favor with all the people. And the Lord <sup>48</sup>added <sup>49</sup>to them day by day <sup>49</sup>those that <sup>49</sup>were saved.

Peter's Discourse. Peter and John are arrested; brought before the Sanhedrin;

<sup>a</sup> fastening his eyes upon him, with John, said, Look on us. 5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. <sup>b</sup> In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk. 7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his anklbones received strength. 8 <sup>c</sup> And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And <sup>d</sup> all the people saw him walking and praising God: 10 and they took knowledge of him, that it was he that <sup>e</sup> sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held <sup>f</sup> Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the <sup>g</sup> porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. 12 And when Peter saw it, he <sup>h</sup> answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this <sup>i</sup> man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 <sup>j</sup> The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, <sup>k</sup> the God of our fathers, hath glorified his <sup>l</sup> Servant Jesus; whom <sup>m</sup> ye delivered up, and denied before the face of <sup>n</sup> Pilate, when he had <sup>o</sup> determined to release him. 14 But ye denied <sup>p</sup> the Holy and Righteous One, and <sup>q</sup> asked for a murderer to be granted unto you, 15 and killed the <sup>r</sup> Prince of life; whom <sup>s</sup> God raised from the dead: <sup>t</sup> whereof we are <sup>u</sup> witnesses. 16 And <sup>v</sup> by faith <sup>w</sup> in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 And now, brethren, I know that <sup>x</sup> in ignorance ye did it, as did also your <sup>y</sup> rulers. 18 But the things which <sup>z</sup> God foreshowed by the mouth of all the prophets, <sup>aa</sup> that his Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. 19 <sup>ab</sup> Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may

4 And as they spake unto the people, <sup>r</sup> the priests and <sup>s</sup> the captain of the temple and <sup>t</sup> the Sadducees <sup>u</sup> came upon them, 2 being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed <sup>v</sup> in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them, and <sup>w</sup> put them in ward unto the morrow: for it was now eventide. 4 But many of them that heard the word believed; and <sup>x</sup> the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their <sup>y</sup> rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem; 6 and <sup>z</sup> Annas the high priest was there, and <sup>aa</sup> Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 7 And when they had set them in

13 Now when they beheld the <sup>l</sup> boldness of <sup>m</sup> Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and <sup>n</sup> they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man that was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the <sup>o</sup> council, they conferred among themselves, 16 saying, <sup>p</sup> What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a <sup>q</sup> notable <sup>r</sup> miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man <sup>s</sup> in this name. 18 And they called them, and <sup>t</sup> charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But <sup>u</sup> Peter and John answered and said unto them, <sup>v</sup> Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: 20 for <sup>w</sup> we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard. 21 And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, <sup>x</sup> because of the people; for all men <sup>y</sup> glorified God for that which was done. 22 For the man was more than forty years old, on

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but <sup>bi</sup> they had all things common. 33 And <sup>bj</sup> with great power gave the apostles their <sup>bk</sup> witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus <sup>bl</sup>; and great grace was upon them all. 34 For neither was there among them any that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses <sup>a</sup>sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, <sup>b</sup>35 and <sup>c</sup>laid them at the apostles' feet: and <sup>d</sup>distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, <sup>2</sup> and <sup>a</sup>kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and <sup>b</sup>laid it at the apostles' feet. <sup>3</sup> But Peter said, Ananias, why hath <sup>c</sup>Satan filled thy heart to <sup>d</sup>lie <sup>e</sup>to the Holy Spirit, and to <sup>f</sup>keep back part of the price of the land? <sup>4</sup> While it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but <sup>1</sup>unto God. <sup>5</sup> And Ananias hearing these words <sup>1</sup>fell down and gave up the ghost: and <sup>o</sup>great fear came upon all that heard it. <sup>6</sup> And the <sup>3</sup>young men arose and <sup>p</sup>wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. <sup>8</sup> And Peter <sup>q</sup>answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land <sup>r</sup>for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. <sup>9</sup> But Peter <sup>said</sup> unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to <sup>t</sup>try <sup>u</sup>the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. <sup>10</sup> And she <sup>v</sup>fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. <sup>11</sup> And <sup>o</sup>great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.

17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is <sup>aq</sup>the sect of <sup>b</sup>the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, <sup>18</sup> and laid hands on the apostles, and <sup>c</sup>put them in public ward. <sup>19</sup> But <sup>2</sup>an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them out, and said, <sup>20</sup> Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all <sup>e</sup>the words of this Life. <sup>21</sup> And when they heard <sup>ah</sup>this, they entered into the temple <sup>f</sup>about daybreak, and taught. But <sup>g</sup>the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called <sup>h</sup>the council together, and all <sup>i</sup>the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought.

22 But <sup>k</sup>the officers that came found them not in the prison; and they returned, and told, <sup>23</sup> saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within. <sup>24</sup> Now when <sup>l</sup>the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this would grow. <sup>25</sup> And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in the temple standing and teaching the people. <sup>26</sup> Then went <sup>m</sup>the captain with <sup>n</sup>the officers, and brought them, <sup>but</sup> without violence; for <sup>o</sup>they feared the peo-

And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, We <sup>b</sup> strictly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and <sup>c</sup> intend to bring this man's blood upon us. 29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, <sup>d</sup> We must obey God rather than men. 30 <sup>e</sup> The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye <sup>f</sup> slew, hanging him on a tree. 31 <sup>g</sup> Him did God exalt <sup>h</sup> with his right hand to be a <sup>i</sup> Prince and a <sup>k</sup> Saviour, to give <sup>l</sup> repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are <sup>m</sup> witnesses <sup>n</sup> of these <sup>o</sup> things; <sup>p</sup> and <sup>q</sup> so is the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 But they, when they heard this, were <sup>r</sup> cut to the heart, and were minded to slay them. 34 But there stood up one in <sup>s</sup> the council, a Pharisee, named <sup>t</sup> Gamaliel, a <sup>u</sup> doctor of the law, had in honor of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a little while. 35 And he said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves as touching these men, what ye are about to do. 36 For before these days rose up Theudas, <sup>v</sup> giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nought. 37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of <sup>w</sup> the enrolment, and drew away <sup>x</sup> some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work <sup>y</sup> be of men, it will be overthrown: 39 but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be <sup>z</sup> fighting against God. 40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles unto them, they <sup>aa</sup> beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They

Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God. 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and seized him, and brought him into <sup>b</sup> the council, 13 and set up <sup>c</sup> false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak words against this <sup>a</sup> holy place, and the law: 14 for we have heard him say, that <sup>c</sup> this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change <sup>d</sup> the customs which Moses delivered unto us. 15 And all that sat in the <sup>b</sup> council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7 And the high priest said, Are these things so? 2 And he said,

<sup>a</sup> The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said unto him, <sup>k</sup> Get thee out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee. 4 <sup>i</sup> Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Haran: and <sup>l</sup> from thence, when his father was dead, God removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell: 5 and he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: and <sup>m</sup> he promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. 6 And <sup>n</sup> God spake on this wise, that his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill, four hundred years. 7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and <sup>o</sup> after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place. 8 And he <sup>p</sup> gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so <sup>q</sup> Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and <sup>r</sup> Isaac begat Jacob, and <sup>s</sup> Jacob the twelve <sup>t</sup> patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, <sup>u</sup> moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt: and God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions,

Stephen's Defence continued; he is stoned

saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Wouldest thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday? 29 And <sup>a</sup>Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. 30 And when forty years were fulfilled, <sup>b</sup>an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came a voice of the Lord, 32 <sup>c</sup>I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. And Moses trembled, and durst not behold. 33 And the Lord said unto him, <sup>d</sup>Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground. 34 <sup>e</sup>I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and <sup>f</sup>now come, I will send thee into Egypt. 35 This Moses whom they <sup>g</sup>refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a <sup>h</sup>deliverer with the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. 36 <sup>i</sup>This man led them forth, having wrought <sup>j</sup>wonders and <sup>k</sup>signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and <sup>l</sup>in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, <sup>m</sup>A prophet shall God raise up unto you from among your brethren, <sup>n</sup>like unto me. 38 This is he that was in <sup>o</sup>the <sup>p</sup>church in the wilderness with <sup>q</sup>the angel that spake to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received <sup>r</sup>living <sup>s</sup>oracles to give unto us: 39 to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but <sup>t</sup>thrust him from them, and turned back in their hearts unto Egypt, 40 saying unto Aaron, <sup>u</sup>Make us gods that shall go before us: for as for this Moses, who led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him. 41 And <sup>v</sup>they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in <sup>w</sup>the works of their hands. 42 But God <sup>x</sup>turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

8 And when he had said this, he <sup>i</sup> fell asleep. 1 And <sup>j</sup> Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against <sup>k</sup> the church which was in Jerusalem; and they were all <sup>l</sup> scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and <sup>m</sup> Samaria, except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen, and made great lamentation over him. 3 But <sup>n</sup> Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and <sup>o</sup> dragging men and women committed them to prison.

4 They therefore that <sup>p</sup> were scattered abroad went about <sup>q</sup> preaching the word. 5 And <sup>r</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed unto them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard, and saw the signs which he did. 7 <sup>s</sup> For from many of those that had <sup>t</sup> unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were <sup>u</sup> palsied, and that were lame, were healed. 8 And there was <sup>v</sup> much joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who beforetime in the city used <sup>w</sup> sorcery, and amazed the <sup>x</sup> people of Samaria, <sup>y</sup> giving out that himself was some great one: 10 to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, <sup>z</sup> This man is that power of God which is called Great. 11 And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had amazed them with his <sup>aa</sup> sorceries. 12 But when they believed Philip <sup>ab</sup> preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were <sup>ac</sup> baptized, both

14 Now when <sup>e</sup> the apostles that were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them <sup>f</sup> Peter and John: 15 who, when they were come down, prayed for them, <sup>g</sup> that they might receive the Holy Spirit: 16 for as yet it was fallen upon none of them: only they had been <sup>h</sup> baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then <sup>i</sup> laid they their hands on them, and they <sup>j</sup> received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the <sup>k</sup> Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, 19 saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit. 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought <sup>l</sup> to obtain the gift of God with money. 21 Thou hast <sup>m</sup> neither part nor lot in this <sup>n</sup> matter: for thy heart is not <sup>o</sup> right before God. 22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee. 23 For I see that thou <sup>p</sup> art in the gall of bitterness and in <sup>q</sup> the bond of iniquity. 24 And Simon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 They therefore, when they had <sup>r</sup> testified and spoken <sup>s</sup> the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and <sup>t</sup> preached the gospel to many villages of the <sup>u</sup> Samaritans.

26 But <sup>v</sup> an angel of the Lord spake unto <sup>w</sup> Philip, saying, Arise, and go <sup>x</sup> toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto <sup>y</sup> Gaza: the same is desert. 27 And he arose and went: and behold, <sup>z</sup> a man of Ethiopia, a

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch. The Conversion of Saul, who is visited by Ananias

eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who <sup>a</sup>had come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 and he was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And <sup>b</sup>the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. 30 And Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? 31 And he said, How can I, except some one shall guide me? And he besought Philip to come up and sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the scripture which he was reading was this,

<sup>1</sup>He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;

And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,

So he openeth not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away:

His generation who shall declare?

For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other? 35 And Philip <sup>c</sup>opened his mouth, and <sup>d</sup>beginning from this scripture,

<sup>e</sup>preached unto him Jesus. 36 And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water;

<sup>f</sup>what doth hinder me to be baptized? <sup>g</sup>38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, <sup>h</sup>the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at <sup>i</sup>Azotus; and passing through he <sup>j</sup>preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to <sup>k</sup>Cæsarea.

cus unto <sup>q</sup>the synagogues, that if he found any that were of <sup>r</sup>the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Damascus: and <sup>s</sup>suddenly there shone round about him a light out of heaven: 4 and <sup>t</sup>he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? 5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: 6 but rise, and enter into the city, and <sup>u</sup>it shall be told thee what thou must do. 7 And the men that journeyed with him <sup>v</sup>stood speechless, <sup>w</sup>hearing the <sup>x</sup>voice, but beholding no man. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and <sup>y</sup>when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him into <sup>z</sup>Damascus. 9 And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at <sup>aa</sup>Damascus, named <sup>ab</sup>Ananias; and the Lord said unto him in <sup>ac</sup>a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. 11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of <sup>ad</sup>Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth; 12 and he hath seen a man named Ananias coming in, and <sup>ae</sup>laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight. 13 But Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, <sup>af</sup>how much evil he did to <sup>ag</sup>thy saints at Jerusalem: 14 and here he <sup>ah</sup>hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that <sup>ai</sup>call upon thy name. 15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for <sup>aj</sup>he is a <sup>ak</sup>chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before <sup>al</sup>the Gentiles and <sup>am</sup>kings, and the children of Israel: 16 for <sup>an</sup>I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake. 17 And Ananias departed, and en-

23 And when <sup>a</sup> many days were fulfilled, <sup>b</sup> the Jews took counsel together to kill him: 24 but <sup>c</sup> their plot became known to Saul. And <sup>d</sup> they watched the gates also day and night that they might kill him: 25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a <sup>e</sup> basket.

26 And <sup>a</sup> when he was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to <sup>b</sup> the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But <sup>c</sup> Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had <sup>d</sup> seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how <sup>e</sup> at Damascus he had <sup>f</sup> preached boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 <sup>g</sup> preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the <sup>h</sup> Grecian Jews; but they were seeking to kill him. 30 And when <sup>i</sup> the brethren knew it, they brought him down to <sup>j</sup> Cæsarea, and <sup>k</sup> sent him forth to <sup>l</sup> Tarsus.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter went throughout all parts, he came down also to <sup>b</sup> the saints that dwelt at <sup>c</sup> Lydda. 33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, who had kept his bed eight years; for he was palsied. 34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And straightway he arose. 35 And all that dwelt at <sup>d</sup> Lydda and in <sup>e</sup> Sharon saw him, and they <sup>f</sup> turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at <sup>g</sup> Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called <sup>h</sup> Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. 37 And it came to pass in those days, that she fell sick, and died: and when they had washed her, they laid her in an <sup>i</sup> upper chamber. 38 And as Lydda was nigh unto <sup>j</sup> Joppa, <sup>k</sup> the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men unto him, entreating him, Delay not to come on unto us. 39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he was come, they brought him into the <sup>l</sup> upper chamber: and all the <sup>m</sup> widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. 40 But Peter <sup>n</sup> put them all forth, and <sup>o</sup> kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, <sup>p</sup> Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her up; and calling <sup>q</sup> the saints and <sup>r</sup> widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all <sup>s</sup> Joppa: and <sup>t</sup> many believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass, that he abode many days in <sup>u</sup> Joppa with <sup>v</sup> one Simon a tanner.

hour of the day, <sup>a</sup>an angel of God coming in unto him, and saying to him, Cornelius. 4 And he, <sup>b</sup>fastening his eyes upon him, and being affrighted, said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms <sup>c</sup>are gone up <sup>d</sup>for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to <sup>e</sup>Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter: 6 he lodgeth with <sup>f</sup>one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. 7 And when the angel that spake unto him was departed, he called two of his household-servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; 8 and having rehearsed all things unto them, he sent them to <sup>e</sup>Joppa.

9 Now on the morrow, as they were on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, <sup>g</sup>Peter went up upon <sup>h</sup>the housetop to pray, about <sup>i</sup>the sixth hour: 10 and he became hungry, and desired to eat: but while they made ready, he <sup>k</sup>fell into a trance; 11 and he beheld <sup>l</sup>the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth: 12 wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts and creeping things of the earth and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill and eat. 14 But Peter said, Not so, <sup>m</sup>Lord; for <sup>n</sup>I have never eaten anything that is common and unclean. 15 And a voice <sup>o</sup>came unto him again the second time, <sup>o</sup>What God hath cleansed, make not thou common. 16 And this was done thrice: and straightway the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what <sup>p</sup>the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, <sup>q</sup>the men that were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, 18 and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, were lodging there. 19 And while Peter thought on <sup>r</sup>the vision, <sup>r</sup>the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee. 20 But arise, and get thee down, and <sup>s</sup>go with them, nothing doubting: for I have sent them. 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come? 22 And they said, Cornelius a centution, a righteous man and <sup>t</sup>one that feareth God, and well reported of by all the nation of the Jews, <sup>u</sup>was warned of God by a <sup>v</sup>holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear <sup>w</sup>words from thee. 23 So he called them in and lodged them.

And on the morrow he arose and went forth with them, and <sup>y</sup>certain of <sup>z</sup>the brethren from <sup>e</sup>Joppa accompanied him. 24 And on the morrow <sup>1</sup>they entered into <sup>a</sup>Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and his near friends. 25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and <sup>2b</sup>worshipped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, <sup>c</sup>Stand up; I myself also am a man. 27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and findeth <sup>d</sup>many come together: 28 and he said unto them, Ye yourselves know <sup>3</sup>how <sup>e</sup>it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to join himself or come unto one of another nation; and <sup>yet</sup> <sup>f</sup>unto me hath God showed that I should not call any man common or unclean: 29 wherefore also I came without gainsaying, when I was sent for. I ask therefore with what intent ye sent for me. 30 And Cornelius said, <sup>g</sup>Four days ago, until this hour, I was keeping <sup>h</sup>the ninth hour of prayer in my house; and behold, <sup>i</sup>a man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and saith, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. 32 Send therefore to <sup>k</sup>Joppa, and call unto thee Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he lodgeth in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea side. 33 Forthwith therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God, to hear all things that have been commanded thee of the Lord. 34 And Peter <sup>l</sup>opened his mouth, and said,

Of a truth I perceive that <sup>m</sup>God is no respecter of persons: 35 but <sup>n</sup>in every nation he that <sup>o</sup>feareth

him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him. 36 <sup>1</sup>The word which he sent unto the children of Israel, <sup>a</sup>preaching <sup>2</sup>good tidings of <sup>b</sup>peace by Jesus Christ (he is <sup>c</sup>Lord of all)—37 that saying ye yourselves know, which was published throughout all Judæa, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; 38 even <sup>a</sup>Jesus of Nazareth, how God <sup>a</sup>anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power: <sup>r</sup>who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for <sup>9</sup>God was with him. 39 And we are <sup>h</sup>witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom also they <sup>i</sup>slew, hanging him on a tree. 40 Him <sup>k</sup>God raised up the third day, and gave him to be made manifest, 41 <sup>l</sup>not to all the people, but unto <sup>h</sup>witnesses that were chosen before of God, even to us, <sup>m</sup>who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he <sup>n</sup>charged us to preach unto the people, and to <sup>o</sup>testify that this is he who is <sup>p</sup>ordained of God to be the <sup>q</sup>Judge of the living and the dead. 43 To him bear <sup>r</sup>all the prophets witness, that through <sup>s</sup>his name every one that believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, <sup>t</sup>the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word. 45 And <sup>u</sup>they of the circumcision that believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was <sup>v</sup>poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit. 46 For they heard them <sup>w</sup>speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then <sup>x</sup>answered Peter, 47 <sup>y</sup>Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who <sup>z</sup>have received the Holy Spirit as well as we? 48 And he <sup>b</sup>commanded them to be baptized <sup>c</sup>in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and <sup>d</sup>the brethren that were in Judæa heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, <sup>e</sup>they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

And <sup>h</sup>his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And he did so. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. 9 And he went out, and followed; and he knew not that it was true which was done <sup>7</sup>by the angel, but thought he saw <sup>i</sup>a vision. 10 And when they were past the first and the second guard, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which <sup>k</sup>opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and straightway the angel departed from him. 11 And when Peter <sup>l</sup>was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a truth, that <sup>m</sup>the Lord hath sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of <sup>n</sup>John whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together and <sup>o</sup>were praying. 13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, <sup>p</sup>a maid came to answer, named Rhoda. 14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate <sup>q</sup>for joy, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate. 15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she confidently affirmed that it was even so. And they said, It is <sup>r</sup>his angel. 16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But he, <sup>a</sup>beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, Tell these things unto <sup>b</sup>James, and to <sup>c</sup>the brethren. And he departed, and went to another place. 18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter. 19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should <sup>d</sup>be <sup>e</sup>put to death. And he went down from Judæa to <sup>f</sup>Cæsarea, and tarried there.

20 Now he was highly displeased with them of <sup>g</sup>Tyre and <sup>h</sup>Sidon: and they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, they asked for peace, because <sup>i</sup>their country was fed from the king's country. 21 And upon a set day Herod arrayed himself in royal apparel, and sat on the <sup>j</sup>throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people shouted, saying, The voice of a god, and not of a man. 23 And immediately <sup>k</sup>an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he <sup>l</sup>was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But <sup>m</sup>the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And <sup>n</sup>Barnabas and <sup>o</sup>Saul returned <sup>p</sup>from Jerusalem, <sup>q</sup>when they had fulfilled their ministration, taking with them <sup>r</sup>John whose surname was Mark.

4 So they, being <sup>ah</sup>sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to <sup>ai</sup>Cyprus. 5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in <sup>aj</sup>the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also <sup>ak</sup>John as their attendant. 6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Paphos, they found a certain <sup>al</sup>sorcerer, a <sup>am</sup>false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus: 7 who was with the <sup>an</sup>proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the <sup>ao</sup>sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the <sup>ap</sup>proconsul from <sup>aq</sup>the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also <sup>ar</sup>called Paul, <sup>as</sup>filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, 10 and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou <sup>at</sup>son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert <sup>au</sup>the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, <sup>av</sup>the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun <sup>aw</sup>for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the <sup>ax</sup>proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at <sup>ay</sup>the teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company set sail from <sup>az</sup>Paphos, and came to <sup>ba</sup>Perga in <sup>bb</sup>Pamphylia: and <sup>bc</sup>John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to <sup>bd</sup>Antioch of <sup>be</sup>Pisidia; and they went into <sup>bf</sup>the synagogue on <sup>bg</sup>the sabbath day, and sat down. 15 And after <sup>bh</sup>the reading of the law and <sup>bi</sup>the prophets <sup>bj</sup>the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. 16 And Paul stood up, and <sup>bk</sup>beckoning with the hand said,

Paul's Address at Antioch of Pisidia. Asked to speak on the next Sabbath

God, hearken: 17 The God of this people Israel <sup>a</sup> chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm led them forth out of it. 18 And for about <sup>b</sup> the time of forty years <sup>c</sup> as a nursing-father bare he them in the wilderness. 19 And <sup>d</sup> when he had destroyed <sup>e</sup> seven nations in the land of Canaan, he <sup>f</sup> gave them their land for an inheritance, for <sup>g</sup> about four hundred and fifty years: 20 and after these things he <sup>h</sup> gave them judges until <sup>i</sup> Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they <sup>k</sup> asked for a king: and God gave unto them <sup>l</sup> Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for the space of forty years. 22 And when he had <sup>m</sup> removed him, he raised up David to be their king; to whom also he bare witness and said, <sup>n</sup> I have found <sup>o</sup> David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who shall do all my <sup>p</sup> will. 23 <sup>q</sup> Of this man's seed hath God <sup>r</sup> according to promise brought unto Israel <sup>s</sup> a Saviour, Jesus; 24 when <sup>t</sup> John had first preached <sup>u</sup> before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John <sup>v</sup> was fulfilling his course, <sup>w</sup> he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not <sup>x</sup> he. But behold, there cometh one after me the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose. 26 Brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of <sup>y</sup> this salvation sent forth. 27 For they that dwell in Jerusalem, and their <sup>z</sup> rulers, <sup>aa</sup> because they knew him not, nor the voices of <sup>ab</sup> the prophets which are <sup>ac</sup> read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning <sup>ad</sup> him. 28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet <sup>ae</sup> asked they of Pilate that he should be slain. 29 And when they had <sup>af</sup> fulfilled all things that were written of him, <sup>ag</sup> they took him down from <sup>ah</sup> the tree, and laid him in a tomb. 30 But God <sup>ai</sup> raised him from the dead: 31 and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him <sup>aj</sup> from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now <sup>ak</sup> his witnesses unto the people. 32 And we <sup>al</sup> bring you good tidings of <sup>am</sup> the promise

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next <sup>q</sup> sabbath. 43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the <sup>r</sup> devout <sup>s</sup> proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in <sup>t</sup> the grace of God.

44 And the next <sup>u</sup> sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of <sup>v</sup> God. 45 But when <sup>w</sup> the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and <sup>x</sup> blasphemed. 46 And Paul and Barnabas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word

"I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,

That thou shouldst be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the region. 50 But the Jews urged on the devout women of honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders. 51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. 52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14 And it came to pass in Iconium that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. 2 But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made them evil affected against the brethren. 3 Long time therefore they tarried there speaking boldly in the Lord, who bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. 5 And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to treat them shamefully and to stone them, 6 they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe, and the region round about: 7 and there they preached the gospel.

8 And at Lystra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. 9 The same heard Paul speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, 10 said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped up and walked. 11 And when the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. 12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. 13 And the priest of Jupiter whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. 14 But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among the multitude, crying out 15 and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto a living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: 16 who in the generations gone by suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways. 17 And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness. 18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.

19 But there came Jews thither from Antioch and Iconium: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. 20 But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch, 22 confirming the souls of the dis-

Paul and Barnabas disagree about Mark. Paul chooses Timothy him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.

22 Then it seemed good to <sup>a</sup>the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to <sup>b</sup>Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas called Barsabbas, and <sup>c</sup>Silas, chief men among <sup>d</sup>the brethren: 23 and they wrote thus by them, <sup>1a</sup>The apostles and the elders, brethren, unto <sup>a</sup>the brethren who are of the Gentiles in <sup>b</sup>Antioch and <sup>c</sup>Syria and <sup>f</sup>Cilicia, <sup>g</sup>greeting: 24 Forasmuch as we have heard that <sup>h</sup>certain <sup>2</sup>who went out from us have <sup>i</sup>troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no commandment; 25 <sup>k</sup>it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men that have <sup>l</sup>hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore <sup>m</sup>Judas and <sup>n</sup>Silas, who themselves also shall tell you the same things by word of mouth. 28 For <sup>k</sup>it seemed good to <sup>o</sup>the Holy Spirit, and to <sup>p</sup>us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from <sup>q</sup>things sacrificed to idols, and from <sup>r</sup>blood, and from <sup>s</sup>things strangled, and from <sup>t</sup>fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

30 So they, when they were dismissed, <sup>s</sup>came down to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle. 31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced for the <sup>3</sup>consolation. 32 And <sup>m</sup>Judas and <sup>n</sup>Silas, being themselves also <sup>u</sup>prophets, <sup>4</sup>exhorted <sup>a</sup>the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. 33 And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed <sup>in</sup>peace from the brethren unto those that had <sup>v</sup>sent them forth. 35 But <sup>x</sup>Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and <sup>6y</sup>preaching <sup>z</sup>the word of the Lord, with many others also.

16 <sup>k</sup>And he came also to <sup>k</sup>Derbe and to <sup>k</sup>Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named <sup>l</sup>Timothy, the son of <sup>m</sup>a Jewess that believed; but his father was a Greek. 2 The same was well reported of by <sup>n</sup>the brethren that were at <sup>k</sup>Lystra and <sup>o</sup>Iconium. 3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he <sup>p</sup>took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them <sup>q</sup>the decrees to keep which had been ordained of <sup>r</sup>the apostles and <sup>s</sup>elders that were at Jerusalem. 5. standing, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. 10 And when he had seen <sup>a</sup> the vision, straightway <sup>b</sup> we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to <sup>1c</sup> preach the gospel unto them.

11 Setting sail therefore from <sup>a</sup> Troas, we made <sup>a</sup> a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; 12 and from thence to <sup>1</sup> Philippi, which is a city of <sup>2</sup> Macedonia, the first of the district, <sup>a</sup> a Roman colony: and we were in this city tarrying certain days. 13 And on <sup>1</sup> the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, <sup>2</sup> where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that were come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of <sup>b</sup> Thyatira, <sup>1</sup> one that worshipped God, heard us: <sup>m</sup> whose heart the Lord opened to give heed unto the things which were spoken by Paul. 15 And when she was baptized, and <sup>n</sup> her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were going to <sup>o</sup> the place of prayer, that a certain maid having <sup>3p</sup> a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying. 17 The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are <sup>4</sup> servants of <sup>q</sup> the Most High God, who proclaim unto you <sup>5</sup> the way of salvation. 18 And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee <sup>r</sup> in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their <sup>s</sup> gain was <sup>6</sup> gone, they laid hold on <sup>1</sup> Paul and Silas, and <sup>n</sup> dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers, 20 and when they had brought them unto the <sup>7</sup> magistrates, they said, These men, being Jews, do

35 But when it was day, the <sup>7</sup> magistrates sent the <sup>11</sup> serjeants, saying, Let those men go. 36 And <sup>2</sup> the jailor reported the words to Paul, saying, The <sup>7</sup> magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go <sup>n</sup> in peace. 37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, 17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews: 2 and Paul, as his custom was, went in unto them, and for three sabbath days reasoned with them from the scriptures, 3 opening and alleging that it behoved the Christ to suffer, and to rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom, said he, I proclaim unto you, is the Christ. 4 And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. 5 But the Jews, being moved with jealousy, took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathering a crowd, set the city on an uproar; and assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people. 6 And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; 7 whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus. 8 And they troubled the multitude and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things. 9 And when they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who when they were come thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honorable estate, and of men, not a few. 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed of Paul at Berea also, they came thither likewise, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then immediately the brethren sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea: and Silas and Timothy abode there still. 15 But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he beheld the city full of idols. 17 So he reasoned in the synagogue with the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met him. 18 And certain also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And they took hold of him, and brought him unto the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by thee? 20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean. 21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) 22 And Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said,

Ye men of Athens, in all things I perceive that ye are very religious. 23 For as I passed along, and observed the "objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, To AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this I set forth unto you. 24 "The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being "Lord of heaven and earth, "dwelleth not in "temples made with hands; 25 neither is he served by men's hands, "as though he needed anything, seeing he himself giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and "he made of one every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having "determined their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him and find him, "though he is not far from each one of us: 28 for "in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets 'have said,

For we are also his offspring. 29 Being then the offspring of God, we "ought not to think that "the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and device of man. 30 "The times of ignorance therefore God "overlooked; but "now he "commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent: 31 inasmuch as he hath appointed "a day in which "he will judge "the world in righteousness "by "the man whom he hath "ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he "hath raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of "the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear thee concerning this yet again.

33 Thus Paul went out from among them. 34 But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Dionysius the "Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things he departed from "Athens, and came to "Corinth. 2 And he found a certain Jew named "Aquila, a man of "Pontus by race, lately come from "Italy, with his wife "Priscilla, because "Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome: and he came unto them; 3 and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and "they wrought; for by their trade they were tentmakers. 4 And he reasoned "in the synagogue every "sabbath, and "persuaded "Jews and Greeks.

5 But when "Silas and Timothy "came down from "Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the word, "testifying to the Jews that "Jesus was the Christ. 6 And when they opposed themselves and "blasphemed, he "shook out his raiment and said unto them, "Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go "unto the Gentiles. 7 And he departed thence, and went into the house of a certain man named Titus Justus, "one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue. 8 And "Crispus, "the ruler of the synagogue, "believed in the Lord "with all his house; and many of the "Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. 9 And the Lord said unto Paul in the night by "a vision, Be not afraid, but speak and hold not thy peace: 10 for I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to harm thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But when Gallio was "proconsul of "Achaia, "the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before "the judgment-seat, 13 saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to "the law. 14 But when Paul was about to "open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: 15 but if they are "questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded to be a judge of these matters. 16 And he drove them from <sup>a</sup> the judgment-seat. 17 And they all laid hold on <sup>b</sup> Sosthenes, <sup>c</sup> the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before <sup>a</sup> the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

22 And when he had landed at <sup>n</sup> Cæsarea, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to <sup>o</sup> Antioch. 23 And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of <sup>p</sup> Galatia, and <sup>q</sup> Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.

19 And it came to pass, that, while <sup>a</sup> Apollos was at <sup>b</sup> Corinth, Paul having passed through the <sup>c</sup> upper country came

And they said unto him, Nay, <sup>a</sup> we did not so much as hear whether <sup>5</sup> the Holy Spirit was given. 3 And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism. 4 And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people <sup>9</sup> that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Jesus. 5 And when they heard this, they were <sup>h</sup> baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had <sup>i</sup> laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they <sup>k</sup> spake with tongues, and <sup>l</sup> prophesied. 7 And they were in all about twelve men.

8 And he entered into <sup>m</sup> the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to <sup>n</sup> the things concerning the kingdom of God. 9 But when <sup>o</sup> some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of <sup>p</sup> the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated <sup>q</sup> the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for the space of <sup>r</sup> two years; so that all they that dwelt in <sup>s</sup> Asia heard <sup>t</sup> the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. 11 And God wrought <sup>u</sup> special <sup>6</sup> miracles by the hands of Paul: 12 <sup>v</sup> insomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and <sup>x</sup> the evil spirits went out. 13 But certain also of the strolling Jews, <sup>y</sup> exorcists, took upon them to name over them that had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest, who did this. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I <sup>7</sup> know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at <sup>a</sup>Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. 18 Many also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. 19 And not a few of them that practised magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand <sup>b</sup>pieces of silver. 20 So mightily <sup>c</sup>grew <sup>d</sup>the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, <sup>e</sup>when he had passed through <sup>f</sup>Macedonia and <sup>g</sup>Achaia, to <sup>h</sup>go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, <sup>i</sup>I must also see Rome. 22 And having sent into <sup>j</sup>Macedonia two of <sup>k</sup>them that ministered unto him, <sup>l</sup>Timothy and <sup>m</sup>Erastus, he himself stayed in <sup>n</sup>Asia for a while.

23 And about that time there arose no small stir concerning <sup>o</sup>the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of <sup>p</sup>Diana, <sup>q</sup>brought no little business unto the craftsmen; 25 whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this business we have our wealth. 26 And ye see and hear, that not alone at <sup>r</sup>Ephesus, but almost throughout all <sup>s</sup>Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that <sup>t</sup>they are no gods, that are made with hands: 27 and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess <sup>u</sup>Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence whom all <sup>v</sup>Asia and <sup>w</sup>the world worshippeth. 28 And when they heard this they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great <sup>x</sup>is <sup>y</sup>Diana of the <sup>z</sup>Ephesians. 29 And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theatre, having seized <sup>aa</sup>Gaius and <sup>ab</sup>Aristarchus, men of <sup>ac</sup>Macedonia, Paul's <sup>ad</sup>companions in travel. 30 And when Paul was minded to

And Alexander <sup>ai</sup>beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people. 34 But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great <sup>aj</sup>is <sup>ak</sup>Diana of the Ephesians. 35 And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of <sup>al</sup>Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great <sup>am</sup>Diana, and of the <sup>an</sup>image which fell down from <sup>ao</sup>Jupiter? 36 Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. 37 For ye have brought <sup>ap</sup>hither these men, who are neither <sup>aq</sup>robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, <sup>ar</sup>the courts are open, and there are <sup>as</sup>proconsuls: let them accuse one another. 39 But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger to be <sup>at</sup>accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause <sup>au</sup>for it; and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. 41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 And after the uproar ceased, Paul having sent for <sup>av</sup>the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of them, and departed <sup>aw</sup>to go into <sup>ax</sup>Macedonia. 2 And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece. 3 And when he had spent three months <sup>ay</sup>there, and <sup>az</sup>a plot was

<sup>13</sup> But <sup>m</sup>we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go <sup>y</sup>by land. <sup>14</sup> And when he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup> And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and <sup>z</sup>the day after we came to <sup>z</sup>Miletus. <sup>16</sup> For Paul had determined to sail past <sup>y</sup>Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in <sup>c</sup>Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, <sup>z</sup>to be at Jerusalem <sup>a</sup>the day of Pentecost.

Ye yourselves know, <sup>c</sup>from the first day that I set foot in Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time, <sup>19</sup> serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell me by <sup>a</sup>the plots of the Jews; <sup>20</sup> how I <sup>c</sup>shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to house, <sup>21</sup> <sup>v</sup>testifying both to Jews and to Greeks <sup>g</sup>repentance toward God, and <sup>h</sup>faith toward our Lord Jesus <sup>6</sup>Christ. <sup>22</sup> And now, behold, <sup>i</sup>I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there: <sup>23</sup> save that <sup>k</sup>the Holy Spirit <sup>t</sup>testifieth unto me in every city, saying that <sup>l</sup>bonds and afflictions abide me. <sup>24</sup> But <sup>m</sup>I hold not my life of any account as dear unto myself, <sup>7</sup>so that I may <sup>n</sup>accomplish my course, and <sup>o</sup>the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to <sup>v</sup>testify the <sup>8</sup>gospel of <sup>p</sup>the grace of God. <sup>25</sup> And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about <sup>q</sup>preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more. <sup>26</sup> Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that <sup>r</sup>I am pure from the blood of all men. <sup>27</sup> For I <sup>c</sup>shrank not from declaring unto you the whole <sup>t</sup>counsel of God. <sup>28</sup> Take heed unto yourselves, and to all <sup>u</sup>the flock, in which the Holy Spirit hath made you <sup>v</sup>bishops, to feed <sup>o</sup>the church of <sup>10</sup>the Lord which <sup>z</sup>he <sup>11</sup>purchased with his own blood. <sup>29</sup> I know that after my departing <sup>g</sup>grievous wolves shall enter in among you, not sparing <sup>u</sup>the flock; <sup>30</sup> and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away <sup>z</sup>the disciples after them. <sup>31</sup> Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space

36 And when he had thus spoken, he<sup>k</sup> kneeled down and prayed with them all. 37 And they all wept sore, and<sup>l</sup> fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, 38 sorrowing most of all for<sup>m</sup> the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. <sup>18</sup> Philip the<sup>a</sup> evangelist, who was<sup>b</sup> one of the seven, we abode with him. 9 Now this man had four virgin daughters, who<sup>c</sup> prophesied. 10 And as we tarried there some days, there came down from Judæa a certain prophet, named<sup>d</sup> Agabus. 11 And coming to us, and<sup>e</sup> taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus<sup>f</sup> saith the Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem<sup>g</sup> bind the man that owneth this girdle, and<sup>h</sup> shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. 12 And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought him<sup>i</sup> not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for<sup>j</sup> I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for<sup>k</sup> the name of the Lord Jesus. 14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

Mobbed in the Temple, he is rescued by the Chief Captain. Addresses the People, therefore? they will certainly hear that thou art come. 23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men that <sup>a</sup>have a vow on them; 24 these take, and <sup>b</sup>purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may <sup>a</sup>shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, keeping the law. 25 But as touching the Gentiles that have believed, we <sup>1</sup>wrote, <sup>c</sup>giving judgment that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from fornication. 26 Then Paul <sup>2</sup>took the men, and the next day <sup>b</sup>purifying himself with them <sup>a</sup>went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

27 And when <sup>e</sup>the seven days were almost completed, <sup>f</sup>the Jews from <sup>g</sup>Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, 28 crying out, Men of Israel, help: <sup>h</sup>This is the man that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place; and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath <sup>i</sup>defiled this <sup>h</sup>holy place. 29 For they had before seen with him in the city <sup>k</sup>Trophimus the <sup>l</sup>Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together; and they laid hold on Paul, and <sup>m</sup>dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the <sup>n</sup>chief captain of the <sup>o</sup>band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32 And forthwith he <sup>o</sup>took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the <sup>n</sup>chief captain and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. 33 Then the <sup>n</sup>chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be <sup>p</sup>bound with <sup>q</sup>two chains; and inquired who he was, and what he had done.

34 And <sup>r</sup>some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into <sup>s</sup>the castle. 35 And when he came upon <sup>t</sup>the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, <sup>u</sup>Away with him.

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into <sup>v</sup>the castle, he saith unto the <sup>w</sup>chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know Greek? 38 Art thou not then <sup>x</sup>the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out <sup>y</sup>into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins? 39 But Paul said, <sup>z</sup>I am a Jew, of Tarsus in <sup>z</sup>Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, give me leave to speak unto the people. 40 And when he had given him leave, Paul, standing on <sup>z</sup>the stairs, <sup>a</sup>beckoned with the hand unto the people; and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the <sup>b</sup>Hebrew language, saying,

22 Brethren and fathers, <sup>c</sup>hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the <sup>d</sup>Hebrew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

3 <sup>e</sup>I am <sup>f</sup>a Jew, born in <sup>g</sup>Tarsus of <sup>z</sup>Cilicia, but brought up in this city, <sup>g</sup>at the feet of <sup>h</sup>Gamaliel, instructed according to the <sup>h</sup>strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as <sup>i</sup>ye all are this day: 4 and <sup>i</sup>I persecuted this <sup>m</sup>Way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. 5 As also <sup>n</sup>the high priest doth bear me witness, and all <sup>o</sup>the estate of the elders: from whom also I <sup>p</sup>received letters unto <sup>q</sup>the brethren, and journeyed to <sup>r</sup>Damascus to bring them also that were there unto Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. 6 <sup>s</sup>And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and drew nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. 7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a

And he said unto me, I am <sup>a</sup> Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. 9 And they that were with me <sup>b</sup> beheld indeed the light, but they <sup>c</sup> heard not the voice of him that spake to me. 10 And I said, <sup>d</sup> What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. 11 And when I <sup>e</sup> could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me I came into Damascus. 12 And one <sup>f</sup> Ananias, a devout man according to the law, <sup>g</sup> well reported of by all the Jews that dwell there, 13 came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, <sup>h</sup> Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And <sup>i</sup> in that very hour I <sup>j</sup> looked up on him. 14 And he said, <sup>k</sup> The God of our fathers hath <sup>l</sup> appointed thee to know his will, and to <sup>m</sup> see the <sup>n</sup> Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. 15 For thou shalt be <sup>o</sup> a witness for him unto all men of <sup>p</sup> what thou hast seen and heard. 16 And now why tarriest thou? <sup>q</sup> arise, and <sup>r</sup> wash away thy sins, <sup>s</sup> calling on his name. 17 And it came to pass, that, when I had <sup>t</sup> returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I <sup>u</sup> fell into a trance, 18 and saw him saying unto me, <sup>v</sup> Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem; because they will not receive of thee testimony concerning me. 19 And I said, Lord, they themselves know that <sup>w</sup> I imprisoned and <sup>x</sup> beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee: 20 and <sup>y</sup> when the blood of Stephen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, and keeping the garments of them that slew him. 21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence <sup>z</sup> unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, <sup>a</sup> Away with such a fellow from the earth: for <sup>b</sup> it is not fit that he should live. 23 And as they cried out, and <sup>c</sup> threw off their garments, and <sup>d</sup> cast dust into the air, 24 the <sup>e</sup> chief cap-

And he said, Yea. 28 And the <sup>g</sup> chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am <sup>h</sup> a Roman born. 29 They then that were about to <sup>i</sup> examine him straightway departed from him: and the <sup>j</sup> chief captain also <sup>k</sup> was afraid when he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had <sup>l</sup> bound him.

30 But on the morrow, <sup>m</sup> desiring to know the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he <sup>n</sup> loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all <sup>o</sup> the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on <sup>a</sup> the council, said, <sup>b</sup> Brethren, <sup>c</sup> I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day. 2 And the high priest <sup>d</sup> Ananias commanded them that stood by him <sup>e</sup> to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, <sup>f</sup> thou whited wall: and <sup>g</sup> sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? 4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? 5 And Paul said, I knew not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it is written, <sup>h</sup> Thou shalt not speak evil of a ruler of thy people. 6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were <sup>i</sup> Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in <sup>j</sup> the council, <sup>k</sup> Brethren, <sup>l</sup> I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees: touching <sup>m</sup> the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. 7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 For<sup>a</sup> the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess both. 9 And there arose a great clamor: and some of<sup>b</sup> the scribes of the Pharisees' part stood up, and strove, saying, <sup>c</sup>We find no evil in this man: and <sup>d</sup>what if a spirit hath spoken to him, or an angel? 10 And when there arose a great dissension, the <sup>e</sup>chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into <sup>f</sup>the castle.

11 And <sup>g</sup>the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, <sup>h</sup>Be of good cheer: for <sup>i</sup>as thou hast <sup>j</sup>testified concerning me at Jerusalem, so must thou bear <sup>k</sup>witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, <sup>l</sup>the Jews banded together, and <sup>m</sup>bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. 13 And they were more than forty that made this conspiracy. 14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have <sup>n</sup>bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore do ye with <sup>o</sup>the council signify to the <sup>p</sup>chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, before he comes near, are ready to slay him. 16 But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, <sup>q</sup>and he came and entered into <sup>r</sup>the castle and told Paul. 17 And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the <sup>s</sup>chief captain; for he hath something to tell him. 18 So he took him, and brought him to the <sup>t</sup>chief captain, and saith, Paul <sup>u</sup>the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say to thee. 19 And the <sup>v</sup>chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is it that thou hast to tell me? 20 And he said, <sup>w</sup>The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto <sup>x</sup>the council, as though thou would-

26 Claudius Lysias unto the <sup>7</sup>most excellent governor Felix, <sup>8</sup>greeting. 27 This man was seized by the Jews, and <sup>9</sup>was about to be slain of them, when <sup>10</sup>I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, <sup>11</sup>having learned that he was a Roman. 28 And <sup>12</sup>desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, <sup>13</sup>I <sup>14</sup>brought him down unto their <sup>15</sup>council: 29 whom I found to be accused about <sup>16</sup>questions of their law, but to have <sup>17</sup>nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And when it was <sup>18</sup>shown to me that there would be <sup>19</sup>a plot <sup>20</sup>against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging <sup>21</sup>his accusers also to speak against him before thee.<sup>5</sup>

31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. 32 But on the morrow they left <sup>1</sup>the horsemen to go with him, and returned to <sup>2</sup>the castle: 33 and they, when they came to <sup>3</sup>Caesarea and delivered the letter to <sup>4</sup>the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And when he had read it, he asked of what <sup>5</sup>province he was; and when he understood that <sup>6</sup>he was of Cilicia, 35 I will hear thee fully, said he, when thine

22 But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning <sup>a</sup>the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lysias the <sup>7</sup>chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter. 23 And he gave order to the centurion that he should be <sup>e</sup>kept in charge, and should <sup>7</sup>have indulgence; and not to forbid any of <sup>9</sup>his friends to minister unto him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto <sup>d</sup> Cæsarea; and on the morrow he sat on <sup>e</sup> the judgment-seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he was come, the Jews that had come down from Jerusalem stood round about him, bringing against him <sup>f</sup> many and grievous charges <sup>g</sup> which they could not prove; 8 while Paul said in his defence, <sup>h</sup> Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, have I sinned at all. 9 But Festus, <sup>i</sup> desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, <sup>k</sup> Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? 10 But Paul said, I am standing before Cæsar's <sup>e</sup> judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. 11 If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if none of those things is true whereof these accuse me, no man can <sup>l</sup> give me up unto them. I <sup>l</sup> appeal unto Cæsar. 12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with <sup>m</sup> the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæsar: unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at <sup>d</sup> Cæsarea, <sup>2</sup> and saluted Festus. 14 And as they tarried there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is a certain man <sup>n</sup> left a prisoner by Felix; 15 about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews <sup>o</sup> informed me, asking for sentence against him. 16 To whom I <sup>p</sup> answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to <sup>1</sup> give up any man, before that <sup>q</sup> the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence concerning the matter laid against him. 17 When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat on <sup>e</sup> the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought. 18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed; 19 but had certain <sup>r</sup> questions against him of their own <sup>3</sup> religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And I, <sup>4</sup> being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters. 21 But when Paul had <sup>u</sup> appealed to be kept for the decision of <sup>4</sup> the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him to Cæsar. 22 And <sup>v</sup> Agrippa said unto Festus, I also <sup>w</sup> could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when <sup>x</sup> Agrippa was come, and <sup>x</sup> Bernice, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing with the <sup>6</sup> chief captains and the principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus saith, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, about whom <sup>y</sup> all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that <sup>z</sup> he ought not to live any longer. 25 But I found that he had committed <sup>a</sup> nothing worthy of death: and as he himself <sup>u</sup> appealed to <sup>4</sup> the emperor I determined to send him. 26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I may have somewhat to write. 27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not withal to signify the charges against him.

26 And <sup>v</sup> Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews: 3<sup>1</sup> especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. 4<sup>2</sup> My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having knowledge of me from the first, if they be willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers; 7 unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O king! 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? 9<sup>3</sup> I verily thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 And this I also did in Jerusalem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. 11 And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto foreign cities. 12<sup>2</sup> Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them that journeyed with me. 14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the goad. 15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. 16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will appear unto thee; 17<sup>4</sup> delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, 18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me. 19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: 20 but declared both to them of Damascus first, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judæa, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 For this cause the Jews seized me in the temple, and assayed to kill me. 22 Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand unto this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come; 23 how that the Christ must suffer, and how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much learning is turning thee mad. 25 But Paul saith, I am not mad, most excellent Festus; but speak forth words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest. 28 And Agrippa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian. 29 And Paul said, I would to God, that I might with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me, this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.

Paul might have been set at Liberty but for his Appeal. Paul sails for Italy. The Voyage Dangerous

30 And <sup>a</sup>the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: 31 and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, <sup>b</sup>This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. 32 And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been <sup>c</sup>set at Liberty, if he had not <sup>d</sup>appealed unto Caesar.

27 And when it was determined that <sup>e</sup>we <sup>f</sup>should sail for <sup>g</sup>Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan <sup>h</sup>band. 2 And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of <sup>i</sup>Asia, we put to sea, <sup>k</sup>Aristarchus, a <sup>l</sup>Macedonian of <sup>m</sup>Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we touched at <sup>n</sup>Sidon: and Julius <sup>o</sup>treated Paul kindly, and <sup>p</sup>gave him leave to go unto his friends and <sup>q</sup>refresh himself. 4 And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of <sup>r</sup>Cyprus, because <sup>s</sup>the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed across the sea which is off <sup>t</sup>Cilicia and <sup>u</sup>Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion found a <sup>v</sup>ship of Alexandria sailing for <sup>w</sup>Italy; and he put us therein. 7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, <sup>x</sup>the wind not <sup>y</sup>further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of <sup>z</sup>Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and with difficulty <sup>aa</sup>coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because <sup>ab</sup>the Fast was now already gone by, Paul admonished them, 10 and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with <sup>ac</sup>injury and much loss, not only of the lading and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion gave more heed to the <sup>ad</sup>master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were spoken by Paul. 12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phœnix, and winter <sup>ae</sup>there; <sup>af</sup>which is a haven of <sup>ag</sup>Crete, looking <sup>ah</sup>north-east and south-east. 13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and <sup>ai</sup>sailed along <sup>aj</sup>Crete, close in shore. 14 But after no long time there <sup>ak</sup>beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euraquilo: 15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face the wind, we gave way to <sup>al</sup>it, and were driven. 16 And running under the lee of a small island called <sup>am</sup>Cauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: 17 and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, under-girding the ship; and, fearing lest they should <sup>an</sup>be cast upon the Syrtris, they lowered the gear, and so were driven. 18 And as we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to <sup>ao</sup>throw <sup>ap</sup>the freight overboard; 19 and the third day they cast out with their own hands the <sup>aq</sup>tackling of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars shone upon <sup>ar</sup>us for many days, and no small tempest lay on <sup>as</sup>us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away. 21 And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, <sup>at</sup>Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from <sup>au</sup>Crete, and have gotten this <sup>av</sup>injury and loss. 22 And now I exhort you to be <sup>aw</sup>of good cheer; for there shall be no loss of life among you, but <sup>ax</sup>only of the ship. 23 For <sup>ay</sup>there stood by me this night <sup>az</sup>an angel of the God whose I am, <sup>ba</sup>whom also I serve, 24 saying, Fear not, Paul; <sup>bb</sup>thou must stand before Caesar: and lo, God hath granted thee <sup>bc</sup>all them that sail with thee. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be <sup>bd</sup>of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath been spoken unto me. 26 But we must <sup>be</sup>be cast upon a certain <sup>bf</sup>island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of Adria, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some country: 28 and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and after a little space, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. <sup>29</sup> And fearing lest haply we should <sup>a</sup> be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and <sup>1</sup> wished for the day. <sup>30</sup> And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered <sup>b</sup> the boat into the sea, under color as though they would lay out anchors from the foreship, <sup>31</sup> Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved. <sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the <sup>c</sup> ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. <sup>33</sup> And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. <sup>34</sup> Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for <sup>d</sup> there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you. <sup>35</sup> And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he <sup>e</sup> gave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he brake it, and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> Then were they all <sup>f</sup> of good cheer, and themselves also took food. <sup>37</sup> And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen <sup>g</sup> souls. <sup>38</sup> And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, <sup>h</sup> throwing out the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup> And when it was day, <sup>i</sup> they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they could <sup>j</sup> drive the ship upon it. <sup>40</sup> And casting off <sup>k</sup> the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. <sup>41</sup> But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. <sup>42</sup> And the soldiers' counsel was to <sup>l</sup> kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. <sup>43</sup> But the centurion, <sup>m</sup> desiring to save Paul, stayed them from their purpose; and commanded that they who could swim should cast themselves overboard,

28 And when <sup>o</sup> we were escaped, <sup>2</sup> then we knew that <sup>q</sup> the island was called <sup>3</sup> Melita. <sup>2</sup> And <sup>r</sup> the barbarians showed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and <sup>s</sup> received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. <sup>3</sup> But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out <sup>4</sup> by reason of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>4</sup> And when <sup>r</sup> the barbarians saw the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, <sup>t</sup> No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped from the sea, yet <sup>u</sup> Justice hath not suffered to live. <sup>5</sup> Howbeit <sup>v</sup> he shook off the creature into the fire, and took no harm. <sup>6</sup> But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and <sup>z</sup> said that he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius; who received us, and entertained us three days courteously. <sup>8</sup> And it was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and <sup>y</sup> prayed, and <sup>z</sup> laying his hands on him healed him. <sup>9</sup> And when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured: <sup>10</sup> who also honored us with many honors; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.

<sup>11</sup> And after three months we set sail in <sup>a</sup> a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was <sup>5</sup> The Twin Brothers. <sup>12</sup> And touching at Syracuse, we tarried there three days. <sup>13</sup> And from thence we <sup>6</sup> made a circuit, and arrived at Rhegium: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli; <sup>14</sup> where we found <sup>a</sup> brethren, and were entreated to tarry with them seven days: and so we came to Rome. 15 And from thence the <sup>a</sup> brethren, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we entered into Rome, <sup>1</sup> Paul was <sup>b</sup> suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days he called together <sup>2</sup> those that were <sup>c</sup> the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, <sup>a</sup> brethren, <sup>e</sup> though I had done nothing against the people, or <sup>f</sup> the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans: 18 who, when they had examined me, <sup>g</sup> desired to set me at liberty, because there was <sup>h</sup> no cause of death in me. 19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to <sup>i</sup> appeal unto Cæsar; not that I had aught whereof to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause therefore did I <sup>3</sup> entreat you to see and to speak with me: for <sup>4</sup> because of the hope of Israel I am bound with <sup>l</sup> this chain. 21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Judæa concerning thee, nor did any of <sup>a</sup> the brethren come hither and report or speak any harm of thee. 22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this <sup>m</sup> sect, it is known to us that everywhere <sup>n</sup> it is spoken against. 23 And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel. The Gentiles' Need of Righteousness

8 First, <sup>i</sup>I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, <sup>8</sup>that <sup>i</sup>your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. 9 For <sup>u</sup>God is my witness, whom I <sup>v</sup>serve in my spirit in the <sup>2</sup>gospel of his Son, how unceasingly <sup>x</sup>I make mention of you, always in my prayers 10 making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered <sup>y</sup>by <sup>y</sup>the will of God to come unto you. 11 For <sup>z</sup>I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; 12 that is, that I with you may be comforted <sup>10</sup>in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. 13 And <sup>a</sup>I would not have you ignorant, <sup>b</sup>brethren, that oftentimes I <sup>c</sup>purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some <sup>d</sup>fruit <sup>10</sup>in you also, even as <sup>10</sup>in the rest of the Gentiles. 14 <sup>e</sup>I am debtor both to

16 For I am not <sup>i</sup>ashamed of the <sup>2</sup>gospel: for <sup>k</sup>it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the <sup>1</sup>Jew first, and also to <sup>m</sup>the Greek. 17 For therein is revealed <sup>n</sup>a righteousness of God from faith unto faith: as it is written, <sup>12</sup>But <sup>o</sup>the righteous shall live <sup>13</sup>by faith.

18 For <sup>14</sup>p the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who <sup>15</sup>q hinder the truth in unrighteousness; 19 because <sup>r</sup>that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it unto them. 20 For the invisible things of him <sup>s</sup>since the creation of the world are clearly seen, <sup>t</sup>being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; <sup>16</sup>that they may be without excuse: 21 because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became <sup>u</sup>vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. 22 <sup>v</sup>Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and <sup>x</sup>changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the Superiority in Privilege does not diminish Guilt. Jew and Gentile alike under Sin, as the Scriptures testify

19 and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness, 20<sup>1</sup> a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law <sup>a</sup>the form of knowledge and of the truth; 21 thou therefore <sup>b</sup>teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? 22 thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou <sup>c</sup>rob temples? 23 thou who <sup>d</sup>gloriest in the law, through thy transgression of the law dishonorest thou God? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles <sup>e</sup>because of you, <sup>f</sup>even as it is written. 25 For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a <sup>g</sup>doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, <sup>h</sup>thy circumcision is become uncircumcision. 26 <sup>i</sup>If therefore <sup>j</sup>the uncircumcision <sup>k</sup>keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 and shall not <sup>l</sup>the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, <sup>m</sup>judge thee, who with the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the law? 28 For <sup>n</sup>he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh: 29 but <sup>o</sup>he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in <sup>p</sup>the spirit not in the letter; <sup>q</sup>whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much every way: first of all, that <sup>r</sup>they were intrusted with the <sup>s</sup>oracles of God. 3 For what if <sup>t</sup>some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithfulness of God? 4 <sup>u</sup>God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man <sup>v</sup>a liar; as it is written,

And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgment.

5 But if our unrighteousness <sup>x</sup>commendeth the righteousness of God, <sup>y</sup>what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (<sup>z</sup>I speak after the manner of men.) 6 <sup>aa</sup>God forbid: for then how shall

9 What then? <sup>ai</sup> are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both of <sup>aj</sup> Jews and <sup>ak</sup> Greeks, that they are <sup>al</sup> all under sin; 10 as it is written,

<sup>am</sup> There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none that understandeth,

There is none that seeketh after God;

12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;

There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:

the law and the prophets; 22 even the <sup>a</sup>righteousness of God through <sup>b</sup>faith <sup>c</sup>in Jesus Christ unto <sup>d</sup>all <sup>e</sup>them that believe; for <sup>e</sup>there is no distinction; 23 for all <sup>f</sup>have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely <sup>g</sup>by his grace through <sup>h</sup>the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 whom God set forth <sup>i</sup>to be <sup>j</sup>a propitiation, through faith, <sup>k</sup>in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the <sup>l</sup>passing over of the sins done aforesaid, in the <sup>m</sup>forbearance of God; 26 for the showing, <sup>n</sup>I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be <sup>o</sup>just, and the <sup>p</sup>justifier of him that <sup>q</sup>hath faith <sup>r</sup>in Jesus. 27 Where then is the <sup>s</sup>glorying? It is excluded. By <sup>t</sup>what manner of law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith. 28 <sup>u</sup>We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from <sup>v</sup>the works of the law. 29 Or <sup>w</sup>is God <sup>x</sup>the God of Jews only? is he not <sup>y</sup>the God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: 30 if so be that <sup>z</sup>God is one, and <sup>aa</sup>he shall justify the circumcision <sup>ab</sup>by faith, and the uncircumcision <sup>ac</sup>through faith.

31 Do we then make <sup>ad</sup>the law of none effect <sup>ae</sup>through faith? <sup>af</sup>God forbid: nay, we <sup>ag</sup>establish <sup>ah</sup>the law.

9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon <sup>17</sup>the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for <sup>18</sup>we say, To Abraham his faith was reckoned for righteousness. 10 How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision: 11 and he <sup>19</sup>received the sign of circumcision, <sup>20</sup>a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be <sup>21</sup>the father of <sup>22</sup>all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might be reckoned unto them; 12 and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For not <sup>23</sup>through the law was <sup>24</sup>the promise to Abraham or to his seed <sup>25</sup>that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For <sup>26</sup>if they that are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect: 15 for <sup>27</sup>the law worketh wrath; but <sup>28</sup>where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 For this cause <sup>29</sup>it is of faith, that <sup>30</sup>it may be according to <sup>31</sup>grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to <sup>32</sup>all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is <sup>33</sup>the father of us all 17 (as it is written, <sup>34</sup>17 A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, <sup>35</sup>even God, <sup>36</sup>who giveth life to the dead, and <sup>37</sup>call-eth the <sup>38</sup>things that are not, as though they were. 18 Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become <sup>39</sup>a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, <sup>40</sup>18 So shall thy seed be. 19 And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body <sup>1</sup>now <sup>a</sup>as good as dead (<sup>b</sup>he being about a hundred years old), and <sup>c</sup>the deadness of Sarah's <sup>2</sup>womb; 20 yet, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, <sup>a</sup>giving glory to God, 21 and <sup>a</sup>being fully assured that <sup>c</sup>what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also <sup>v</sup>it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. 23 Now <sup>b</sup>it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto him; 24 but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, <sup>v</sup>who believe on him that <sup>k</sup>raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was <sup>v</sup>delivered up for our trespasses, and was <sup>m</sup>raised for our justification.

5 <sup>3</sup>By faith, <sup>4</sup>we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; 2 through whom also we have. <sup>2</sup>had our access <sup>b</sup>by faith into this grace <sup>q</sup>wherein we stand; and <sup>b</sup>we <sup>7</sup>rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 <sup>r</sup>And not only so, but <sup>8</sup>we also <sup>7</sup>rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that tribulation worketh <sup>v</sup>steadfastness; 4 and <sup>v</sup>steadfastness, <sup>w</sup>approvedness; and approvedness, hope: 5 and hope <sup>v</sup>putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been <sup>9</sup>shed abroad in our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given unto us. 6 For while we were yet <sup>v</sup>weak, <sup>z</sup>in due season <sup>v</sup>Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for the good man some one would even dare to die. 8 But God <sup>a</sup>commendeth <sup>b</sup>his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, <sup>v</sup>Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, being now justified <sup>10</sup>by his blood, shall we be saved <sup>a</sup>from the wrath of God through him. 10 For if, while we were <sup>e</sup>enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved <sup>10</sup>by his life; 11 <sup>r</sup>and not only so,

12 Therefore, as through <sup>h</sup>one man sin entered into the world, and <sup>i</sup>death through sin; and <sup>k</sup>so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned:—13 for until the law sin was in the world; but <sup>l</sup>sin is not imputed when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over them that had not sinned <sup>m</sup>after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a <sup>n</sup>figure of him that was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also <sup>is</sup> the free gift. For if by the trespass of <sup>o</sup>the one <sup>p</sup>the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by <sup>q</sup>the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto <sup>r</sup>the many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, <sup>so</sup> is the gift: for <sup>r</sup>the judgment <sup>came</sup> of one unto condemnation, but the free gift <sup>came</sup> of many trespasses unto <sup>12</sup>justification. 17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned <sup>h</sup>through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and <sup>13</sup>of the gift of righteousness <sup>reign</sup> in life through the one, <sup>even</sup> Jesus Christ. 18 So then as through <sup>o</sup>one trespass <sup>the judgment came</sup> unto all men to condemnation; even so through one <sup>v</sup>act of righteousness <sup>the free gift came</sup> unto all men to <sup>v</sup>justification of life. 19 For as through the one man's disobedience <sup>p</sup>the many <sup>v</sup>were made sinners, even so through <sup>x</sup>the obedience of the one shall <sup>p</sup>the many be made righteous. 20 And <sup>14</sup>by the law, <sup>came</sup> in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, <sup>z</sup>grace did abound more exceedingly: 21 that, as <sup>a</sup>sin reigned in death, even so might <sup>b</sup>grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, <sup>ax</sup>brethren (for I speak to men who know <sup>ay</sup>the law), that the law hath dominion over a man for so long time as he liveth? <sup>2</sup> For <sup>az</sup>the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband. <sup>3</sup> So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. <sup>4</sup> Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were <sup>ba</sup>made dead <sup>bb</sup>to the law <sup>bc</sup>through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, <sup>bd</sup>even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit unto God. <sup>5</sup> For when we were <sup>be</sup>in the flesh, the <sup>bf</sup>sinful passions, which were <sup>bg</sup>through the law, wrought <sup>bh</sup>in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. <sup>6</sup> But now we have been <sup>bi</sup>discharged from the law, having <sup>bj</sup>died to that

7 <sup>c</sup>What shall we say then? Is the law sin? <sup>d</sup>God forbid. Howbeit, <sup>e</sup>I had not known sin, except through <sup>f</sup>the law: for I had not known <sup>g</sup>coveting, except the law had said, <sup>h</sup>Thou shalt not <sup>i</sup>covet: 8 but sin, <sup>j</sup>finding occasion, wrought in me <sup>k</sup>through the commandment all manner of <sup>l</sup>coveting: for <sup>m</sup>apart from <sup>n</sup>the law sin <sup>o</sup>is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from <sup>p</sup>the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which <sup>q</sup>was <sup>r</sup>unto life, this I found <sup>s</sup>to be unto death: 11 for sin, <sup>t</sup>finding occasion, <sup>u</sup>through the commandment <sup>v</sup>beguiled me, and through it slew me. 12 <sup>w</sup>So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. 13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? <sup>x</sup>God forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; — that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. 14 For we know that the law is <sup>y</sup>spiritual: but I am <sup>z</sup>carnal, <sup>aa</sup>sold <sup>ab</sup>under sin. 15 For that which I <sup>ac</sup>do <sup>ad</sup>I know not: for <sup>ae</sup>not what I would, that do I practise; but what I hate, that I do. 16 But if what I would not, that I do, I consent unto <sup>af</sup>the law that it is good. 17 So now <sup>ag</sup>it is no more I that <sup>ah</sup>do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my <sup>ai</sup>flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but to <sup>aj</sup>do that which is good <sup>ak</sup>is not. 19 For <sup>al</sup>the good which I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I practise. 20 But if what I would not, that I do, <sup>am</sup>it is no more I that <sup>an</sup>do it, but sin which dwelleth in me. 21 I find then <sup>ao</sup>the law, that, to me who would do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight <sup>ap</sup>in the law of God after <sup>aq</sup>the inward man: 23 but I see <sup>ar</sup>a different law in my members, warring against the <sup>as</sup>law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity, <sup>at</sup>under <sup>au</sup>the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of <sup>sa</sup>the body of this <sup>sb</sup>death? 25 <sup>sc</sup>I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but with the flesh <sup>sd</sup>the law of sin.

8 <sup>se</sup>There is therefore now no <sup>sf</sup>condemnation to them that are <sup>sg</sup>in <sup>sh</sup>Christ Jesus. 2 For <sup>si</sup>the law of the Spirit of life in <sup>sj</sup>Christ Jesus <sup>sk</sup>made me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For <sup>sl</sup>what the law could not do, <sup>sm</sup>in that it <sup>sn</sup>was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in <sup>so</sup>the likeness of <sup>sp</sup>sinful flesh <sup>sq</sup>and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 that the <sup>sr</sup>ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who <sup>ss</sup>walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. 5 For they that are after the flesh mind stthe things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit <sup>su</sup>the things of the Spirit. 6 <sup>sv</sup>For the mind of the flesh is <sup>sw</sup>death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace: 7 because the mind of the flesh is <sup>sx</sup>enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can it be: 8 and they that are <sup>sy</sup>in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not <sup>sz</sup>in the flesh but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God <sup>ta</sup>dwelleth in you. But <sup>tb</sup>if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. 10 And <sup>tc</sup>if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 But if the Spirit of him that <sup>td</sup>raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, <sup>te</sup>he that raised up <sup>tf</sup>Christ Jesus from the dead shall give life also to your mortal bodies <sup>tg</sup>through his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: 13 for thif ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye <sup>ti</sup>put to death the <sup>tj</sup>deeds of the body, ye shall live.

Sorrow for Israel. God makes a Choice among his Chosen Ones. The Law's Righteousness and that of Faith contrasted witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For <sup>a</sup>I could <sup>1</sup>wish that I myself were <sup>b</sup>anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my kinsmen <sup>c</sup>according to the flesh: 4 who are <sup>d</sup>Israelites; whose is <sup>e</sup>the adoption, and <sup>f</sup>the glory, and <sup>g</sup>the covenants, and <sup>h</sup>the giving of the law, and <sup>i</sup>the service of God, and <sup>k</sup>the promises; 5 whose are <sup>l</sup>the fathers, and <sup>m</sup>of whom is Christ as concerning the <sup>n</sup>flesh, <sup>o</sup>who is over all, <sup>p</sup>God <sup>q</sup>blessed <sup>r</sup>for ever. Amen.

6 But it is not as though <sup>a</sup>the word of God hath come to nought. <sup>r</sup>For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel: 7 neither, <sup>s</sup>because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children: but, <sup>t</sup>In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are <sup>u</sup>children of God; but the <sup>v</sup>children of the promise are reckoned for a seed. 9 For this is a word of promise, <sup>w</sup>According to this season will I come, and Sarah shall have a son. 10 <sup>x</sup>And not only so; but <sup>y</sup>Rebecca also having conceived by one, even by our father Isaac — 11 for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that <sup>z</sup>the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth, 12 it was said unto her, <sup>aa</sup>The elder shall serve the younger. 13 Even as it is written, <sup>ab</sup>Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.

14 <sup>ac</sup>What shall we say then? <sup>ad</sup>Is there unrighteousness with God? <sup>ae</sup>God forbid. 15 For he saith unto Moses, <sup>af</sup>I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. 16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that <sup>ag</sup>runneth, but of <sup>ah</sup>God that hath mercy. 17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, <sup>ai</sup>For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might show in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth. 18 So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he <sup>aj</sup>hardeneth.

righteousness, did not <sup>a</sup>arrive at that law. 32 Wherefore? <sup>1</sup>Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. <sup>c</sup>And he that believeth on <sup>3</sup>him shall not be put to shame.

10 Brethren, my heart's <sup>4</sup>desire and my supplication to God is for them, that they may be saved. <sup>2</sup>For I bear them witness that they have <sup>a</sup>a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. <sup>3</sup>For being ignorant of <sup>7</sup>God's righteousness, and <sup>g</sup>seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup>For <sup>h</sup>Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to <sup>4</sup>every one that believeth. <sup>5</sup>For Moses writeth that <sup>5</sup>the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law <sup>k</sup>shall live thereby. <sup>6</sup>But <sup>l</sup>the righteousness which is of faith saith thus, <sup>6</sup>Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down:) <sup>7</sup>or, Who shall descend into the <sup>m</sup>abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.) <sup>8</sup>But what saith it? <sup>7</sup>The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach: <sup>9</sup>because <sup>o</sup>if thou shalt <sup>9</sup>confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt <sup>p</sup>believe in thy heart that <sup>q</sup>God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved: <sup>10</sup>for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. <sup>11</sup>For the scripture saith, <sup>10</sup>Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame. <sup>12</sup>For <sup>r</sup>there is no distinction between Jew and Greek: for the same Lord is <sup>l</sup>Lord of <sup>u</sup>all, and is rich unto all that call upon him: <sup>13</sup>for, <sup>11</sup>Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. <sup>14</sup>How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him <sup>v</sup>whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without <sup>w</sup>a preacher?

<sup>16</sup>But they <sup>a</sup>did not all hearken to the <sup>14</sup>glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, <sup>15</sup>Lord, who hath believed our report? <sup>17</sup>So belief cometh of <sup>c</sup>hearing, and hearing by <sup>d</sup>the word of Christ. <sup>18</sup>But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily, <sup>16</sup>Their sound went out into all the earth,

And their words unto the ends of <sup>17</sup>the world.

<sup>19</sup>But I say, Did Israel not know? First Moses saith,

<sup>18</sup>I will <sup>f</sup>provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,

With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

<sup>20</sup>And Isaiah is very bold, and saith,

<sup>19</sup>I was found of them that sought me not;

I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

<sup>21</sup>But as to Israel he saith, <sup>20</sup>All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

11 I say then, Did God <sup>h</sup>cast off his people? <sup>i</sup>God forbid. For <sup>k</sup>I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God <sup>j</sup>did not cast off his people which he <sup>m</sup>foreknew. <sup>2</sup>Or know ye not what the scripture <sup>21</sup>saith <sup>22</sup>of Elijah? how he pleadeth with God against Israel: <sup>3</sup>Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. <sup>4</sup>But what <sup>23</sup>saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal. <sup>5</sup>Even so then at this present time also there is <sup>a</sup>a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup>But <sup>p</sup>if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. <sup>7</sup>What then? That which <sup>q</sup>Israel seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the election obtained it, and the rest were <sup>r</sup>hardened: <sup>8</sup>according as it is written, <sup>1a</sup> God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this very day. <sup>9</sup> And David saith,

Israel's Loss the Gentiles' Gain.

Their Partial Apostasy preludes Final Salvation

<sup>2</sup> Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,

And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,

And bow thou down their back always.

11 <sup>b</sup> I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? <sup>c</sup> God forbid: but by their <sup>3</sup> fall <sup>a</sup> salvation is come unto the Gentiles, to <sup>e</sup> provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their <sup>f</sup> fulness? 13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles.

Inasmuch then as <sup>g</sup> I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may <sup>e</sup> provoke to jealousy them that are <sup>h</sup> my flesh, and may <sup>i</sup> save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them is the <sup>k</sup> reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but <sup>l</sup> life from the dead? 16 And if the <sup>m</sup> firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 But if some of the <sup>n</sup> branches were broken off, and <sup>o</sup> thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them <sup>4</sup> of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; 18 glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, <sup>p</sup> it is not thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. 19 <sup>q</sup> Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou <sup>r</sup> standest by thy faith. <sup>s</sup> Be not high-minded, but fear: 21 for if God spared not the natural branches, neither will he spare thee. 22 Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's <sup>t</sup> goodness, *if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also <sup>u</sup> shalt be cut off. 23 And they also, <sup>v</sup> if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For <sup>a</sup> I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this <sup>b</sup> mystery, lest ye be <sup>c</sup> wise in your own conceits, that a <sup>d</sup> hardening in part hath befallen Israel, until the <sup>e</sup> fulness of the Gentiles be come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it is written,

He shall turn away <sup>g</sup> ungodliness from Jacob:

27 <sup>7a</sup> And this <sup>is</sup> my covenant unto them,

When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the <sup>9</sup> gospel, they are <sup>e</sup> enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for <sup>f</sup> the fathers' sake. 29 For the gifts and the <sup>g</sup> calling of God <sup>h</sup> are not repented of. 30 For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, 31 even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they also may now obtain mercy. 32 For <sup>i</sup> God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth <sup>10</sup> of <sup>k</sup> the riches <sup>11</sup> both of the <sup>l</sup> wisdom and the knowledge of God! <sup>m</sup> how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out! 34 For <sup>n</sup> who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? 35 or <sup>o</sup> who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? 36 For <sup>p</sup> of him, and through him, and unto him, are all things. <sup>q</sup> To him be the glory <sup>12</sup> for ever. Fulfillment of the Law. Salvation is at Hand. Forbearance towards Scruples. Self-denial on behalf of Others not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not covet, and if there be any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, <sup>a</sup>Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbor: <sup>b</sup>love therefore is the fulfilment of the law.

11 And this, knowing the season, that <sup>c</sup>already it is time for you to <sup>d</sup>awake out of sleep: for now is <sup>e</sup>salvation nearer to us than when we <sup>f</sup>first believed. 12 <sup>g</sup>The night is far spent, and <sup>h</sup>the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off <sup>i</sup>the works of darkness, and let us put on <sup>j</sup>the armor of light. 13 Let us <sup>k</sup>walk becomingly, as in the day; <sup>l</sup>not in revelling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But <sup>m</sup>put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, <sup>n</sup>to fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 But him that is <sup>o</sup>weak in faith <sup>p</sup>receive ye, yet not <sup>q</sup>for decision of scruples. 2 <sup>r</sup>One man hath faith to eat all things: but he that is <sup>s</sup>weak eateth herbs. 3 Let not him that eateth <sup>t</sup>set at nought him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not <sup>u</sup>judge him that eateth: for God hath <sup>v</sup>received him. 4 <sup>w</sup>Who art thou that judgest the <sup>x</sup>servant of another? to his own lord he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be made to stand; for the Lord hath power to make him stand. 5 <sup>y</sup>One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each man be <sup>z</sup>fully assured in his own mind. 6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord: and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he <sup>aa</sup>giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. 7 For none of us <sup>ab</sup>liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself. 8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; or whether we die, we die unto the Lord: <sup>ac</sup>whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end <sup>ad</sup>Christ died and lived again, that he might be <sup>ae</sup>Lord of both the dead and the living. 10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or thou again, why dost thou <sup>ag</sup>set at nought thy brother? for <sup>ah</sup>we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.

11 For it is written,
<sup>ai</sup>As I live, saith the Lord, to me <sup>aj</sup>every knee shall bow,
And every tongue shall <sup>ak</sup>confess to God.

12 So then <sup>al</sup>each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore <sup>am</sup>judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that <sup>an</sup>no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.

14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that <sup>ao</sup>nothing is unclean of itself: save that to him who <sup>ap</sup>accounteth anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou <sup>aq</sup>walkest no longer in love. <sup>ar</sup>Destroy not with thy meat him for whom Christ died.

16 <sup>as</sup>Let not then your good be evil spoken of: 17 for the kingdom of God <sup>at</sup>is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and <sup>au</sup>peace and <sup>av</sup>joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he that herein <sup>aw</sup>serveth Christ is <sup>ax</sup>well-pleasing to God, and approved of men. 19 So then <sup>ay</sup>let us <sup>az</sup>follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may <sup>ba</sup>edify one another. 20 <sup>bb</sup>Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God.

22 The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that <sup>bg</sup>judgeth not himself in that which he <sup>bh</sup>approveth. 23 But <sup>bi</sup>he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because <sup>bj</sup>he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Salutation. Thanksgiving. Exhortation to Unity

of Paul? <sup>14</sup> <sup>ae</sup>I thank God that I <sup>af</sup>baptized none of you, save <sup>ag</sup>Crispus and <sup>ah</sup>Gaius; <sup>15</sup> lest any man should say that ye were baptized into my name. <sup>16</sup> And I baptized also the <sup>ai</sup>household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. <sup>17</sup> <sup>aj</sup>For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to <sup>ak</sup>preach the gospel: <sup>al</sup>not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.

<sup>18</sup> For the word of the cross is to <sup>am</sup>them that <sup>an</sup>perish <sup>ao</sup>foolishness; but unto us who <sup>ap</sup>are saved it is <sup>aq</sup>the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is written,

<sup>10</sup> I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the discernment of the discerning will I bring to nought.

"Christ the Power of God and the Wisdom of God." God's Choice the World's Foolishness. True and False Wisdom;

stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles <sup>a</sup> foolishness; 24 but unto <sup>1</sup> them that are <sup>b</sup> called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ <sup>c</sup> the power of God, and <sup>d</sup> the wisdom of God. 25 Because the <sup>e</sup> foolishness of God is wiser than men; and <sup>f</sup> the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For <sup>2</sup> behold your <sup>3</sup> calling, brethren, that <sup>4</sup> not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 but <sup>5</sup> God chose the foolish things of <sup>6</sup> the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of <sup>7</sup> the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of <sup>8</sup> the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, <sup>9</sup> yea <sup>10</sup> and <sup>11</sup> the things that are not, that he might <sup>12</sup> bring to nought the things that are: 29 that <sup>13</sup> no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of him are ye in <sup>14</sup> Christ Jesus, who was made unto us <sup>15</sup> wisdom from God, <sup>16</sup> and <sup>17</sup> righteousness and <sup>18</sup> sanctification, and <sup>19</sup> redemption: 31 that, according as it is written, <sup>20</sup> He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came <sup>1</sup> not with excellency of <sup>2</sup> speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you <sup>3</sup> the <sup>4</sup> testimony of God. 2 For I determined not to know anything among you, save <sup>5</sup> Jesus Christ, and him crucified. 3 And I <sup>6</sup> was with you in <sup>7</sup> weakness, and in <sup>8</sup> fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my <sup>9</sup> speech and my <sup>10</sup> preaching were <sup>11</sup> not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of <sup>12</sup> the Spirit and of power: 5 that your faith should not <sup>13</sup> stand in the wisdom of men, but in <sup>14</sup> the power of God.

not have crucified <sup>1</sup> the Lord of glory: 9 but as it is written,

<sup>2</sup> Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, And <sup>3</sup> which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 <sup>12</sup> But unto us God revealed <sup>13</sup> them <sup>14</sup> through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the <sup>15</sup> deep things of God.

11 For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the <sup>1</sup> spirit of the man, which is in him? even so the things of God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. 12 But we <sup>2</sup> received, not the spirit of <sup>3</sup> the <sup>4</sup> world, but the spirit which is from God; that we might know <sup>5</sup> the things that were freely given to us of God. 13 Which things also we speak, <sup>6</sup> not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth; <sup>7</sup> combining spiritual things with spiritual words. 14 Now the <sup>8</sup> natural man <sup>9</sup> receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are <sup>10</sup> foolishness unto him; and he cannot know <sup>11</sup> them, because they are spiritually <sup>12</sup> judged. 15 But he that is <sup>13</sup> spiritual <sup>14</sup> judgeth all things, and he himself is <sup>15</sup> judged of no man. 16 For <sup>17</sup> who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But <sup>18</sup> we have the mind of Christ.

<sup>7</sup>For who maketh thee to differ? and <sup>w</sup>what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory as if thou hadst not received it? <sup>8</sup>Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have come to reign without us: yea and I would that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. <sup>9</sup>For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men <sup>x</sup>doomed to death: for we are <sup>y</sup>made a spectacle unto the world, <sup>12</sup>both to angels and men. <sup>10</sup>We are <sup>z</sup>fools for Christ's sake, but <sup>aa</sup>ye are wise in Christ; <sup>ab</sup>ye are weak, but ye are strong; ye have glory, but we have dishonor. <sup>11</sup>Even unto this present hour we both <sup>ac</sup>hunger, and thirst,

Their Temper and that of the Corinthians contrasted. Have no Fellowship with Men of Scandalous Lives and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; 12 and we toil, <sup>a</sup> working with our own hands: being <sup>b</sup> reviled, we bless; being <sup>c</sup> persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we treat: we are <sup>d</sup> made as the <sup>e</sup> filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

14 I write not these things to <sup>e</sup> shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved <sup>f</sup> children. 15 For though ye have ten thousand <sup>g</sup> tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers; for in <sup>h</sup> Christ Jesus I <sup>i</sup> begat you through the <sup>j</sup> <sup>k</sup> gospel. 16 I beseech you therefore, be ye <sup>l</sup> imitators of me. 17 For this cause <sup>m</sup> have I sent unto you <sup>n</sup> Timothy, who is my <sup>o</sup> beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, <sup>p</sup> even as I teach everywhere in every church. 18 Now some are <sup>q</sup> puffed up, as though I were not <sup>r</sup> coming to you. 19 But I <sup>s</sup> will come to you shortly, <sup>t</sup> if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them that are <sup>u</sup> puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is <sup>v</sup> not in word, but in power. 21 What will ye? <sup>w</sup> shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

5 It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath <sup>x</sup> his father's wife. 2 And <sup>y</sup> ye are <sup>z</sup> puffed up, and <sup>aa</sup> did not rather <sup>ab</sup> mourn, that he that had done this deed might be <sup>ac</sup> taken away from among you. 3 For I verily, being <sup>ad</sup> absent in body but present in spirit, have already as though I were present judged him that hath so wrought this thing, 4 <sup>ae</sup> in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, <sup>af</sup> with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 to <sup>ag</sup> deliver such a one unto <sup>ah</sup> Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in <sup>ai</sup> the day of the Lord <sup>aj</sup> Jesus. 6 <sup>ak</sup> Your glorying is not good. <sup>al</sup> Know ye not that <sup>am</sup> a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old leaven, that ye

It is altogether <sup>1</sup>a defect in you, that ye have lawsuits one with another. <sup>a</sup>Why not rather take wrong? why not rather be defrauded? <sup>8</sup>Nay, but ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your <sup>b</sup>brethren. <sup>9</sup>Or <sup>c</sup>know ye not that the unrighteous shall not <sup>d</sup>inherit the kingdom of God? <sup>e</sup>Be not deceived: <sup>f</sup>neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, <sup>10</sup>nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall <sup>g</sup>inherit the kingdom of God. <sup>11</sup>And <sup>h</sup>such were some of you: but ye <sup>i</sup>were <sup>j</sup>washed, but ye were <sup>k</sup>sanctified, but ye were <sup>l</sup>justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the power of any. <sup>13</sup>Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall <sup>m</sup>bring to nought both it and them. But the body is not for fornication, but <sup>n</sup>for the Lord; and <sup>o</sup>the Lord for the body: <sup>14</sup>and God both <sup>p</sup>raised the Lord, and <sup>q</sup>will raise up us through his power. <sup>15</sup>Know ye not that <sup>r</sup>your bodies are members of Christ? shall I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a harlot? <sup>s</sup>God forbid. <sup>16</sup>Or <sup>t</sup>know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, <sup>u</sup>The twain, saith he, shall become one flesh. <sup>17</sup>But he that is joined unto the Lord is <sup>v</sup>one spirit. <sup>18</sup>Flee fornication. unto the wife her due: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. <sup>4</sup>The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power over his own body, but the wife. <sup>5</sup>Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that <sup>6</sup>Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. <sup>6</sup>But this I say by way of concession, <sup>7</sup>not of commandment. <sup>7</sup>Yet I would that all men were <sup>8</sup>even as I myself. Howbeit <sup>9</sup>each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

<sup>8</sup>But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is <sup>a</sup>good for them if they abide <sup>b</sup>even as I. <sup>9</sup>But if they have not continency, <sup>c</sup>let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. <sup>10</sup>But unto the married I give charge, <sup>d</sup>yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife depart not from her husband <sup>11</sup>(but should she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife. <sup>12</sup>But to the rest say <sup>e</sup>I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell with him, let him not leave her. <sup>13</sup>And the woman that hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. <sup>14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now are they <sup>f</sup>holy. <sup>15</sup>Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such <sup>g</sup>cases: but God hath called <sup>h</sup>us <sup>i</sup>in peace. <sup>16</sup>For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt <sup>j</sup>save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife? <sup>17</sup>Only, <sup>k</sup>as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk.

Concerning Virgins. Concerning Things sacrificed to Idols

And <sup>a</sup>so ordain I in <sup>b</sup>all the churches. 18 Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become <sup>c</sup>uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision? <sup>d</sup>let him not be circumcised. 19 <sup>e</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but <sup>f</sup>the keeping of the commandments of God. 20 <sup>g</sup>Let each man abide in that calling wherein he was called. 21 Wast thou called being a bond-servant? care not for it: <sup>h</sup>1 nay, even if thou canst become free, use <sup>i</sup>it rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord being a bond-servant, is <sup>j</sup>the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called being free, is <sup>k</sup>Christ's bond-servant. 23 <sup>l</sup>Ye were bought with a price; become not bond-servants of men. 24 Brethren, <sup>m</sup>let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have <sup>n</sup>no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgment, as one that hath <sup>o</sup>obtained mercy of the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think therefore that this is good by reason of the <sup>p</sup>distress that is upon us, <sup>q</sup>namely, that <sup>r</sup>it is good for a man <sup>s</sup>to be as he is. 27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 28 But shouldest thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would spare you. 29 But this I say, brethren, <sup>t</sup>the time <sup>u</sup>is shortened, that henceforth both those that have wives may be as though they had none; 30 and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not; 31 and those that use the world, as not <sup>v</sup>using it to the full: for <sup>w</sup>the fashion of this world passeth away. 32 But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is <sup>x</sup>unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord: 33 but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his <sup>y</sup>wife, 34 and is divided. <sup>z</sup>So also the woman that is unmarried and the virgin is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a <sup>aa</sup>snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. 36 But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his <sup>ab</sup>virgin daughter, if she be <sup>ac</sup>past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he will; he sinneth not; let them marry. 37 But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own <sup>ad</sup>virgin daughter, shall do well. 38 So then both he that giveth his own <sup>ae</sup>virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do better. 39 <sup>af</sup>A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be <sup>ag</sup>dead, she is free to be married to whom she will; only <sup>ah</sup>in the Lord. 40 But she is happier if she abide as she is, <sup>ai</sup>after my judgment; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

S Now concerning <sup>aj</sup>things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have <sup>ak</sup>knowledge. Knowledge <sup>al</sup>puffeth up, but love <sup>am</sup>edifieth. 2 <sup>an</sup>If any man thinketh that he knoweth anything, he <sup>ao</sup>knoweth not yet as he ought to know; 3 but if any man loveth God, the same <sup>ap</sup>is known by him. 4 Concerning therefore the eating of <sup>aq</sup>things sacrificed to idols, we know that <sup>ar</sup>no idol is <sup>as</sup>anything in the world, and that <sup>at</sup>there is no God but one. 5 For though there be <sup>au</sup>that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; 6 yet to us <sup>av</sup>there is one God, <sup>aw</sup>the Father, <sup>ax</sup>of whom are all things, and we unto him; and <sup>ay</sup>one Lord, Jesus Christ, <sup>az</sup>through whom are all things, and we through him. 7 Howbeit there is not in all men <sup>a</sup>that knowledge: but <sup>b</sup>some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. 8 But <sup>c</sup>food will not <sup>1</sup>commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, <sup>2</sup>are we the worse; nor, if we eat, <sup>3</sup>are we the better. 9 But <sup>a</sup>take heed lest by any means this <sup>a</sup>liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to the <sup>c</sup>weak. 10 For if a man see thee who hast <sup>a</sup>knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, <sup>b</sup>be emboldened to eat <sup>1</sup>things sacrificed to idols? 11 For <sup>b</sup>through <sup>a</sup>thy knowledge he that is weak <sup>b</sup>perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died. 12 <sup>b</sup>And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin <sup>1</sup>against Christ. 13 Wherefore, <sup>k</sup>if meat causeth my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I cause not my brother to stumble.

9 Am I not <sup>1</sup>free? am I not an <sup>m</sup>apostle? have I not <sup>n</sup>seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye <sup>m</sup>my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for the <sup>p</sup>seal of mine <sup>q</sup>apostleship are ye in the Lord. 3 My defence to them that examine me is this. 4 <sup>r</sup>Have we no right to eat and to drink? 5 Have <sup>r</sup>we no right to lead about a wife that is a <sup>r</sup>believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the <sup>r</sup>brethren of the Lord, and <sup>r</sup>Cephas? 6 Or I only and <sup>r</sup>Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working? 7 What <sup>r</sup>soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who <sup>r</sup>planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things <sup>r</sup>after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same? 9 For it is written in the law of Moses, <sup>r</sup>"Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it for <sup>r</sup>the oxen that God careth, 10 or saith he it <sup>r</sup>assuredly for our sake? Yea, <sup>r</sup>for our sake it was written: because <sup>r</sup>he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking. 11 <sup>e</sup>If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we <sup>f</sup>did not use this right; but we bear all things, <sup>g</sup>that we may cause no hindrance to the <sup>h</sup>gospel of Christ. 13 <sup>i</sup>Know ye not that they that <sup>k</sup>minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they that wait upon the altar have their portion with the altar? 14 Even so did <sup>l</sup>the Lord ordain that they that proclaim the <sup>m</sup>gospel should <sup>n</sup>live of the <sup>o</sup>gospel. 15 But I have <sup>p</sup>used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case; for <sup>q</sup>it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make <sup>r</sup>my glorying void. 16 For if I <sup>s</sup>preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for <sup>t</sup>necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I <sup>u</sup>preach not <sup>v</sup>the gospel. 17 For if I do this of mine own will, I have a <sup>w</sup>reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a <sup>x</sup>stewardship intrusted to me. 18 What then is my <sup>y</sup>reward? That, when I <sup>z</sup>preach the gospel, I may make the <sup>a</sup>gospel <sup>r</sup>without charge, so as <sup>b</sup>not to use to the full my right in the <sup>c</sup>gospel. 19 For though I was <sup>d</sup>free from all men, I brought myself under <sup>e</sup>bondage to all, that I might <sup>f</sup>gain the more. 20 And <sup>g</sup>to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, <sup>h</sup>not being myself under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; 21 to them that are <sup>i</sup>without law, <sup>j</sup>as without law, not being without law to God, but <sup>k</sup>under law to Christ, that I might gain them that are without law. 22 To the <sup>l</sup>weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become <sup>a</sup>all things to all men, <sup>b</sup>that I may by all means <sup>c</sup>save some. 23 And I do all things for the <sup>1</sup>gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker thereof. 24 <sup>a</sup>Know ye not that they that run in a <sup>2</sup>race run all, but one receiveth <sup>c</sup>the prize? Even so <sup>r</sup>run; that ye may attain. 25 And every man that <sup>r</sup>striveth in the games exerciseth self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible <sup>h</sup>crown; but we an incorruptible. 26 I therefore so <sup>r</sup>run, as not uncertainly; so <sup>3</sup>fight I, as not <sup>i</sup>beating the air: 27 but I <sup>a</sup>buffet <sup>k</sup>my body, and bring it into bondage: lest by any means, after that I <sup>b</sup>have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 For <sup>i</sup>I would not, brethren, have you ignorant, that our fathers were all <sup>m</sup>under the cloud, and all <sup>n</sup>passed through the sea; <sup>2</sup> and were all <sup>o</sup>baptized <sup>6</sup>unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>3</sup> and did all <sup>p</sup>eat the same spiritual food; <sup>4</sup> and did all <sup>q</sup>drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them: and the rock was <sup>r</sup>Christ. <sup>5</sup> Howbeit with most of them God was not well pleased: for <sup>r</sup>they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>6</sup> Now <sup>s</sup>these things were our <sup>t</sup>examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as <sup>t</sup>they also lusted. <sup>7</sup> Neither be ye <sup>u</sup>idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, <sup>9</sup>The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to <sup>v</sup>play. <sup>8</sup> Neither let us commit fornication, as <sup>x</sup>some of them committed, and fell in one day <sup>y</sup>three and twenty thousand. <sup>9</sup> Neither let us make trial of the <sup>10</sup>Lord, as <sup>z</sup>some of them made trial, and perished by the serpents. <sup>10</sup> Neither murmur ye, <sup>a</sup>as some of them murmured, and <sup>b</sup>perished by the <sup>c</sup>destroyer. <sup>11</sup> Now these things happened unto them <sup>11</sup>by way of <sup>d</sup>example; and <sup>d</sup>they were written for our admonition, upon whom <sup>e</sup>the ends of the ages are come. <sup>12</sup> Wherefore let him that asking no question for conscience' sake. 28 But <sup>a</sup>if any man say unto you, This hath been offered in sacrifice, eat not, for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: 29 conscience, I say, not thine own, but the other's; for <sup>b</sup>why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 <sup>c</sup>If I partake with thankfulness, <sup>d</sup>why am I evil spoken of for that for which I <sup>e</sup>give thanks? 31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or <sup>f</sup>whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 <sup>g</sup>Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to <sup>h</sup>the church of God: 33 even as I also <sup>i</sup>please all men in all things, <sup>j</sup>not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of the many, <sup>k</sup>that they may be saved. 1 <sup>l</sup>Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now <sup>m</sup>I praise you that ye <sup>n</sup>remember me in all things, and <sup>o</sup>hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3 But I would have you know, that the <sup>p</sup>head of every man is Christ; and <sup>q</sup>the head of the woman is the man; and the <sup>r</sup>head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or <sup>s</sup>prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head. 5 But every <sup>t</sup>woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoreth her head; for it is one and the same thing as if she were <sup>u</sup>shaven. 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. 7 For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the <sup>v</sup>image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. 8 For <sup>w</sup>the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man: 9 for neither was the man created for the woman; but <sup>x</sup>the woman for the man: 10 for this cause ought the woman to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman, in the Lord. 12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman; but <sup>y</sup>all things are <sup>z</sup>of God. 13 <sup>aa</sup>Judge ye <sup>ab</sup>in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God unveiled?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. 16 But if any man seemeth to be contentious, <sup>a</sup>we have no such custom, neither <sup>b</sup>the churches of God. 17 But in giving you this charge, <sup>c</sup>I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse. 18 For first of all, when ye come together <sup>d</sup>in the church, I hear that <sup>e</sup>divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it. 19 For there <sup>f</sup>must be also <sup>g</sup>factions among you, <sup>h</sup>that they that are approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper: 21 for in your eating each one taketh before other his own supper; and one is hungry, and <sup>i</sup>another is drunken. 22 What, have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the <sup>j</sup>church of God, and <sup>k</sup>put them to shame that <sup>l</sup>have not? What shall I say to you? <sup>m</sup>shall <sup>n</sup>I praise you? In this I praise you not. 23 For <sup>o</sup>I received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that <sup>p</sup>the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was <sup>q</sup>betrayed took bread; 24 and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, This is my body, which <sup>r</sup>is for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 In like manner also <sup>s</sup>the cup, after supper, saying, This cup is the <sup>t</sup>new covenant in my blood: this do, as often as ye drink <sup>u</sup>it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death <sup>v</sup>till he come. 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be <sup>w</sup>guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

Concerning Spiritual Gifts. Gifts Diverse, but the Spirit the Same. The Body one, the Members many 28 But let a man <sup>a</sup>prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgment unto himself, if he <sup>1</sup>discern not the body. 30 For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few <sup>2</sup>sleep. 31 But if we <sup>2</sup>discerned ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But <sup>3</sup>when we are judged, we are <sup>c</sup>chastened of the Lord, that we may not be condemned with <sup>a</sup>the world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any man is <sup>e</sup>hungry, let him eat <sup>1</sup>at home; that your coming together be not unto judgment. And the rest will I <sup>1</sup>set in order <sup>h</sup>whenever I come.

12 Now concerning <sup>i</sup>spiritual gifts, brethren, <sup>k</sup>I would not have you ignorant. 2 <sup>1</sup>Ye know that when ye were Gentiles ye were <sup>m</sup>led away unto those <sup>n</sup>dumb idols, howsoever ye might be led. 3 Wherefore I make known unto you, that no man speaking <sup>o</sup>in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is <sup>p</sup>anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is <sup>q</sup>Lord, but <sup>o</sup>in the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are <sup>r</sup>diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministrations, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same <sup>s</sup>God, who worketh all things in all. 7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit <sup>t</sup>to profit withal. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit the word of <sup>u</sup>wisdom; and to another the word of <sup>v</sup>knowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another <sup>x</sup>faith, in the same Spirit; and to another <sup>y</sup>gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another workings of <sup>z</sup>miracles; and to another <sup>a</sup>prophecy; and to another <sup>b</sup>discernings of spirits: to another <sup>c</sup>divers kinds of tongues; and to another <sup>d</sup>interpretation of tongues: 11 but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, <sup>e</sup>dividing to each one severally even as he will.

members of the body, being many, are one body; <sup>g</sup>so also is Christ. 13 For <sup>h</sup>in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether <sup>i</sup>Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to <sup>k</sup>drink of one Spirit. 14 For <sup>l</sup>the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it is not therefore not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But now hath God <sup>m</sup>set the members each one of them in the body, <sup>n</sup>even as it pleased him. 19 And if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now <sup>o</sup>they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. 22 Nay, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be more feeble are necessary: 23 and those <sup>p</sup>parts of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we <sup>q</sup>bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely <sup>r</sup>parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 whereas our comely <sup>s</sup>parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more abundant honor to that <sup>t</sup>part which lacked; 25 that there should be no schism in the body; but <sup>u</sup>that the members should have the same care one for another. 26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or <sup>v</sup>one member is <sup>w</sup>honored, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now ye are <sup>x</sup>the body of Christ, and <sup>y</sup>severally members thereof. 28 And God hath <sup>z</sup>set some in <sup>a</sup>the church, first <sup>b</sup>apostles, secondly <sup>c</sup>prophets, thirdly <sup>d</sup>teachers, then <sup>e</sup>miracles, then <sup>f</sup>gifts of healings, helps, <sup>g</sup>governments, divers kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? 30 have all gifts of healings? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? 31 But desire earnestly the greater gifts. And moreover a most excellent way show I unto you.

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing. 4 Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. 8 Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away. 9 For we know in part, and we prophecy in part; 10 but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things. 12 For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I was fully known. 13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

14 Follow after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. 2 For he that speaketh in a tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God; for no man understandeth; but in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. 3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification, and exhortation, and consolation. 4 He that speaketh in a tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. 5 Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy; and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying. 6 But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? 7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain voice, who shall prepare himself for war? 9 So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and no kind is without signification. 11 If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian unto me. 12 So also ye, since ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the edifying of the church. 13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. 16 Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of the unlearned say the Amen at thy <sup>a</sup> giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest? 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not <sup>1 b</sup> edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all: 19 howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

26 <sup>n</sup> What is it then, <sup>o</sup> brethren? When ye come together, <sup>p</sup> each one hath a <sup>6</sup> psalm, hath a <sup>7</sup> teaching, hath a <sup>8</sup> revelation, hath a <sup>r</sup> tongue, hath an <sup>9</sup> interpretation. Let <sup>b</sup> all things be done unto edifying. 27 If any man speaketh in a <sup>r</sup> tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one <sup>i</sup> interpret: 28 but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And let the <sup>1</sup> prophets speak by two or three, and let the others <sup>6 u</sup> discern. 30 But if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence. 31 For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be <sup>7</sup> exhorted; 32 and the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets; 33 for God is not a God of <sup>v</sup> confusion, but of peace.

<sup>ap</sup> saints, 34 let the women <sup>2</sup> keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but <sup>a</sup> let them be in subjection, as also <sup>3</sup> saith <sup>b</sup> the law. 35 And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to speak in the church. 36 What? was it from you that the word of God went forth? or came it unto you alone?

37 <sup>c</sup> If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or <sup>d</sup> spiritual, let him take knowledge of the things which I write unto you, <sup>e</sup> that they are the commandment of the Lord. 38 <sup>f</sup> But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, <sup>g</sup> desire earnestly to <sup>h</sup> prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. 40 But <sup>i</sup> let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now <sup>1</sup> I make known unto you, brethren, the <sup>10 k</sup> gospel which I <sup>11</sup> preached unto you, which also ye received, <sup>l</sup> wherein also ye stand, 2 by which also ye are saved, <sup>m</sup> if ye hold fast <sup>12</sup> the word which I <sup>11</sup> preached unto you, <sup>n</sup> except ye believed <sup>13</sup> in vain. 3 For <sup>o</sup> I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received: that Christ died <sup>p</sup> for our sins <sup>q</sup> according to the scriptures; 4 and that he was buried; and that he hath been <sup>r</sup> raised on the third day <sup>4</sup> according to the scriptures; 5 and that <sup>t</sup> he appeared to <sup>u</sup> Cephas; then <sup>v</sup> to the twelve; 6 then he appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some <sup>x</sup> are fallen asleep; 7 then he appeared to <sup>14 y</sup> James; then to <sup>z</sup> all the apostles; 8 and last of all, as to the <sup>child</sup> untimely born, <sup>a</sup> he appeared to me also. 9 For I am <sup>b</sup> the least of the apostles, that am not met to meet to be called an apostle,

Christ's Resurrection the Pledge of ours. Baptisms for the Dead. The Resurrection vindicated

because I <sup>a</sup>persecuted the church of God. 10 But by <sup>b</sup>the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not found <sup>1</sup>vain; but I <sup>c</sup>labored more abundantly than they all: yet <sup>a</sup>not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there <sup>c</sup>is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been raised: 14 and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching <sup>1</sup>vain, <sup>2</sup>your faith also is <sup>1</sup>vain. 15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he <sup>g</sup>raised up <sup>3</sup>Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised: 17 and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; <sup>a</sup>ye are yet in your sins. 18 Then they also that <sup>i</sup>are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 <sup>f</sup>If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are <sup>k</sup>of all men most pitiable.

20 But now <sup>i</sup>hath Christ been raised from the dead, the <sup>m</sup>firstfruits of them that <sup>i</sup>are asleep. 21 For since <sup>n</sup>by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For <sup>o</sup>as in Adam all die, so also in <sup>3</sup>Christ shall all be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ <sup>m</sup>the firstfruits; then <sup>p</sup>they that are Christ's, at <sup>q</sup>his <sup>b</sup>coming. 24 Then cometh the end, when he shall deliver up <sup>r</sup>the kingdom to <sup>s</sup>God, even the Father; when he shall have abolished <sup>t</sup>all rule and all authority and power. 25 For he must reign, <sup>u</sup>till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. 26 The last enemy that shall be <sup>v</sup>abolished is death. 27 For, He put all things in subjection under his feet. <sup>7</sup>But when he saith, <sup>8x</sup>All things are put in subjection, it is evident that he is excepted who did subject all things unto him. 28 And when <sup>v</sup>all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that <sup>2</sup>God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them? 30 why do we also stand <sup>a</sup>in jeopardy every hour? 31 I protest by <sup>q</sup>that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, <sup>b</sup>I die daily. 32 If after the manner of men I <sup>c</sup>fought with beasts at <sup>d</sup>Ephesus, <sup>10</sup>what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, <sup>e</sup>let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die. 33 <sup>f</sup>Be not deceived: Evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 <sup>g</sup>Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have <sup>h</sup>no knowledge of God: <sup>i</sup>I speak this to move you to shame.

35 But <sup>k</sup>some one will say, How are <sup>l</sup>the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come? 36 <sup>m</sup>Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself <sup>n</sup>sowest is not quickened except it die: 37 and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and <sup>o</sup>to each seed a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of birds, and another flesh of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory. 42 <sup>p</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in <sup>q</sup>corruption; it is raised in <sup>r</sup>incorruption: 43 it is sown in dishonor; it is raised in <sup>s</sup>glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 it is sown a <sup>1a</sup> natural body; it is raised a <sup>b</sup> spiritual body. If there is a <sup>1</sup> natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it is written, <sup>2</sup> The first man Adam became a living soul. The <sup>c</sup> last Adam became a <sup>d</sup> life-giving spirit. 46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that which is <sup>e</sup> natural; then that which is spiritual. 47 The first man is <sup>f</sup> of the earth, <sup>g</sup> earthy: the second man is of heaven. 48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, <sup>h</sup> such are they also that are heavenly. 49 And as we have <sup>i</sup> borne the image of the earthy, <sup>j</sup> we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that <sup>k</sup> flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit <sup>l</sup> incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a <sup>m</sup> mystery: <sup>n</sup> We all shall not sleep, but we shall all be <sup>o</sup> changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for <sup>p</sup> the trumpet shall sound, and <sup>q</sup> the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and <sup>r</sup> we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on <sup>s</sup> incorruption, and this <sup>t</sup> mortal must put on immortality. 54 But when <sup>u</sup> this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, <sup>v</sup> Death is swallowed up <sup>w</sup> in victory. 55 <sup>x</sup> O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting? 56 The sting of <sup>y</sup> death is sin; and <sup>z</sup> the power of sin is the law: 57 but <sup>aa</sup> thanks be to God, who giveth us the <sup>ab</sup> victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 <sup>ac</sup> Wherefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in <sup>ad</sup> the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not <sup>ae</sup> vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning <sup>a</sup> the collection for <sup>b</sup> the saints, as <sup>c</sup> I gave order to the churches of <sup>d</sup> Galatia, so also do ye. 2 Upon <sup>e</sup> the first day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he may prosper, that <sup>f</sup> no collec-

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of <sup>x</sup>our conscience, that in holiness and <sup>y</sup>sincerity of God, <sup>z</sup>not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. 13 For we write no other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge <sup>a</sup>unto the end: 14 as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in <sup>b</sup>the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to <sup>b</sup>come first unto you, that ye might have a second <sup>c</sup>benefit; 16 and by you to <sup>d</sup>pass into <sup>e</sup>Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come unto you, and of you to be <sup>f</sup>set forward on my journey <sup>g</sup>unto Judæa. 17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I show fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose <sup>h</sup>according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and the nay nay? 18 But as <sup>i</sup>God is faithful, <sup>k</sup>our word toward you is not yea and nay. 19 For <sup>l</sup>the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you <sup>m</sup>by us, even <sup>n</sup>by me and <sup>o</sup>Silvanus and <sup>p</sup>Timothy, was not yea and nay, but <sup>q</sup>in him is yea. 20 For <sup>r</sup>how many soever be the promises of God, <sup>s</sup>in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is <sup>t</sup>the Amen, unto the glory of God through us. 21 Now he that <sup>u</sup>establisheth us with you

<sup>2</sup> For if I <sup>k</sup> make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad but he that is made sorry by me? <sup>3</sup> And I <sup>1</sup> wrote this very thing, lest,

<sup>1</sup> when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having <sup>m</sup> confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

<sup>4</sup> For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I <sup>1</sup> wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

<sup>5</sup> But <sup>n</sup> if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too heavily) to you all. <sup>6</sup> Sufficient to such a one is <sup>o</sup> this punishment which was inflicted by <sup>5</sup> the many; <sup>7</sup> so that contrariwise ye should <sup>6</sup> rather <sup>p</sup> forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. <sup>8</sup> Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him. <sup>9</sup> For to this end also <sup>q</sup> did I write, that I might know <sup>r</sup> the proof of you, <sup>7</sup> whether ye are <sup>o</sup> obedient in all things. <sup>10</sup> But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it <sup>s</sup> in the <sup>8</sup> presence of Christ; <sup>11</sup> that no advantage may be gained over us by <sup>u</sup> Satan: for <sup>v</sup> we are not ignorant of his devices.

not <sup>b</sup> Titus my brother: but <sup>c</sup> taking my leave of them, I went forth into <sup>14</sup> Macedonia.

And who is <sup>1</sup> sufficient for these things? <sup>17</sup> For we are not as the many, <sup>12</sup> <sup>m</sup> corrupting the word of God: but <sup>n</sup> as of sincerity, but as of God, <sup>o</sup> in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Are we beginning again to <sup>p</sup> commend ourselves? or need we, as do some, <sup>q</sup> epistles of commendation to you or from you? <sup>2</sup> <sup>r</sup> Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men; <sup>3</sup> being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, <sup>s</sup> ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of <sup>t</sup> the living God; not in <sup>u</sup> tables of stone, but in <sup>v</sup> tables that are <sup>x</sup> hearts of flesh. <sup>4</sup> And such <sup>y</sup> confidence have we through Christ to God-ward: <sup>5</sup> not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but <sup>z</sup> our sufficiency is from God; <sup>6</sup> who also made us sufficient as <sup>aa</sup> ministers of a <sup>b</sup> new covenant; not of <sup>c</sup> the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but <sup>d</sup> the spirit giveth life. <sup>7</sup> But if the <sup>e</sup> ministrations of death, <sup>13</sup> <sup>u</sup> written, and engraved on stones, came <sup>14</sup> with glory, <sup>f</sup> so that the children of Israel could not look stedfastly upon the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which <sup>glory</sup> <sup>15</sup> was passing away: <sup>8</sup> how shall not rather the ministrations of the spirit be with glory?

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty." "Seeing we have this Ministry, we faint not"

9<sup>1</sup> For if <sup>a</sup>the ministration of condemnation hath glory, much rather doth the <sup>b</sup>ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasseth. 11 For if that which <sup>2</sup>passeth away was <sup>3</sup>with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 <sup>c</sup>Having therefore such a hope, <sup>a</sup>we use great boldness of speech, 13 and are not as Moses, <sup>e</sup>who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Israel should not look stedfastly <sup>4</sup>on the end of that which <sup>5</sup>was passing away: 14 but their <sup>6</sup>minds were <sup>f</sup>hardened: for until this very day at the <sup>g</sup>reading of <sup>h</sup>the old covenant the same veil <sup>7</sup>remaineth, it not being revealed to them that it is done away in Christ. 15 But unto this day, whensoever Moses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart. 16 <sup>i</sup>But whensoever <sup>8</sup>it shall turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where <sup>k</sup>the Spirit of the Lord is, <sup>9</sup>there is liberty. 18 But we all, with unveiled face <sup>m</sup>beholding as in a mirror the <sup>n</sup>glory of the Lord, are <sup>o</sup>transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from <sup>p</sup>the Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this <sup>q</sup>ministry, even as we <sup>r</sup>obtained mercy, we <sup>s</sup>faint not: 2 but we have renounced the hidden <sup>t</sup>things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor <sup>u</sup>handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth <sup>v</sup>commanding ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. 3 And even if our <sup>x</sup>gospel is <sup>y</sup>veiled, it is veiled in <sup>z</sup>them that <sup>11</sup>perish: 4 in whom <sup>a</sup>the god of <sup>b</sup>this <sup>12</sup>world hath <sup>c</sup>blinded the <sup>6</sup>minds of the unbelieving, <sup>13</sup>that the <sup>14</sup>light of the <sup>10</sup>gospel of the <sup>e</sup>glory of Christ, who is the <sup>f</sup>image of God, should not dawn upon them. 5 For we preach <sup>7</sup>not ourselves, but Christ

Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your <sup>15</sup>servants <sup>16</sup>for Jesus' sake. 6 Seeing it is God, that said, <sup>17</sup>Light shall shine out of darkness, who <sup>18</sup>shined in our hearts, to give the <sup>14</sup>light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in <sup>19</sup>earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of <sup>20</sup>the power may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 we are <sup>21</sup>pressed on every side, yet not <sup>22</sup>straitened; <sup>23</sup>perplexed, yet not unto despair; 9 <sup>24</sup>pursued, yet not <sup>25</sup>forsaken; <sup>26</sup>smitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 <sup>27</sup>always bearing about in the body the <sup>28</sup>dying of Jesus, that <sup>29</sup>the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you. 13 But having the same <sup>30</sup>spirit of faith, according to that which is written, <sup>31</sup>I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that he that <sup>32</sup>raised up <sup>33</sup>the Lord Jesus <sup>34</sup>shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall <sup>35</sup>present us with you. 15 For all things are <sup>36</sup>for your sakes, that the grace, being <sup>37</sup>multiplied through <sup>38</sup>the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.

16 Wherefore we <sup>39</sup>faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our <sup>40</sup>inward man is <sup>41</sup>renewed day by day. 17 For our <sup>42</sup>light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we <sup>43</sup>look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:

"Absent from the Body, at Home with the Lord." "In Everything commending ourselves as Ministers of God" for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if the <sup>a</sup>earthly house of our <sup>b</sup>tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house <sup>c</sup>not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. 2 For verily in this we <sup>d</sup>groan, longing to be <sup>e</sup>clothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven: 3 if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For indeed we that are in this <sup>f</sup>tabernacle do <sup>g</sup>groan, <sup>h</sup>being burdened; not for that we would be <sup>i</sup>unclothed, but that we would be <sup>j</sup>clothed upon, that what is <sup>k</sup>mortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who <sup>l</sup>gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, <sup>m</sup>whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord 7 (for <sup>n</sup>we walk by faith, not by <sup>o</sup>sight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and are <sup>p</sup>willing rather to be absent from the body, and <sup>q</sup>to be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore also we <sup>r</sup>make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be <sup>s</sup>well-pleasing unto him. 10 For we must all be made manifest before <sup>t</sup>the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things <sup>u</sup>done <sup>v</sup>in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the <sup>w</sup>fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are <sup>x</sup>made manifest also in your consciences. 12 We are not <sup>y</sup>again commending ourselves unto you, but <sup>z</sup>speaking as giving you <sup>aa</sup>occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we <sup>ab</sup>are <sup>ac</sup>beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is unto you. 14 For the love of Christ <sup>ad</sup>constraineth us; because we thus judge, that <sup>ae</sup>one died for all, therefore all died; 15 and he died for all, that they that live should no longer <sup>af</sup>live unto them-righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; 9 as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; 10 as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Corinthians, our heart is enlarged. 12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? or what communion hath light with darkness? 15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what portion hath a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement hath a temple of God with idols? for we are a temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 17 Wherefore

18 Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord,

And touch no unclean thing;

And I will receive you,

19 And will be to you a Father, and ye shall be to me sons and daughters.

7 saith the Lord Almighty. 1 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthment of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man. 3 I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.

5 For even when we were come into Macedonia our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. 6 Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; 7 and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced yet more.

8 For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it: though I did regret it (for I see that that epistle made you sorry, though but for a season), 9 I now rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in nothing. 10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret: but the sorrow of the world worketh death. 11 For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea what clearing of yourselves, yea what indignation, yea what fear, yea what longing, yea what zeal, yea what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God. 13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you all.

14 For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembereth the <sup>a</sup>obedience of you all, how with <sup>b</sup>fear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice that in everything <sup>c</sup>I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been <sup>d</sup>given in the churches of <sup>e</sup>Macedonia; 2 how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto <sup>f</sup>the riches of their <sup>g</sup>liberality. 3 For <sup>h</sup>according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, 4 beseeching us with much entreaty in regard of <sup>i</sup>this grace and the fellowship in the <sup>j</sup>ministering to the saints: 5 and this, not as we had hoped, but first they <sup>k</sup>gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through <sup>l</sup>the will of God. 6 Inasmuch that we <sup>m</sup>exhorted Titus, that as he had <sup>n</sup>made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you <sup>o</sup>this grace also. 7 But as ye <sup>p</sup>abound <sup>q</sup>in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in <sup>r</sup>your love to us, see that ye <sup>s</sup>abound in this grace also. 8 I speak <sup>t</sup>not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. 9 For ye know <sup>u</sup>the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, <sup>v</sup>though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might become rich. 10 And herein I <sup>w</sup>give my judgment: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning <sup>x</sup>a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 But now complete the doing also; that as there was the <sup>y</sup>readiness to will, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. 12 For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable <sup>z</sup>according as a man hath, not according as he hath not. 13 For I say not this that others may be eased and ye distressed; 14 but by equality: your abundance being a supply at this present time for <sup>aa</sup>their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for <sup>ab</sup>your want; that there may be equality: 15 as it

16 But <sup>a</sup>thanks be to God, who <sup>b</sup>putteth the same earnest care for you into the heart of <sup>c</sup>Titus. 17 For he accepted indeed our <sup>d</sup>exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own accord. 18 And we have sent together with him <sup>e</sup>the brother whose praise in the <sup>f</sup>gospel is spread through <sup>g</sup>all the churches; 19 <sup>h</sup>and not only so, but who was also <sup>i</sup>appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of <sup>j</sup>this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and to show our <sup>k</sup>readiness: 20 avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us: 21 for we <sup>l</sup>take thought for things honorable, not only in <sup>m</sup>the sight of the Lord, but also in <sup>n</sup>the sight of men. 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he hath in you. 23 Whether any inquire about <sup>o</sup>Titus, he is my <sup>p</sup>partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our <sup>q</sup>brethren, they are the <sup>r</sup>messengers of the churches, they are <sup>s</sup>the glory of Christ. 24 <sup>t</sup>Show ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our <sup>u</sup>glorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the <sup>a</sup>ministering to the saints, <sup>b</sup>it is superfluous for me to write to you: 2 for I know your readiness, of which I <sup>c</sup>glory on your behalf to them of <sup>d</sup>Macedonia, that <sup>e</sup>Achaia hath been prepared for <sup>f</sup>a year past; and <sup>g</sup>your zeal hath stirred up <sup>h</sup>very many of them. 3 But I have sent the brethren, that our <sup>i</sup>glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, <sup>j</sup>even as I said, ye may be prepared: 4 lest by any means, if there come with me any of <sup>k</sup>Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary therefore to

6 But this I say, <sup>e</sup>He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth <sup>3</sup>bountifully shall reap also <sup>3</sup>bountifully. 7 Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart: <sup>f</sup>not <sup>4</sup>grudgingly, or of necessity: for <sup>g</sup>God loveth a cheerful giver. 8 And <sup>h</sup>God is able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good work: 9 as it is written, bold against <sup>a</sup>some, who count of us as if we walked <sup>b</sup>according to the flesh. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war <sup>b</sup>according to the flesh 4 (for the <sup>c</sup>weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty <sup>d</sup>before God <sup>e</sup>to the casting down of strongholds); 5 casting down <sup>8</sup>imaginations, and every <sup>7</sup>high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the <sup>9</sup>obedience of Christ; 6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when <sup>h</sup>your obedience shall be made full.

7 <sup>9 i</sup>Ye look at the things that are before your face. <sup>k</sup>If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, <sup>l</sup>so also are we. 8 For though <sup>m</sup>I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our <sup>n</sup>authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame: 9 that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my letters. 10 For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is <sup>o</sup>weak, and <sup>p</sup>his speech of no account. 11 Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. 12 For we are not bold <sup>10</sup>to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that <sup>q</sup>commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. 13 But we will not glory <sup>r</sup>beyond our measure, but <sup>s</sup>according to the measure of the <sup>11</sup>province which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for <sup>t</sup>we <sup>12</sup>came even as far as unto you in the <sup>7 u</sup>gospel of Christ: 15 not glorying <sup>r</sup>beyond our measure, that is,

11 Would that ye could <sup>i</sup> bear with me in a little <sup>k</sup> foolishness: <sup>4</sup> but indeed ye do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with <sup>5</sup> a godly jealousy: for I <sup>e</sup> espoused you to one husband, that I might <sup>m</sup> present you as a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the <sup>n</sup> serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your <sup>6</sup> minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ. 4 For if he that cometh preacheth <sup>o</sup> another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a <sup>p</sup> different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a <sup>q</sup> different <sup>r</sup> gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do <sup>r</sup> well to <sup>i</sup> bear with him. 5 For I reckon that I am <sup>i</sup> not a whit behind <sup>s</sup> the very chiefest apostles. 6 But though I <sup>be</sup> <sup>rude</sup> in speech, yet <sup>am</sup> I not in <sup>v</sup> knowledge; <sup>7</sup> nay, in every way have we <sup>x</sup> made <sup>this</sup> manifest unto you in all things. 7 Or <sup>y</sup> did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I <sup>10</sup> preached to you the <sup>2</sup> gospel of God <sup>z</sup> for nought? 8 I robbed other churches, <sup>a</sup> taking wages of them that I might minister unto you; 9 and when I was present with you and was in want, I was <sup>b</sup> not a burden on any man; for <sup>c</sup> the brethren, when they came from <sup>d</sup> Macedonia, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from <sup>b</sup> being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep <sup>myself</sup>. 10 <sup>e</sup> As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of <sup>f</sup> this glorying in the regions of <sup>g</sup> Achaia. 11 Wherefore? <sup>h</sup> because I love you not? 'God knoweth. 12 But what I do, that I will do, <sup>k</sup> that I may cut off <sup>11</sup> occasion from them that desire an occasion; that wherein they glory; they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are <sup>l</sup> false apostles, <sup>m</sup> deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ, 14 And no marvel; for even <sup>n</sup> Satan fashioneth himself into an <sup>o</sup> angel of light. 15 It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; <sup>p</sup> whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say <sup>q</sup> again, Let no man think me foolish; but if <sup>ye</sup> do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory a little. 17 That which I speak, I speak <sup>r</sup> not after the Lord, but as <sup>s</sup> in foolishness, in this confidence of glorying. 18 Seeing that <sup>t</sup> many glory <sup>u</sup> after the flesh, I will glory also. 19 For ye bear with the foolish gladly, <sup>v</sup> being wise <sup>yourselves</sup>. 20 For ye bear with a man, if he <sup>x</sup> bringeth you into bondage, if he <sup>y</sup> devoureth you, if he <sup>z</sup> taketh you captive, if he <sup>a</sup> exalteth himself, if he <sup>b</sup> smiteth you on the face. 21 I speak by way of <sup>c</sup> disparagement, as though we had been <sup>d</sup> weak. Paul's Visions and Revelations. His Apostolic Credentials my <sup>1a</sup> countrymen, in perils from the <sup>b</sup> Gentiles, in perils in the <sup>c</sup> city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among <sup>d</sup> false brethren; 27 in <sup>e</sup> labor and travail, in watchings often, in <sup>f</sup> hunger and thirst, in <sup>g</sup> fastings often, in cold and <sup>h</sup> nakedness. 28 <sup>2</sup> Besides those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon me daily, anxiety for <sup>i</sup> all the churches. 29 Who is <sup>k</sup> weak, and I am not weak? who is caused to stumble, and I burn not? 30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things that concern my <sup>l</sup> weakness. 31 <sup>3</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, <sup>m</sup> he who is blessed <sup>4</sup> for evermore <sup>n</sup> knoweth that I lie not. 32 In <sup>o</sup> Damascus the <sup>p</sup> governor under Aretas the king <sup>q</sup> guarded the city of the Damascenes in order to take me; 33 and <sup>r</sup> through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 <sup>6</sup> I must needs <sup>s</sup> glory, but I will come to visions and <sup>t</sup> revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man <sup>u</sup> in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; <sup>v</sup> God knoweth), such a one <sup>z</sup> caught up even to the <sup>y</sup> third heaven. 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not; <sup>v</sup> God knoweth), 4 how that he was <sup>z</sup> caught up into <sup>2</sup> Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. 5 <sup>a</sup> On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my <sup>b</sup> weaknesses. 6 For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be <sup>c</sup> foolish; <sup>d</sup> for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me <sup>e</sup> to be, or heareth from me. 7 And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the <sup>f</sup> revelations, that I shall not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a <sup>g</sup> thorn in the flesh, a <sup>h</sup> messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord <sup>h</sup> thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my <sup>i</sup> power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather <sup>b</sup> glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may <sup>9</sup> rest upon me. 10 Wherefore <sup>k</sup> I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in <sup>m</sup> necessities, in <sup>n</sup> persecutions, in <sup>o</sup> distresses, <sup>p</sup> for Christ's sake: for <sup>o</sup> when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become <sup>c</sup> foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for <sup>2</sup> in nothing was I behind <sup>10</sup> the very chiefest apostles, though <sup>9</sup> I am nothing. 12 Truly the <sup>r</sup> signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all <sup>11</sup> patience, by signs and wonders and <sup>12</sup> mighty works. 13 For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that <sup>i</sup> I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me <sup>t</sup> this wrong.

14 Behold, <sup>u</sup> this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I <sup>s</sup> will not be a burden to you: for I <sup>v</sup> seek not yours, but <sup>z</sup> you: for the <sup>y</sup> children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the <sup>z</sup> parents for the children. 15 And I will <sup>a</sup> most gladly spend and be <sup>13</sup> spent for your souls. If <sup>b</sup> I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? 16 But be it so, I <sup>c</sup> did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I <sup>a</sup> caught you with guile. 17 <sup>e</sup> Did I take advantage of you by any one of them whom I have sent unto you? 18 I <sup>f</sup> exhorted <sup>9</sup> Titus, and I sent <sup>h</sup> the brother with him. 19 <sup>1</sup>Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. <sup>a</sup>In the sight of God speak we in Christ. God toward you. 5 <sup>a</sup>Try your own selves, whether ye are in the faith; <sup>b</sup>prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye be <sup>c</sup>reprobate. 6 But I hope that ye shall know that we are not reprobate. 7 Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honorable, <sup>d</sup>though we be as reprobate. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice, when we are <sup>e</sup>weak, and ye are strong: this we also pray for, even your <sup>f</sup>perfecting. 10 For this cause I write these things while absent, <sup>g</sup>that I may not when present deal <sup>h</sup>sharply, according to the <sup>i</sup>authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for casting down.

11 <sup>j</sup>Finally, brethren, <sup>k</sup>farewell. <sup>l</sup>Be perfected; be comforted; <sup>m</sup>be of the same mind; <sup>n</sup>live in peace: and <sup>o</sup>the God of love and peace shall be with you. 12 <sup>p</sup>Salute one another with a holy kiss.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS

Salutation. The Galatians' Apostasy surprising. The Gospel I preach came from God; was not learned at Jerusalem;

6 I marvel that ye are <sup>m</sup>so quickly removing from <sup>n</sup>him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a <sup>o</sup>different <sup>6</sup>gospel; 7 <sup>v</sup>which is not another <sup>6</sup>gospel: only there are some that <sup>p</sup>trouble you, and would pervert the <sup>6</sup>gospel of Christ. 8 But though we, or <sup>2</sup>an angel from heaven, should <sup>8</sup>preach <sup>9</sup>unto you any gospel <sup>10</sup>other than that which we <sup>8</sup>preached unto you, let him be <sup>r</sup>anathema. 9 As we <sup>4</sup>have said before, so say I now again, <sup>i</sup>If any man <sup>8</sup>preacheth unto you any gospel <sup>10</sup>other than that which ye received, let him be <sup>r</sup>anathema. 10 For am I now <sup>g</sup>seeking the favor of men, or of God? or am I striving to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a <sup>11</sup>servant of Christ.

11 For <sup>x</sup>I make known to you, brethren, as touching the <sup>6</sup>gospel which was <sup>8</sup>preached by me, that it is <sup>v</sup>not after man. 12 For <sup>z</sup>neither did I receive it from <sup>1</sup>man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through <sup>a</sup>revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye have heard of <sup>b</sup>my manner of life in time past in <sup>c</sup>the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I <sup>a</sup>persecuted <sup>c</sup>the church of God, and <sup>v</sup>made havoc of it: 14 and I <sup>v</sup>advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age <sup>12</sup>among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the <sup>n</sup>traditions of my fathers. 15 But when it was <sup>i</sup>the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and <sup>k</sup>called me through his grace, 16 to reveal his Son in me, that I might <sup>8i</sup>preach him among the Gentiles; <sup>m</sup>straightway I conferred not with <sup>n</sup>flesh and blood: 17 <sup>o</sup>neither went I up to Jerusalem to them that were apostles before me: but I went away into Arabia; and again I returned unto <sup>v</sup>Damascus.

18 Then <sup>9</sup>after three years I went up <sup>t</sup>to Jerusalem to <sup>13</sup>visit <sup>c</sup>Cephas, and tarried with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles saw I none, <sup>14</sup>save <sup>15c</sup>James the Lord's brother. 20 Now touching the things which I write unto you, behold, <sup>u</sup>before God, I lie not. 21 Then <sup>v</sup>I came into the regions of <sup>x</sup>Syria and <sup>y</sup>Cilicia. 22 And I was still unknown by face unto <sup>z</sup>the churches of Judaea which were <sup>a</sup>in Christ: 23 but they only heard say, He that once persecuted us now <sup>8</sup>preacheth <sup>b</sup>the faith of which he once <sup>v</sup>made havoc; 24 and they <sup>c</sup>glorified God in me.

yet was endorsed by "the Three," and maintained against Peter. The Folly of relapsing to the Law;

2 Then after the space of fourteen years I<sup>a</sup> went up again to Jerusalem with<sup>b</sup> Barnabas, taking<sup>c</sup> Titus also with me. 2 And I went up<sup>d</sup> by revelation; and I laid before them the<sup>e</sup> gospel which I preach among the Gentiles but privately before them who<sup>f</sup> were of repute, lest by any means I should be<sup>g</sup> running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even<sup>h</sup> Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was<sup>i</sup> compelled to be circumcised: 4<sup>j</sup> and that because of the<sup>k</sup> false brethren privily brought in, who<sup>l</sup> came in privily to spy out our<sup>m</sup> liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might<sup>n</sup> bring us into bondage: 5 to whom we gave place in the way of subjection, no, not for an hour; that<sup>o</sup> the truth of the<sup>p</sup> gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those who<sup>q</sup> were<sup>r</sup> reputed to be somewhat (<sup>s</sup> whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: <sup>t</sup> God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were of repute imparted nothing to me: 7 but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been<sup>u</sup> intrusted with the<sup>v</sup> gospel of the uncircumcision, even as<sup>w</sup> Peter with the<sup>x</sup> gospel of the circumcision 8 (for he that wrought for Peter unto the<sup>y</sup> apostleship of the circumcision wrought for me also unto the Gentiles); 9 and when they perceived<sup>z</sup> the grace that was given unto me, <sup>aa</sup> James and <sup>ab</sup> Cephas and John, they who<sup>ac</sup> were<sup>ad</sup> reputed to be<sup>ae</sup> pillars, gave to me and<sup>af</sup> Barnabas the<sup>ag</sup> right hands of fellowship, that we should<sup>ah</sup> go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision; 10 only<sup>ai</sup> they would that we should remember the poor; <sup>aj</sup> which very thing I was also zealous to do.

11 But when<sup>ak</sup> Cephas came to<sup>al</sup> Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned. 12 For before that certain came from<sup>am</sup> James, he<sup>an</sup> ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he drew back and separated himself, <sup>ao</sup> fearing them that were of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that even<sup>ap</sup> Barnabas was carried away with their dissimulation. 14 But when I saw that they<sup>aw</sup> walked not uprightly according to<sup>ax</sup> the truth of the<sup>ay</sup> gospel, I said unto<sup>az</sup> Cephas before<sup>ba</sup> them all, If thou, being a Jew, <sup>bb</sup> livest as do the Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, how compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews? 15 We being<sup>bc</sup> Jews by nature, and not<sup>bd</sup> sinners of the Gentiles, 16 yet knowing that<sup>be</sup> a man is not<sup>bf</sup> justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by<sup>bg</sup> faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because<sup>bh</sup> by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified. 17 But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found<sup>bi</sup> sinners, is Christ a minister of sin? <sup>bj</sup> God forbid. 18 For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I<sup>bk</sup> prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through the law<sup>bl</sup> died unto the law, that I might live unto God. 20 I have been<sup>bm</sup> crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I that live, but<sup>bn</sup> Christ liveth in me; and that<sup>bo</sup> life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in<sup>bp</sup> the Son of God, who<sup>bq</sup> loved me, and<sup>br</sup> gave himself up for me. 21 I do not make void the grace of God: for<sup>bs</sup> if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish<sup>bs</sup> Galatians, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ<sup>bt</sup> was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the<sup>bu</sup> hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit,<sup>bv</sup> are ye now perfected in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? <sup>bw</sup> if it be indeed in vain. 5 He therefore that<sup>bx</sup> supplieth to you the Spirit, which the Covenant of Faith antedates. The Law preparatory to the Gospel. Under the Law we were Wards and <sup>a</sup>worketh <sup>1</sup>miracles <sup>2</sup>among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the <sup>3b</sup>hearing of faith? <sup>6</sup>Even as <sup>c</sup>Abraham <sup>4</sup>believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. <sup>7</sup>Know therefore that <sup>d</sup>they that are of faith, the same are <sup>e</sup>sons of Abraham. <sup>8</sup>And the scripture, foreseeing that God <sup>6</sup>would justify the <sup>7</sup>Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto Abraham, saying, <sup>8</sup>In thee shall all the nations be blessed. <sup>9</sup>So then <sup>f</sup>they that are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, <sup>9</sup>Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them. <sup>11</sup>Now that <sup>g</sup>no man is justified <sup>10</sup>by the law before God, is evident: for, <sup>11h</sup>The righteous shall live by faith; <sup>12</sup>and the law is not of faith; but, <sup>12i</sup>He that doeth them shall live in them. <sup>13</sup>Christ <sup>k</sup>redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; for it is written, <sup>13</sup>Cursed is every one that hangeth on <sup>1a</sup>a tree: <sup>14</sup>that <sup>m</sup>upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; that we <sup>n</sup>might receive <sup>o</sup>the promise of the Spirit through faith.

<sup>15</sup>Brethren, <sup>q</sup>I speak after the manner of men: <sup>r</sup>Though it be but a man's covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto. <sup>16</sup>Now <sup>s</sup>to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, <sup>14t</sup>And to thy seed, which is Christ. <sup>17</sup>Now this I say: A covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came <sup>u</sup>four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the promise of none effect. <sup>18</sup>For <sup>v</sup>if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but <sup>x</sup>God hath granted it to Abraham by promise. <sup>19</sup>What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till <sup>z</sup>the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was <sup>a</sup>ordained through angels <sup>b</sup>by the hand of a mediator. <sup>20</sup>Now <sup>a</sup>a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one. <sup>21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? <sup>a</sup>God forbid: for <sup>c</sup>if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law. <sup>22</sup>But the scripture <sup>f</sup>shut up all <sup>g</sup>things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

<sup>23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, <sup>f</sup>shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. <sup>24</sup>So that the law is become our <sup>h</sup>tutor to bring us unto Christ, that <sup>i</sup>we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup>But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a <sup>i</sup>tutor. <sup>26</sup>For ye are all <sup>k</sup>sons of God, through faith, in <sup>l</sup>Christ Jesus. <sup>27</sup>For as many of you as were <sup>m</sup>baptized into Christ did <sup>n</sup>put on Christ. <sup>28</sup>There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female; for <sup>r</sup>ye all are one man in <sup>l</sup>Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>And if <sup>q</sup>ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, heirs according to <sup>r</sup>promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant though he is lord of all; <sup>2</sup>but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed of the father. <sup>3</sup>So we also, when we were children, were held <sup>a</sup>in bondage under the <sup>15c</sup>rudiments of the world: <sup>4</sup>but when <sup>u</sup>the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, <sup>v</sup>born of a woman, born <sup>x</sup>under the law, <sup>5</sup>that he might redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of <sup>k</sup>sons. <sup>6</sup>And because ye are sons, <sup>y</sup>God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, <sup>z</sup>Abba, Father. <sup>7</sup>So that

8 Howbeit at that time, <sup>b</sup> not knowing God, ye were <sup>c</sup> in bondage to <sup>d</sup> them that by nature are no gods: 9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be <sup>e</sup> known by God, <sup>f</sup> how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly <sup>g</sup> rudiments, whereunto ye desire to be <sup>h</sup> in bondage over again? 10 Ye <sup>i</sup> observe days, and months, and seasons, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labor upon you in vain.

12 I beseech you, <sup>j</sup> brethren, <sup>k</sup> become as I am, for I also am become as ye are. Ye did me no wrong: 13 but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I <sup>l</sup> preached the gospel unto you the <sup>m</sup> first time: 14 and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor <sup>n</sup> rejected; but <sup>o</sup> ye received me as an angel of God, even as <sup>p</sup> Christ Jesus. 15 Where then is that gratulation <sup>q</sup> of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. 16 So then am I become your enemy, <sup>r</sup> by telling you the truth? 17 They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you out, that ye may seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and <sup>s</sup> not only when I am present with you. 19 <sup>t</sup> My little children, of whom <sup>u</sup> I am again in travail until <sup>v</sup> Christ be formed in you—20 but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone; for <sup>w</sup> I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not <sup>x</sup> hear the law? 22 For it is written, <sup>y</sup> that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the freewoman. 23 <sup>z</sup> Howbeit <sup>aa</sup> the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but <sup>ab</sup> the son by the freewoman is born through promise. 24 Which things <sup>ac</sup> contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from <sup>ad</sup> mount Sinai, bearing children unto <sup>ae</sup> bondage, which is Hagar. 25 <sup>9</sup> Now this Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to the Jerusalem that now is: for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But <sup>10</sup> the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother. 27 For it is written,

<sup>10</sup> Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;

Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:

For more are the children of the desolate than of her that hath the husband.

28 Now <sup>11</sup> we, brethren, <sup>as</sup> as Isaac was, are <sup>b</sup> children of promise. 29 But as then <sup>c</sup> he that was born after the flesh <sup>d</sup> persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, <sup>e</sup> so also it is now. 30 Howbeit what saith the scripture? <sup>12</sup> Cast out the handmaid and her son: for <sup>f</sup> the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman. 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 <sup>9</sup> For freedom did Christ set us free: <sup>h</sup> stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a <sup>i</sup> yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, <sup>k</sup> I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive <sup>l</sup> circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 Yea, I <sup>m</sup> testify again to every man that receiveth <sup>n</sup> circumcision, that he is a debtor to <sup>o</sup> do the whole law. 4 Ye are <sup>13</sup> severed from Christ, ye who would be justified by the law; ye are <sup>p</sup> fallen away from grace. 5 For we through the Spirit by faith <sup>q</sup> wait for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in <sup>r</sup> Christ Jesus <sup>s</sup> neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but <sup>t</sup> faith <sup>14</sup> working through love. 7 Ye were <sup>u</sup> running well; who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth? 8 This persuasion <sup>v</sup> came not of <sup>w</sup> him that calleth you. 9 <sup>x</sup> A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump. 10 <sup>y</sup> I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord,

The Spirit and the Flesh contrary the One to the Other. Exhortation to Forbearance and Helpfulness that ye <sup>a</sup> will be none otherwise minded: but he that <sup>b</sup> troubleth you shall bear his judgment, who-soever he be. 11. But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still <sup>c</sup> persecuted? then hath <sup>a</sup> the stumbling-block of the cross been done away. 12 I would that <sup>c</sup> they that unsettle you would even <sup>1</sup> go beyond circumcision.

13 For ye, brethren, were called for <sup>a</sup> freedom; <sup>a</sup> only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love <sup>i</sup> be servants one to another. 14 For <sup>k</sup> the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: <sup>21</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. 15 But if ye <sup>m</sup> bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, <sup>n</sup> Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil <sup>o</sup> the lust of the flesh. 17 For <sup>p</sup> the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; <sup>q</sup> that ye may not do the things that ye would. 18 But if ye are <sup>r</sup> led by the Spirit, <sup>s</sup> ye are not under the law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are <sup>t</sup> these: <sup>u</sup> fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, <sup>v</sup> idolatry, <sup>w</sup> sorcery, enmities, <sup>x</sup> strife, jealousies, wraths, <sup>y</sup> factions, divisions, <sup>z</sup> parties, <sup>21</sup> envyings, <sup>a</sup> drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I <sup>b</sup> forewarn you, even as I did <sup>c</sup> forewarn you, that they who practise such things shall not <sup>d</sup> inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But <sup>e</sup> the fruit of the Spirit is <sup>f</sup> love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, <sup>g</sup> faithfulness, <sup>h</sup> meekness, <sup>i</sup> self-control; against such <sup>j</sup> there is no law. 24 And they that are of <sup>k</sup> Christ Jesus have <sup>l</sup> crucified the flesh with the passions and <sup>m</sup> the lusts thereof.

25 If we live by the Spirit, <sup>n</sup> by the Spirit let us also walk. 26 Let us not become <sup>o</sup> vainglorious, <sup>p</sup> provoking one another, envying one another.

other's burdens, and so fulfil <sup>a</sup> the law of Christ. 3 For <sup>b</sup> if a man thinketh himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. 4 But let each man <sup>c</sup> prove his own work, and then shall he have his <sup>d</sup> glorying in regard of himself alone, and not of <sup>e</sup> his neighbor. 5 For <sup>f</sup> each man shall bear his own <sup>g</sup> burden.

6 But <sup>h</sup> let him that is taught in <sup>i</sup> the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. 7 <sup>a</sup> Be not deceived; <sup>b</sup> God is not mocked: for <sup>c</sup> whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. 8 <sup>a</sup> For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap <sup>c</sup> corruption; but <sup>d</sup> he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And <sup>e</sup> let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we <sup>f</sup> faint not. 10 So then, <sup>g</sup> as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the <sup>h</sup> household of <sup>i</sup> the faith.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS

Salutation. The Blessings of Redemption, which the Apostle prays that his Readers may have more fully

3 <sup>k</sup>Blessed be <sup>l</sup>the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual blessing in <sup>m</sup>the heavenly places in Christ: <sup>n</sup>4 even as <sup>o</sup>he chose us in him before <sup>p</sup>the foundation of the world, that we should be <sup>q</sup>holy and without blemish before <sup>r</sup>him <sup>s</sup>in love: <sup>t</sup>5 having <sup>u</sup>foreordained us unto <sup>v</sup>adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, <sup>w</sup>according to the good pleasure of his will, <sup>x</sup>6 <sup>y</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace, <sup>z</sup>which he freely bestowed on us in <sup>aa</sup>the Beloved: <sup>ab</sup>7 <sup>ac</sup>in whom we have our <sup>ad</sup>redemption <sup>ae</sup>through his blood, the <sup>af</sup>forgiveness of our trespasses, according to <sup>ag</sup>the riches of his grace, <sup>ah</sup>8 <sup>ai</sup>which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, <sup>aj</sup>9 <sup>ak</sup>making known unto us the mystery of his will, <sup>al</sup>according to his good pleasure which he <sup>am</sup>purposed in him <sup>an</sup>10 unto a dispensation of <sup>ao</sup>the fulness of the <sup>ap</sup>times, <sup>aq</sup>to sum up all things in Christ, the things <sup>ar</sup>in the heavens, and the things upon the earth; in him, <sup>as</sup>I say, <sup>at</sup>11 in whom also we <sup>au</sup>were made a heritage, having been <sup>av</sup>foreordained <sup>aw</sup>according to the purpose of him who worketh all things <sup>ax</sup>after the counsel of his will; <sup>ay</sup>12 to the end that we should be <sup>az</sup>unto the praise of his glory, we who <sup>ba</sup>had before hoped in Christ: <sup>bb</sup>13 in whom ye also, having heard <sup>bc</sup>the word of together <sup>1</sup>through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself <sup>a</sup>in love.

17 <sup>b</sup>This I say therefore, and <sup>c</sup>testify in the Lord, <sup>d</sup>that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the <sup>e</sup>vanity of their mind, 18 being <sup>f</sup>darkened in their understanding, alienated from <sup>g</sup>the life of God, because of the <sup>h</sup>ignorance that is in them, because of the <sup>i</sup>hardening of their heart; 19 who <sup>k</sup>being past feeling <sup>l</sup>gave themselves up to <sup>m</sup>lasciviousness, <sup>n</sup>to work all uncleanness with <sup>o</sup>greediness. 20 But ye did not so <sup>p</sup>learn Christ; 21 if so be that ye <sup>q</sup>heard him, and were <sup>r</sup>taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus; 22 that ye <sup>s</sup>put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the <sup>t</sup>old man, that waxeth corrupt after the <sup>u</sup>lusts of deceit; 23 and that ye be <sup>v</sup>renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and <sup>w</sup>put on the <sup>x</sup>new man, <sup>y</sup>that <sup>z</sup>after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

25 Wherefore, <sup>a</sup>putting away falsehood, <sup>b</sup>speak ye truth each one with his neighbor: for we are <sup>c</sup>members one of another. 26 <sup>d</sup>Be ye angry, and sin not: let not <sup>e</sup>the sun go down upon your <sup>f</sup>wrath: 27 neither <sup>g</sup>give place to the devil. 28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather <sup>h</sup>let him labor, <sup>i</sup>working with his hands the thing that is good, <sup>j</sup>that he may have whereof to give to him that hath need. 29 Let no <sup>k</sup>corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for <sup>l</sup>edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that hear. 30 And <sup>m</sup>grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were <sup>n</sup>sealed unto the day of redemption. 31 <sup>o</sup>Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and railing, be <sup>p</sup>put away from you, with all <sup>q</sup>malice: 32 and <sup>r</sup>be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, <sup>s</sup>even as God also in Christ forgave <sup>t</sup>you.

3 But <sup>v</sup>fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh saints; 4 nor <sup>w</sup>filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which <sup>x</sup>are not befitting: but rather <sup>y</sup>giving of thanks. 5 For this ye know of a surety, that <sup>z</sup>no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom <sup>a</sup>of Christ and God. 6 <sup>b</sup>Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because <sup>c</sup>of these things cometh <sup>d</sup>the wrath of God upon <sup>e</sup>the sons of disobedience. 7 Be not ye therefore <sup>f</sup>partakers with them; 8 for <sup>g</sup>ye were once <sup>h</sup>darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk as <sup>i</sup>children of light <sup>j</sup>9 (for <sup>k</sup>the fruit of the light is in all <sup>l</sup>goodness and righteousness and truth), <sup>m</sup>10 <sup>n</sup>proving what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; 11 and <sup>o</sup>have no fellowship with the unfruitful <sup>p</sup>works of <sup>q</sup>darkness, but rather even <sup>r</sup>11 <sup>s</sup>reprove them; 12 for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to speak of. 13 But all things <sup>t</sup>when they are <sup>u</sup>reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is made manifest is light. 14 Wherefore <sup>v</sup>he saith, <sup>w</sup>13 <sup>x</sup>Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from <sup>y</sup>the dead, and Christ <sup>z</sup>shall shine upon thee.

Domestic Duties : — Wives and Husbands, Children and Parents, Servants and Masters. "Put on the Armor of God"

22 <sup>n</sup> Wives, <sup>o</sup> be in subjection unto your own husbands, <sup>p</sup> as unto the Lord. 23 For <sup>q</sup> the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the <sup>r</sup> head of the church, being himself <sup>s</sup> the saviour of the body. 24 But as the church is subject to Christ, <sup>t</sup> so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything. 25 <sup>u</sup> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and <sup>v</sup> gave himself up for it; 26 <sup>w</sup> that he might sanctify it, having <sup>x</sup> cleansed it by the <sup>y</sup> washing of water with <sup>z</sup> the word, 27 that he might <sup>a</sup> present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be <sup>b</sup> holy and without blemish. 28 Even so ought husbands also to <sup>c</sup> love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own wife loveth himself: 29 for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as Christ also the church; 30 because we are <sup>d</sup> members of his <sup>e</sup> body. 31 <sup>e</sup> For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh. 32 This mystery is great; but I speak in regard of Christ and of the church. 33 Nevertheless do ye also severally <sup>f</sup> love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she <sup>g</sup> fear her husband.

6 <sup>h</sup> Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. 2 <sup>i</sup> Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), 3 that it may be well with thee, and thou <sup>j</sup> mayest live long on the <sup>k</sup> earth. 4 And, ye <sup>l</sup> fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but <sup>m</sup> nurture them

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving and Supplication on the Readers' Behalf. "To live is Christ, to die is Gain"

3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you, 4 always <sup>m</sup> in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all making my supplication with joy, 5 for your <sup>n</sup> fellowship in furtherance of the <sup>3o</sup> gospel <sup>p</sup> from the first day until now; 6 being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will perfect it until <sup>q</sup> the day of Jesus Christ: 7 even as <sup>r</sup> it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because <sup>4i</sup> I <sup>s</sup> have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in <sup>t</sup> my bonds and in the <sup>u</sup> defence and confirmation of the <sup>3o</sup> gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace. 8 For <sup>v</sup> God is my witness, how I long after you all in the tender mercies of <sup>a</sup> Christ Jesus. 9 And this I pray, that <sup>z</sup> your love may abound yet more and more in <sup>y</sup> knowledge and all discernment; 10 so that ye may <sup>5z</sup> approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto <sup>a</sup> the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the <sup>6a</sup> fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me <sup>b</sup> have fallen out rather than the progress of the <sup>3o</sup> gospel; 13 so that <sup>c</sup> my bonds became manifest in Christ <sup>7</sup> throughout the whole prætorian guard, and to <sup>d</sup> all the rest; 14 and that most of the brethren in the Lord, <sup>8</sup> being confident through <sup>e</sup> my bonds, are more abundantly <sup>e</sup> bold to speak the word of God without fear. 15 <sup>f</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: 16 <sup>g</sup> the one do it of love, knowing that I am <sup>g</sup> set for the defence of the <sup>3o</sup> gospel; 17 <sup>10</sup> but the other proclaim Christ <sup>h</sup> of faction, not sincerely, thinking to raise up affliction for me in <sup>e</sup> my bonds. 18 What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this shall turn out to my salvation, <sup>i</sup> through your supplication and the supply of <sup>k</sup> the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my <sup>earnest</sup> expectation and <sup>m</sup> hope, that in nothing shall I be <sup>m</sup> put to shame, but that with <sup>e</sup> all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be <sup>n</sup> magnified in my body. <sup>o</sup> whether by life, or by death. 21 For to me <sup>p</sup> to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 <sup>11</sup> But if to live in the flesh, — if <sup>12</sup> this shall bring <sup>q</sup> fruit from my work, then <sup>13</sup> what I shall choose I know not. 23 But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the <sup>r</sup> desire to depart and <sup>s</sup> be with Christ; for it is very far better: 24 yet to abide in the flesh is more needful for your sake. 25 And <sup>t</sup> having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy <sup>14</sup> in the faith; 26 that your <sup>u</sup> glorying may abound in Christ

Sundry Exhortations: to Lowliness of Mind — the Mind of Christ; to Zeal and Blamelessness. Commendation of Jesus in me through my presence with you again. 27 Only <sup>1</sup> let your manner of life be <sup>a</sup> worthy of the <sup>2b</sup> gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye <sup>c</sup> stand fast in <sup>d</sup> one spirit, with one soul <sup>e</sup> striving <sup>3</sup> for the faith of the <sup>2</sup> gospel; 28 and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them <sup>f</sup> an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you <sup>g</sup> it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to <sup>h</sup> suffer in his behalf: 30 having the same <sup>i</sup> conflict which <sup>k</sup> ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any <sup>4</sup> exhortation in Christ, if any <sup>4</sup> consolation of love, if any <sup>4</sup> fellowship of the Spirit, if any <sup>m</sup> tender mercies and compassions, 2 <sup>n</sup> make full my joy, that ye <sup>o</sup> be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, <sup>o</sup> of one mind; 3 <sup>o</sup> doing nothing, through <sup>p</sup> faction or through <sup>q</sup> vainglory, but in lowliness of mind <sup>r</sup> each counting other better than himself; 4 <sup>r</sup> not looking each of you to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. 5 <sup>r</sup> Have this mind in you, which was also in <sup>u</sup> Christ Jesus: 6 who, <sup>v</sup> existing in the <sup>v</sup> form of God, <sup>v</sup> counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but <sup>v</sup> emptied himself, taking the form of a <sup>6a</sup> servant, <sup>7b</sup> being made in the likeness of men; 8 and being found in fashion as a man, <sup>2</sup> he humbled himself, becoming <sup>o</sup> obedient <sup>even</sup> unto death, yea, the <sup>d</sup> death of the cross. 9 <sup>e</sup> Wherefore also God <sup>h</sup> highly exalted him, and gave unto him <sup>u</sup> the name which is above every name; 10 that in the name of Jesus <sup>h</sup> every knee should bow, of <sup>4</sup> things in heaven and <sup>4</sup> things on earth and <sup>8</sup> things under the earth, 11 and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is <sup>2</sup> Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

more in my absence, work out your own <sup>m</sup> salvation with <sup>n</sup> fear and trembling; 13 for it is <sup>o</sup> God who worketh in you both to will and to work, <sup>p</sup> for his good pleasure. 14 Do all things without <sup>q</sup> murmurings and questionings; 15 that ye may become <sup>r</sup> blameless and harmless, <sup>r</sup> children of God without blemish in the midst of a <sup>c</sup> crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye <sup>u</sup> are seen as <sup>10</sup> lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in <sup>v</sup> the day of Christ, that I did not <sup>v</sup> run in vain neither <sup>v</sup> labor in vain. 17 Yea, and if I am <sup>11</sup> offered upon <sup>b</sup> the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy; and rejoice with you all: 18 and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to <sup>e</sup> send <sup>a</sup> Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state. 20 For I have no man <sup>e</sup> likeminded, who will care <sup>12</sup> truly for your state. 21 For they all <sup>v</sup> seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know <sup>g</sup> the proof of him, that, <sup>h</sup> as a child <sup>serveth</sup> a father, so <sup>e</sup> he served with me in furtherance of the <sup>2</sup> gospel. 23 <sup>e</sup> Him therefore I hope to send forthwith, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: 24 but <sup>e</sup> I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 But I counted it necessary to send to you <sup>k</sup> Epaphroditus, my brother and <sup>l</sup> fellow-worker and <sup>m</sup> fellow-soldier, and your <sup>13</sup> messenger and <sup>o</sup> minister to my need; 26 since he longed <sup>14</sup> after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick: 27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. 29 <sup>a</sup>Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and <sup>b</sup>hold such in honor: 30 because <sup>c</sup>for the work of <sup>1</sup>Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to <sup>a</sup>supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, <sup>a</sup>rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not irksome, but for you it is safe. 2 Beware of the <sup>d</sup>dogs, beware of the <sup>e</sup>evil workers, beware of the concision: 3 for <sup>h</sup>we are the circumcision, who <sup>i</sup>worship by the Spirit of God, and <sup>k</sup>glory in <sup>l</sup>Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh: 4 though <sup>m</sup>I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man <sup>n</sup>thinketh to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: 5 <sup>o</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the <sup>p</sup>stock of Israel, of the <sup>q</sup>tribe of Benjamin, a <sup>r</sup>Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, <sup>s</sup>a Pharisee; 6 as touching zeal, <sup>t</sup>persecuting the church; as touching the <sup>u</sup>righteousness which is in the law, found <sup>v</sup>blameless. 7 Howbeit <sup>w</sup>what things were <sup>x</sup>gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ. 8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the <sup>y</sup>knowledge of <sup>z</sup>Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but <sup>aa</sup>refuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in him, <sup>ab</sup>not having <sup>ac</sup>a righteousness of mine own, <sup>ad</sup>even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, <sup>ae</sup>the righteousness which is from God <sup>af</sup>by faith: 10 that I may <sup>ag</sup>know him, and <sup>ah</sup>the power of his resurrection, and the <sup>ai</sup>fellowship of his sufferings, becoming <sup>aj</sup>conformed unto his death; 11 if by any means I may <sup>ak</sup>attain unto the resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I have already <sup>al</sup>obtained, or am already <sup>am</sup>made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may <sup>an</sup>lay hold on that for which also I <sup>ao</sup>was laid hold on by <sup>1</sup>Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I count not myself <sup>2</sup>yet to have laid hold: but one thing I <sup>3</sup>do, <sup>4</sup>forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, 14 I <sup>5</sup>press on toward the goal unto the prize of the <sup>6</sup>high calling of God in <sup>7</sup>Christ Jesus. 15 Let us therefore, as many as are <sup>8</sup>perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are <sup>9</sup>otherwise minded, this also shall <sup>10</sup>God reveal unto you: 16 only, whereunto we have attained, <sup>11</sup>by that same rule let us walk.

17 Brethren, be ye <sup>12</sup>imitators together of me, and mark them that so walk even as ye have us for an <sup>13</sup>ensample. 18 For <sup>14</sup>many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even <sup>15</sup>weeping, <sup>16</sup>that they are the enemies of <sup>17</sup>the cross of Christ: 19 whose end is perdition, whose god is <sup>18</sup>the belly, and whose <sup>19</sup>glory is in their shame, who <sup>20</sup>mind earthly things. 20 For <sup>21</sup>our <sup>22</sup>citizenship is in heaven; whence also we <sup>23</sup>wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: 21 who shall <sup>24</sup>fashion anew the body of our humiliation, <sup>25</sup>that it may be <sup>26</sup>conformed to the <sup>27</sup>body of his glory, <sup>28</sup>according to the working whereby he is able even to <sup>29</sup>subject all things unto himself.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Attainments and Prayer for their Progress. The Preëminence of the Son

3 <sup>i</sup>We give thanks to God <sup>j</sup>the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, <sup>k</sup>4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the <sup>l</sup>love which ye have toward <sup>m</sup>all the saints, <sup>n</sup>5 because of the <sup>o</sup>hope which is <sup>p</sup>laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye <sup>q</sup>heard before in the word of the truth of the <sup>r</sup>gospel, <sup>s</sup>6 which is come unto you; even as it is also <sup>t</sup>in all the world bearing <sup>u</sup>fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye <sup>v</sup>heard and knew the grace of God in truth; <sup>w</sup>7 even as ye learned of <sup>x</sup>Epaphras our <sup>y</sup>beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on <sup>z</sup>our behalf, <sup>aa</sup>8 who also declared unto us your <sup>ab</sup>love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, <sup>ac</sup>since the day we heard it, <sup>ad</sup>do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the <sup>ae</sup>knowledge of his will in all spiritual <sup>af</sup>wisdom and understanding, <sup>ag</sup>10 to <sup>ah</sup>walk worthily of the Lord <sup>ai</sup>unto all <sup>aj</sup>pleasing, <sup>ak</sup>bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing <sup>al</sup>in the knowledge of God; <sup>am</sup>11 <sup>an</sup>strengthened <sup>ao</sup>with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all <sup>ap</sup>patience and <sup>aq</sup>longsuffering with joy; <sup>ar</sup>12 giving thanks unto <sup>as</sup>the Father, who made <sup>at</sup>10 us meet to be partakers of <sup>au</sup>the inheritance of the saints in <sup>av</sup>light; <sup>aw</sup>13 who delivered us out of the power of

which ye heard, which was preached a in all creation under heaven ;
 b whereof I Paul was made a c minister.

24 a Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and e fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for f his body's sake, which is the church ; 25 g whereof I was made a minister, according to the h i dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God, 26 even i the mystery which hath been hid 2 for ages and generations : but now hath it been manifested to his saints, 27 to whom k God was pleased to make known what is l the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is m Christ in you, the n hope of glory : 28 whom we proclaim, o admonishing every man and teaching every man in all p wisdom, that we may q present every man r perfect in Christ ; 29 whereunto I s labor also, t striving u according to his working, which worketh in me 3 mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I v strive for you, and for them at w Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh ; 2 that their x hearts may be comforted, they being y knit together in love, and unto all z riches of the aa full assurance of understanding, that they k may know i the mystery of God, b even Christ, 3 in whom are all a the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. 4 b This I say, that no one may delude you with c persuasiveness of speech. 5 For though I am a absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your d order, and the e steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As therefore ye received o Christ Jesus the Lord, so h walk in him, 7 i rooted and k builded up in him, and l established m in your faith, even as ye n were taught, abounding 7 in thanksgiving.

20 <sup>a</sup> If ye died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, <sup>c</sup> why, as though living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to <sup>d</sup> ordinances, 21 Handle not, nor taste, nor touch 22 (all which things are <sup>e</sup> to perish with the using), after the <sup>f</sup> precepts and doctrines of men? 23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in <sup>g</sup> will-worship, and humility, and <sup>h</sup> severity to the body; but are not of any <sup>i</sup> value against <sup>j</sup> the indulgence of the flesh.

2 <sup>a</sup> Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 withal praying <sup>b</sup> for us also, that God may open unto us a <sup>c</sup> door for <sup>d</sup> the word, to speak <sup>e</sup> the mystery of Christ, for which I am also <sup>f</sup> in bonds; 4 that I may make it manifest, <sup>g</sup> as I ought to speak. 5 <sup>h</sup> Walk in wisdom toward <sup>i</sup> them that are without, <sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup> redeeming the time. 6 <sup>k</sup> Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with <sup>l</sup> salt, that ye may know how ye ought <sup>m</sup> to answer each one.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Reception of the Gospel. Reminder of his Labors among them

1 <sup>a</sup>Paul, and <sup>b</sup>Silvanus, and <sup>c</sup>Timothy, unto the <sup>d</sup>church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>e</sup>Grace to you and peace.

2 <sup>f</sup>We give thanks to God always for you all, <sup>g</sup>making mention of you in our prayers; 3 remembering without ceasing your <sup>h</sup>work of faith and labor of <sup>i</sup>love and <sup>1k</sup>patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before <sup>2i</sup>our God and Father; 4 knowing, <sup>m</sup>brethren beloved of God, <sup>n</sup>your election, 5 <sup>3</sup>how that our <sup>4o</sup>gospel came not unto you in word only, but also <sup>p</sup>in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much <sup>6q</sup>assurance; even as ye know <sup>r</sup>what manner of men we showed ourselves toward you for your sake. 6 And ye became <sup>s</sup>imitators of us, and of the Lord, <sup>t</sup>having received <sup>u</sup>the word in much affliction, with <sup>v</sup>joy of the Holy Spirit; 7 so that ye became an ensample to all that believe in <sup>x</sup>Macedonia and in <sup>y</sup>Achaia. 8 For from you hath <sup>z</sup>sounded forth <sup>a</sup>the word of the Lord, not only in <sup>x</sup>Macedonia and <sup>y</sup>Achaia, but <sup>b</sup>in every place your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we need not to speak anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what manner of <sup>c</sup>entering in we had unto you; and how ye <sup>d</sup>turned unto God <sup>e</sup>from idols, to serve a <sup>f</sup>living and true God, 10 and to <sup>g</sup>wait for his Son from heaven, whom he <sup>h</sup>raised from the dead, even Jesus, who <sup>i</sup>delivereth us from <sup>k</sup>the wrath to come.

ye should <sup>a</sup>walk worthily of God, who <sup>b</sup> calleth you into his own kingdom and <sup>c</sup>glory.

13 And for this cause we also <sup>a</sup>thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us <sup>2</sup><sup>a</sup>the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it <sup>1</sup>not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, <sup>2</sup>which also worketh in you that believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became <sup>h</sup>imitators of <sup>i</sup>the churches of God which are <sup>k</sup>in Judæa in Christ Jesus: for <sup>l</sup>ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, <sup>m</sup>even as they did of the Jews; 15 <sup>n</sup>who both killed the Lord Jesus and <sup>o</sup>the prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 <sup>p</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles <sup>q</sup>that they may be saved; to <sup>r</sup>fill up their sins always: but the <sup>s</sup>wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for <sup>3</sup>a short season, <sup>t</sup>in presence not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly <sup>u</sup>to see your face with great desire: 18 because <sup>v</sup>we would fain have come unto you, I Paul <sup>x</sup>once and again; and <sup>y</sup>Satan <sup>z</sup>hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or <sup>a</sup>joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his <sup>4</sup>coming? 20 For ye are <sup>o</sup>our glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore <sup>d</sup>when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at <sup>o</sup>Athens alone; 2 and sent <sup>1</sup>Timothy, our brother and <sup>b</sup>God's minister in the <sup>c</sup>gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3 that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that <sup>2</sup>hereunto we are appointed. 4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you <sup>7</sup>beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; <sup>h</sup>even as it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this cause I also, <sup>d</sup>when I could no longer forbear, <sup>e</sup>sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means <sup>k</sup>the tempter had tempted you, and <sup>o</sup>our labor should be in vain. 6 But when <sup>m</sup>Timothy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of <sup>n</sup>your faith and love, and that ye have <sup>o</sup>good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even as we also to see you; 7 for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith: 8 for now we live, if ye <sup>p</sup>stand fast in the Lord. 9 For <sup>q</sup>what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; 10 <sup>r</sup>night and day praying exceedingly that we may <sup>s</sup>see your face, and may <sup>t</sup>perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

9 But concerning <sup>e</sup>love of the brethren ye <sup>f</sup>have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are <sup>g</sup>taught of God to love one another; 10 for indeed <sup>h</sup>ye do it toward all the brethren that are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye <sup>i</sup>abound more and more; 11 and that ye <sup>j</sup>study <sup>k</sup>to be quiet, and to <sup>l</sup>do your own business, and to <sup>m</sup>work with your hands, even as we charged you; 12 that ye may <sup>n</sup>walk becomingly toward <sup>o</sup>them that are without, and may <sup>p</sup>have need of nothing.

13 But <sup>q</sup>we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that <sup>r</sup>fall asleep; that ye sorrow not, even as <sup>s</sup>the rest, who have <sup>t</sup>no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, <sup>u</sup>even so <sup>v</sup>them also that are fallen asleep <sup>w</sup>in Jesus will God bring with him. 15 For this we say unto you <sup>x</sup>by the word of the Lord, that <sup>y</sup>we that are alive, that are left unto <sup>z</sup>the <sup>aa</sup>coming of the Lord, shall in no wise precede <sup>ab</sup>them that are fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord <sup>ac</sup>himself <sup>ad</sup>shall descend from heaven, with <sup>ae</sup>a shout, with the voice of <sup>af</sup>the archangel, and with <sup>ag</sup>the trump of God: and <sup>ah</sup>the dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 then <sup>ai</sup>we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be <sup>aj</sup>caught up <sup>ak</sup>in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever <sup>al</sup>be with the Lord. 18 Wherefore <sup>am</sup>comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the <sup>k</sup>times and the seasons, brethren, ye <sup>l</sup>have no need that aught be written unto you. 2 For yourselves know perfectly that <sup>m</sup>the day of the Lord so cometh <sup>n</sup>as a thief in the night. 3 When they are saying, <sup>o</sup>Peace and safety, then sudden <sup>p</sup>destruction cometh upon them, as <sup>q</sup>travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in <sup>r</sup>darkness, that that day should overtake you <sup>6n</sup> as a thief: 5 for ye are all <sup>7</sup>sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of <sup>8</sup>darkness; 6 so then let us not <sup>9</sup>sleep, as do <sup>10</sup>the rest, but let us watch and <sup>11</sup>be sober. 7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that are drunken are <sup>12</sup>drunken in the night. 8 But let us, since <sup>13</sup>we are of the day, <sup>14</sup>be sober, putting on the <sup>15</sup>breastplate of <sup>16</sup>faith and love; and for a <sup>17</sup>helmet, the <sup>18</sup>hope of salvation. 9 For God appointed us not unto <sup>19</sup>wrath, but unto <sup>20</sup>the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 <sup>21</sup>who died for us, that, whether we <sup>22</sup>wake or sleep, we should live together with him. 11 Wherefore <sup>23</sup>exhort one another, and <sup>24</sup>build each other up, even as also ye do.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Fidelity. The Lord's Coming to be preceded by the Lawless One ren, <sup>k</sup>in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye <sup>l</sup>withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh <sup>m</sup>disorderly, and not after <sup>n</sup>the tradition which <sup>o</sup>they received of us. 7 For yourselves know how ye ought to <sup>p</sup>imitate us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we <sup>q</sup>eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in <sup>r</sup>labor and travail, <sup>s</sup>working night and day, that we might not burden any of you: 9 not because we have not <sup>t</sup>the right, but to make ourselves <sup>u</sup>an ensample unto you, that ye should imitate us. 10 For even <sup>v</sup>when we were with you, this we commanded you, <sup>w</sup>If any will not work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear of some that <sup>x</sup>walk among you disorderly, that work not at all, but are <sup>y</sup>busybodies. 12 Now them that are such we command and <sup>z</sup>exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with <sup>aa</sup>quietness they work, and eat their own bread. 13 But ye, <sup>ab</sup>brethren, <sup>ac</sup>be not weary in well-doing. 14 And if any man obeyeth not our word by <sup>ad</sup>this epistle, note that man, that ye <sup>ae</sup>have no company with him, to the end that he may be <sup>af</sup>ashamed. 15 And <sup>ag</sup>yet <sup>ah</sup>count him not as an enemy, but <sup>ai</sup>admonish him as a <sup>aj</sup>brother.

13 <sup>h</sup>But we are bound to give thanks to God always for you, <sup>i</sup>brethren beloved of the Lord, for that <sup>k</sup>God chose you <sup>l</sup>from the beginning <sup>m</sup>unto salvation <sup>n</sup>in sanctification of the Spirit and <sup>o</sup>belief of the truth: 14 whereunto he <sup>p</sup>called you through <sup>q</sup>our <sup>r</sup>gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brethren, <sup>s</sup>stand fast, and <sup>t</sup>hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether <sup>u</sup>by word, or <sup>v</sup>by epistle of ours.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Charge respecting Misuse of the Law. Personal Thanksgiving. The Charge reinforced

3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at <sup>i</sup>Ephesus, when I was going into <sup>k</sup>Macedonia, that thou mightest charge certain men not to <sup>l</sup>teach a different doctrine, 4 neither to give heed to <sup>m</sup>fables and endless <sup>n</sup>genealogies, which minister <sup>o</sup>questionings, rather than <sup>p</sup>a <sup>1</sup>dispensation of God which is in faith; so do I now. 5 But the end of the <sup>q</sup>charge is love <sup>r</sup>out of a pure heart and a <sup>s</sup>good conscience and <sup>t</sup>faith unfeigned: 6 from which things some having <sup>u</sup>swerved have turned aside unto <sup>v</sup>vain talking; 7 <sup>v</sup>desiring to be <sup>z</sup>teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that <sup>y</sup>the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, 9 as knowing this, that <sup>z</sup>law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and <sup>a</sup>unruly, for the <sup>b</sup>ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and <sup>c</sup>profane, for <sup>3</sup>murderers of fathers and <sup>3</sup>murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 <sup>a</sup>for fornicators, for <sup>a</sup>abusers of themselves with men, for <sup>r</sup>men-stealers, for <sup>g</sup>liars, for <sup>h</sup>false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to <sup>t</sup>the <sup>4</sup>sound <sup>o</sup>doctrine; 11 according to <sup>k</sup>the <sup>6</sup>gospel of the glory of <sup>i</sup>the blessed God, which was <sup>m</sup>committed to my trust.

12 I thank him that <sup>7</sup>enabled me, even <sup>o</sup>Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, <sup>r</sup>appointing me to his service; 13

though I was before a blasphemer, and <sup>a</sup>a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I <sup>r</sup>obtained mercy, because <sup>a</sup>I did it ignorantly in unbelief; 14 and the <sup>c</sup>grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with <sup>a</sup>faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 <sup>v</sup>Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that <sup>a</sup>Christ Jesus came into the world to <sup>v</sup>save sinners; of whom <sup>i</sup>I am chief: 16 howbeit for this cause I <sup>r</sup>obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ <sup>a</sup>show forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them that should thereafter believe on him unto eternal life. 17 Now unto the <sup>b</sup>King <sup>s</sup>eternal, <sup>9</sup>immortal, <sup>a</sup>invisible, the <sup>o</sup>only God, <sup>v</sup>be honor and glory <sup>10</sup>for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This <sup>g</sup>charge I commit unto thee, <sup>h</sup>my child Timothy, according to the <sup>i</sup>prophecies which led the way to thee, that by them thou mayest <sup>k</sup>war the good warfare; 19 holding <sup>v</sup>faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning <sup>m</sup>the faith: 20 of whom is <sup>n</sup>Hymenæus and <sup>o</sup>Alexander; whom I <sup>p</sup>delivered unto Satan, that they might be <sup>q</sup>taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, <sup>11</sup>that <sup>r</sup>supplications,

Prayer for Rulers. Modest Apparel. Church Officials. "The Pillar and Ground of the Truth." Apostasy foretold prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2<sup>a</sup> for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of <sup>b</sup> God our Saviour; 4<sup>c</sup> who would have all men to be <sup>d</sup> saved, and <sup>e</sup> come to the knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is <sup>f</sup> one God, <sup>g</sup> one mediator also between God and men, himself <sup>h</sup> man, Christ Jesus, 6 who <sup>i</sup> gave himself a ransom for all; the <sup>j</sup> testimony to be borne <sup>k</sup> in its own times; 7<sup>m</sup> whereunto I was appointed a <sup>n</sup> preacher and <sup>o</sup> an apostle (<sup>p</sup> I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of <sup>q</sup> the Gentiles in faith and truth.

3<sup>a</sup> Faithful is the saying, If <sup>b</sup> a man seeketh the <sup>c</sup> office of a <sup>d</sup> bishop, he desireth a good work. 2<sup>c</sup> The <sup>e</sup> bishop therefore must be without reproach, <sup>f</sup> the husband of one wife, <sup>g</sup> temperate, sober-minded, orderly, <sup>h</sup> given to hospitality, <sup>i</sup> apt to teach; 3<sup>h</sup> no brawler, no striker; but gentle, not contentious, <sup>j</sup> no lover of money; 4 one that <sup>k</sup> ruleth well his own house, having <sup>l</sup> his children in subjection with all gravity; 5 (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of <sup>m</sup> the church of God?) 6 not a novice, lest being <sup>m</sup> puffed up he fall into the <sup>n</sup> condemnation of the devil. 7 Moreover he must <sup>o</sup> have good testimony from <sup>p</sup> them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and <sup>q</sup> the snare of the devil. 8 <sup>r</sup> Deacons in like manner must be grave, not double-tongued, <sup>s</sup> not given to much wine, <sup>t</sup> not greedy of filthy lucre; 9 <sup>u</sup> holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 And <sup>v</sup> let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they be blameless. 11 Women in like manner must be grave, <sup>x</sup> not slanderers, <sup>y</sup> temperate, faithful in all things. 12 Let <sup>z</sup> deacons be <sup>aa</sup> husbands of one wife, <sup>ab</sup> ruling their children and their own houses well. 13 For they that have served well as deacons <sup>ac</sup> gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly; 15 but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know <sup>ad</sup> how men ought to behave themselves in <sup>ae</sup> the house of God, which is the <sup>af</sup> church of <sup>ag</sup> the living God, the <sup>ah</sup> pillar, and <sup>ai</sup> ground of the truth. 16 And without controversy great is <sup>aj</sup> the mystery of godliness;

them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to requite their parents: for this is <sup>q</sup>acceptable in the sight of God. <sup>5</sup>Now she that is <sup>a</sup>a widow indeed, and desolate, <sup>r</sup>hath her hope set on God, and continueth in <sup>s</sup>supplications and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup>But she that <sup>t</sup>giveth herself to pleasure is <sup>u</sup>dead while she liveth. <sup>7</sup><sup>v</sup>These things also command, that they may be without reproach. <sup>8</sup>But if any provideth not for his own, and specially his own household, he hath <sup>x</sup>denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. <sup>9</sup>Let none be <sup>y</sup>enrolled as a widow under threescore years old, having been <sup>z</sup>the wife of one man, <sup>10</sup>well reported of for <sup>a</sup>good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath <sup>b</sup>used hospitality to strangers, if she <sup>c</sup>hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath <sup>d</sup>relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work. <sup>11</sup>But younger widows refuse: for when they have <sup>e</sup>waxed wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; <sup>12</sup>having condemnation, because they have rejected their first <sup>f</sup>pledge. <sup>13</sup>And withal they learn also to be idle, going about from house to house; and not only idle, but <sup>g</sup>tattlers also and <sup>h</sup>busybodies, speaking <sup>i</sup>things which they ought not. <sup>14</sup><sup>h</sup>I desire therefore that the younger <sup>i</sup>widows <sup>j</sup>marry, bear children, <sup>k</sup>rule the household, <sup>l</sup>give no occasion to the adversary for reviling; <sup>15</sup>for already some <sup>m</sup>are turned aside after <sup>n</sup>Satan. <sup>16</sup>If any woman that believeth <sup>o</sup>hath widows, let her <sup>p</sup>relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are <sup>q</sup>widows indeed.

respecting Servants; against Disputatiousness and Covetousness. Final Admonitions shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, <sup>a</sup>The laborer is worthy of his hire. 19 Against an <sup>b</sup>elder receive not an accusation, except at the mouth of <sup>c</sup>two or three witnesses. 20 Them that sin <sup>a</sup>reprove in the sight of all, <sup>c</sup>that the rest also may be in fear. 21 <sup>1</sup>I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without <sup>1</sup>prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. 22 <sup>2</sup>Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be <sup>a</sup>partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but <sup>1</sup>use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. 24 Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgment; and some men also they <sup>a</sup>follow after. 25 In like manner also <sup>2</sup>there are good works that are evident; and <sup>1</sup>such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 <sup>m</sup>Let as many as are <sup>3</sup>servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, <sup>n</sup>that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed. 2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are <sup>o</sup>brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that <sup>a</sup>partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. <sup>p</sup>These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man <sup>a</sup>teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to <sup>5</sup>sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is <sup>a</sup>acording to godliness; 4 he is <sup>1</sup>puffed up, knowing nothing, but <sup>6</sup>doting about <sup>n</sup>questionings and <sup>o</sup>disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, <sup>z</sup>evil surmising, <sup>5</sup>wranglings of <sup>z</sup>men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, <sup>s</sup>supposing that godliness is a way of gain. 6 <sup>a</sup>But godliness is with <sup>o</sup>contentment <sup>c</sup>is great gain: 7 for <sup>a</sup>we brought nothing into the world, for neither <sup>c</sup>can we carry anything out; 8 but <sup>a</sup>having food and covering <sup>7</sup>we shall be there-with content. 9 <sup>1</sup>But they that are minded to be rich fall into a temptation and <sup>9</sup>a snare and many

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Timothy charged to stir up the Gift in him, and guard his Trust. Onesiphorus faithful amid Desertions

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, whom I <sup>i</sup> serve from my forefathers in a <sup>k</sup> pure conscience, <sup>l</sup> how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day <sup>m</sup> longing to see thee, <sup>n</sup> remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with <sup>o</sup> joy; <sup>p</sup> 5 having been reminded of the <sup>q</sup> unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and <sup>r</sup> thy mother Eunice; and, I am persuaded, in thee also. <sup>6</sup> For which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou <sup>s</sup> stir up <sup>t</sup> the gift of God, which is in thee through the <sup>u</sup> laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup> For God gave us not <sup>v</sup> a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and <sup>w</sup> discipline. <sup>8</sup> Be not ashamed therefore of <sup>x</sup> the testimony of our Lord, nor of me <sup>y</sup> his prisoner: but <sup>z</sup> suffer hardship with the <sup>aa</sup> gospel according to the power of God; <sup>9</sup> who <sup>ab</sup> saved us, and <sup>ac</sup> called us with a holy <sup>ad</sup> calling, <sup>ae</sup> not according to our works, but according to his own <sup>af</sup> purpose and grace, which was given us in <sup>ag</sup> Christ Jesus <sup>ah</sup> before <sup>ai</sup> times eternal, <sup>10</sup> but <sup>aj</sup> hath now been manifested by the <sup>ak</sup> appearing of our Saviour <sup>al</sup> Christ Jesus, who <sup>am</sup> abolished death, and brought life and <sup>an</sup> immortality to light through the <sup>ao</sup> gospel, <sup>11</sup> whereunto I was appointed a <sup>ap</sup> preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. <sup>12</sup> For which cause I suffer also these things: yet <sup>aq</sup> I am not ashamed; for I know him crowned, except he have contended lawfully. 6 "The husbandman that laboreth must be the first to partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I say; for the Lord shall give thee understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel: 9 wherein I suffer hardship unto bonds, as a malefactor; but the word of God is not bound. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 Faithful is the saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with him: 12 if we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we shall deny him, he also will deny us: 13 if we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of them that hear. 15 Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth. 16 But shun profane babblings: for they will proceed further in ungodliness, 17 and their word will eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18 men who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some. 19 Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, the Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness. 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honor, and some unto dishonor. 21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel their <sup>a</sup>folly shall be evident unto all men, <sup>b</sup>as theirs also came to be. 10 But thou <sup>c</sup>didst follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, longsuffering, <sup>d</sup>love, <sup>e</sup>patience, <sup>f</sup>persecutions, <sup>g</sup>sufferings; what things befell me at <sup>h</sup>Antioch, at <sup>i</sup>Iconium, at <sup>j</sup>Lys-tra; what <sup>k</sup>persecutions I endured: and out of them all <sup>l</sup>the Lord delivered me. 12 Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus <sup>m</sup>shall suffer persecution. 13 But evil men and impostors <sup>n</sup>shall wax worse and worse, <sup>o</sup>deceiving and being deceived. 14 But <sup>p</sup>abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of <sup>q</sup>whom thou hast learned them; 15 and that <sup>r</sup>from a babe thou hast known <sup>s</sup>the sacred writings which are able to <sup>t</sup>make thee wise unto <sup>u</sup>salvation through faith which is in <sup>v</sup>Christ Jesus. 16 <sup>w</sup>Every scripture inspired of God <sup>x</sup>is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for <sup>y</sup>instruction which is in righteousness: 17 that <sup>z</sup>the man of God may be complete, <sup>aa</sup>furnished completely unto every good work.

4 <sup>bb</sup>I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who shall <sup>cc</sup>judge the living and the dead, and by his <sup>dd</sup>appearing and his kingdom: 2 preach <sup>ee</sup>the word; be urgent in season, out of season; <sup>ff</sup>reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all <sup>gg</sup>longsuffering and teaching. 3 For <sup>hh</sup>the time will come when they will not endure <sup>ii</sup>the <sup>jj</sup>sound <sup>kk</sup>doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts; 4 and <sup>ll</sup>will turn away their ears from the truth, and <sup>mm</sup>turn aside unto <sup>nn</sup>fables. 5 But <sup>oo</sup>be thou sober in all things, <sup>pp</sup>suffer hardship, do the work of an <sup>qq</sup>evangelist, <sup>rr</sup>fulfill thy <sup>ss</sup>ministry. 6 For I am already being <sup>tt</sup>offered, and the time of <sup>uu</sup>my departure is come. 7 <sup>vv</sup>I have fought the good fight, I have finished <sup>ww</sup>the course, I have kept <sup>xx</sup>the faith: 8 henceforth there <sup>yy</sup>is laid up for me <sup>zz</sup>the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, <sup>aaa</sup>the righteous judge, shall give to me at <sup>bbb</sup>that day; and not to me only,

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder. Disorderly Teachers to be reprov'd. Duties of the Aged, the Young, etc.

upon us <sup>richly</sup>, through Jesus Christ our Saviour; 7 that, being justified by his grace, we might be made <sup>heirs</sup> according to the hope of eternal life. 8 <sup>9</sup>Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things <sup>10</sup>I desire that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they who have <sup>11</sup>believed God may be careful to <sup>12</sup>maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men: 9 but <sup>13</sup>shun <sup>14</sup>foolish questionings, and <sup>15</sup>genealogies, and <sup>16</sup>strifes, and <sup>17</sup>fightings about the law; for they are <sup>18</sup>unprofitable and <sup>19</sup>vain. 10 <sup>20</sup>A factious man <sup>21</sup>after a first and second admonition <sup>22</sup>refuse; 11 knowing that such a one is <sup>23</sup>perverted, and sinneth, being self-condemned.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship. Onesimus no longer a Servant. Benediction

4 <sup>l</sup> I thank my God always, <sup>m</sup> making mention of thee in my prayers, 5 <sup>n</sup> hearing of <sup>o</sup> thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the <sup>p</sup> knowledge of every good thing which is in <sup>q</sup> you, unto Christ. 7 For I had much <sup>r</sup> joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been <sup>s</sup> refreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, <sup>t</sup> though I have all boldness in Christ to enjoin thee that which is <sup>u</sup> befitting, 9 yet for love's sake I rather <sup>v</sup> beseech, being such a one as Paul <sup>w</sup> the <sup>x</sup> aged, and now <sup>y</sup> a prisoner also of <sup>c</sup> Christ Jesus; 10 I <sup>z</sup> beseech thee for my <sup>aa</sup> child, whom I have begotten in my bonds, <sup>ab</sup> Onesimus, 11 who once was unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and to me: 12 whom I have sent back to thee in his own person, that is, my very heart: 13 whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might minister unto me in the <sup>ac</sup> bonds of the <sup>ad</sup> gospel: 14 but without thy mind I would do nothing;

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

God's Final Word spoken through his Son, who is superior to the Angels and more to be heeded

1 God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in <sup>1e</sup>his Son, whom he appointed <sup>1</sup>heir of all things, through whom also he made the <sup>2a</sup>worlds; <sup>3</sup> who being the effulgence of his glory, and the very <sup>2</sup>image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made <sup>m</sup>purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the <sup>o</sup>Majesty on high; <sup>4</sup> having become by so much better than the angels, as he hath inherited a more excellent <sup>n</sup>name than they. <sup>5</sup> For unto which of the angels said he at any time,

<sup>4a</sup>Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,

<sup>5</sup>I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?
<sup>6</sup> And when he again <sup>7r</sup>bringeth in the firstborn into <sup>8s</sup>the world he saith, <sup>9</sup>And let all the angels of God worship him. <sup>7</sup> And of the angels he saith,

<sup>10</sup>Who maketh his angels winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:
<sup>8</sup> but of the Son he saith,
<sup>11, 12</sup>Thy <sup>t</sup>throne, O God, is for ever and ever;
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of <sup>13</sup>thy kingdom.

<sup>9</sup> Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, thy God, hath <sup>v</sup>anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And,
<sup>14</sup>Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst lay the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the works of thy hands;
11 They shall perish; but thou continuest:
<sup>z</sup>And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
12 And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up,
As a garment, and they shall be changed:
But thou art <sup>v</sup>the same,
And thy years shall not fail.
13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time,

14 Are they not all <sup>b</sup>ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall <sup>c</sup>inherit <sup>d</sup>salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply <sup>e</sup>we drift away from them. <sup>2</sup> For if the word <sup>f</sup>spoken through <sup>g</sup>angels proved steadfast, and <sup>h</sup>every transgression and disobedience received a just <sup>i</sup>recompense of reward; <sup>3</sup> how shall we escape, if we neglect so great a <sup>d</sup>salvation? which having at the first been <sup>f</sup>spoken through the Lord, was <sup>i</sup>confirmed unto us by them that heard; <sup>4</sup> God also bearing witness with them, both by <sup>m</sup>signs and <sup>n</sup>wonders, and by <sup>n</sup>manifest powers, and by <sup>16</sup>gifts of the Holy Spirit, <sup>v</sup>according to his own will.

His Subordination the better fits him to succor.

5 For not unto angels did he subject <sup>1a</sup>the world to come, whereof we speak. 6 But one hath <sup>b</sup>somewhere <sup>c</sup>testified, saying, <sup>2</sup>What is man, that thou art mindful of him?

Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him <sup>3a</sup>a little lower than the angels;

Thou crownedst him with glory and honor,

<sup>4</sup>And didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 <sup>a</sup>Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.

For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now <sup>e</sup>we see not yet all things subjected to him.

9 But we behold him who hath been <sup>f</sup>made <sup>3a</sup>a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, <sup>g</sup>because of the suffering of death <sup>h</sup>crowned with glory and honor, that <sup>i</sup>by the grace of God he should <sup>k</sup>taste of death <sup>l</sup>for every man.

10 For <sup>m</sup>it became him, <sup>n</sup>for whom are all things, and <sup>o</sup>through whom are all things, <sup>5</sup>in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the <sup>6o</sup>author of their salvation <sup>p</sup>perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that <sup>q</sup>sanctifieth and they that <sup>r</sup>are sanctified are all <sup>e</sup>of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them <sup>s</sup>brethren,

12 saying, <sup>7</sup>I will declare thy name unto my brethren,

In the midst of the <sup>8</sup>congregation will I sing thy praise.

13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, <sup>9</sup>Behold, I and the children whom God hath given me.

14 Since then the children are sharers in <sup>10n</sup>flesh and blood, <sup>v</sup>he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that <sup>x</sup>through death he <sup>11</sup>might bring to nought <sup>y</sup>him that <sup>12</sup>had the power of death, that is, the devil; 15 and <sup>11</sup>might deliver all them who through <sup>z</sup>fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

hooved him in all things <sup>a</sup>to be made like unto his brethren, that he might <sup>b</sup>become a merciful and faithful <sup>c</sup>high priest in <sup>a</sup>things pertaining to God, to <sup>e</sup>make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 <sup>14</sup>For <sup>15</sup>in that he himself hath suffered being <sup>t</sup>tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, <sup>v</sup>holy brethren, <sup>3</sup>partakers of a <sup>h</sup>heavenly calling, consider <sup>i</sup>the Apostle and <sup>e</sup>High Priest of our <sup>k</sup>confession, even Jesus; 2 who was faithful to him that <sup>19</sup>appointed him, as also was <sup>l</sup>Moses in all <sup>17</sup>his house.

3 <sup>m</sup>For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he that <sup>18</sup>built the house hath more honor than the house.

4 For every house is <sup>18</sup>built by some one; but he that <sup>18</sup>built all things is God. 5 And <sup>i</sup>Moses indeed was faithful in all <sup>17</sup>his house as <sup>n</sup>a servant, <sup>e</sup>for a testimony of those things <sup>p</sup>which were afterward to be spoken; 6 but Christ as <sup>q</sup>a son, over <sup>17</sup>his house; <sup>r</sup>whose house are we, <sup>i</sup>f we hold fast our <sup>i</sup>boldness and the <sup>u</sup>glorying of our <sup>v</sup>hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, even as <sup>z</sup>the Holy Spirit saith, <sup>10</sup>To-day if ye shall hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, Like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness,

9 <sup>20</sup>Where your fathers tried me by proving me, And saw my works <sup>z</sup>forty years.

10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation, And said, They do always err in their heart: But they did not know my ways;

11 <sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

<sup>21</sup>As I swear in my wrath, <sup>22</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

Only Believers enter into his Promised Rest. A divinely appointed High Priest made perfect through Suffering

12 <sup>a</sup>Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from <sup>b</sup>the living God: 13 but <sup>c</sup>exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called To-day; lest any one of you be hardened by the <sup>d</sup>deceitfulness of sin: 14 for we are become partakers <sup>e</sup>of Christ, <sup>f</sup>if we hold fast the beginning of our <sup>g</sup>confidence firm unto the end: 15 while it is said,

<sup>h</sup>To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For who, when they heard, did <sup>i</sup>provoke? nay, <sup>j</sup>did not all they that came out of Egypt by Moses? 17 And with whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with them that sinned, <sup>k</sup>whose <sup>l</sup>bodies fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom sware he <sup>m</sup>that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that were <sup>n</sup>disobedient? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of <sup>o</sup>unbelief.

4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should seem to have <sup>p</sup>come short of it. 2 For indeed we have had <sup>q</sup>good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but <sup>r</sup>the word of hearing did not profit them, because <sup>s</sup>it was not united by faith with them that heard. 3 <sup>t</sup>For we who have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said, although the works were finished <sup>w</sup>from the foundation of the world. 4 For he hath said <sup>x</sup>somewhere of the seventh day on this wise. <sup>y</sup>And God <sup>z</sup>rested on the seventh day from all his works; 5 and in this place again, to enter in because of <sup>an</sup>disobedience, 7 he again defineth a certain day, To-day, saying <sup>ao</sup>in David so long a time afterward (even <sup>ap</sup>as hath been said before),

<sup>u</sup>As I sware in my wrath,
<sup>v</sup>They shall not enter into my rest:

<sup>aq</sup>To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.

8 For <sup>ar</sup>if <sup>as</sup>Joshua had given them rest, he would not have <sup>at</sup>spoken afterward of another day. 9 There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also <sup>au</sup>rested from his works, as <sup>av</sup>God did from his. 11 Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall <sup>aw</sup>after the same <sup>ax</sup>example of <sup>ay</sup>disobedience. 12 For <sup>az</sup>the word of God is <sup>ba</sup>living, and <sup>bb</sup>active, and sharper than any two-edged <sup>bc</sup>sword, and piercing even to the dividing of <sup>bd</sup>soul and <sup>be</sup>spirit, of both joints and marrow, and <sup>bf</sup>quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And <sup>bg</sup>there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are <sup>bh</sup>naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Having then a great <sup>bi</sup>high priest, who hath <sup>bj</sup>passed through the heavens, Jesus <sup>bk</sup>the Son of God, let us hold fast our <sup>bl</sup>confession. 15 For we have not <sup>bm</sup>a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points <sup>bn</sup>tempted like as we are, yet <sup>bo</sup>without sin. 16 Let us therefore <sup>bp</sup>draw near with <sup>bq</sup>boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

no man taketh the honor unto himself, but when he is called of God, even <sup>b</sup>as was Aaron. 5 So Christ also <sup>c</sup>glorified not himself to be made a <sup>d</sup>high priest, but he that <sup>e</sup>spake unto him,

This day have I begotten thee: 6 as he saith also in another place, <sup>2</sup>Thou art a priest for ever

After <sup>3</sup>the order of Melchizedek. 7 Who in the days of his flesh, <sup>4</sup>having offered up prayers and supplications with <sup>5</sup>strong crying and tears unto him that was <sup>6</sup>able to save him <sup>7</sup>from death, and having been heard for his <sup>8</sup>godly fear, 8 though he was <sup>9</sup>ma Son, yet learned <sup>10</sup>obedience by the things which he suffered; 9 and having been made <sup>11</sup>perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the <sup>12</sup>author of eternal salvation; 10 named of God <sup>13</sup>a high priest after <sup>14</sup>the order of Melchizedek.

11 Of <sup>15</sup>whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hearing. 12 For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again <sup>16</sup>that some one teach you <sup>17</sup>the rudiments of the <sup>18</sup>first principles of the <sup>19</sup>oracles of God; and are become such as have need of <sup>20</sup>milk, and not of solid food. 13 For every one that partaketh of milk is <sup>21</sup>without experience of the word of righteousness; for he is a <sup>22</sup>babe. 14 But solid food is for <sup>23</sup>fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses <sup>24</sup>exercised to <sup>25</sup>discern good and evil.

9 But, <sup>10</sup>r beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that <sup>11</sup>17 accompany salvation, though we thus speak: 10 for <sup>12</sup>God is not unrighteous to forget <sup>13</sup>your work and the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye <sup>14</sup>u ministered unto the saints, and still do minister. 11 And we desire that each one of you may show the same diligence unto the <sup>15</sup>v fullness of <sup>16</sup>x hope even to the end: 12 that ye be not sluggish, but <sup>17</sup>y imitators of them who through <sup>18</sup>z faith and patience <sup>19</sup>a inherit the promises.

13 For <sup>20</sup>b when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he <sup>21</sup>c swore by himself, 14 saying, <sup>22</sup>19 Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. 15 And thus, <sup>23</sup>d having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 <sup>24</sup>e For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of theirs <sup>25</sup>f the oath is final for confirmation. 17 Wherein God, being minded to show more abundantly unto <sup>26</sup>g the heirs of the promise <sup>27</sup>h the immutability of his counsel, <sup>28</sup>20 interposed with an oath; 18 that by two immutable things, in which <sup>29</sup>i it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement,

Jesus a High Priest after Melchizedek's Order. Superseding the Levitical Order and Ritual, he liveth to intercede who have fled for refuge to lay hold of <sup>a</sup> the hope set before us : 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, <sup>a</sup> hope both sure and stedfast and <sup>b</sup> entering into that which is within the veil ; 20 <sup>c</sup> whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become <sup>a</sup> a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this <sup>c</sup> Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of <sup>d</sup> God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>2</sup> to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is, King of peace ; 3 without father, without mother, <sup>g</sup> without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto <sup>h</sup> the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom Abraham, the <sup>i</sup> patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief spoils. 5 And they indeed of <sup>k</sup> the sons of Levi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham : 6 but he <sup>j</sup> whose genealogy is not counted from them <sup>m</sup> hath taken tithes of Abraham, and <sup>n</sup> hath blessed him that <sup>n</sup> hath the promises. 7 But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better. 8 And here men that die receive tithes ; but there one, <sup>o</sup> of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. 9 And, so to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receiveth tithes, hath paid tithes ; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 <sup>p</sup> Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it <sup>q</sup> hath the people received the law), what further need <sup>r</sup> was there that another priest should arise <sup>r</sup> after the order of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned after the order of Aaron ? 12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. 13 For <sup>s</sup> he of whom <sup>s</sup> these things are said <sup>1</sup> belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath <sup>t</sup> sprung out of Judah ; as to which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests. 15 And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 who hath been made, not after the law of a <sup>c</sup> carnal commandment, but after the power of <sup>c</sup> an <sup>2</sup> endless life : 17 for it is witnessed of him,

<sup>3y</sup> Thou art a priest for ever

After the order of Melchizedek.

18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment <sup>2</sup> because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for <sup>a</sup> the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better <sup>b</sup> hope, through which we <sup>c</sup> draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath 21 (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath ; but he with an oath <sup>4</sup> by him that saith <sup>5</sup> of him,

<sup>6y</sup> The Lord sware and <sup>a</sup> will not repent himself,

Thou art a priest <sup>c</sup> for ever) ;

22 by so much also hath Jesus become the <sup>j</sup> surety of <sup>a</sup> a better covenant. 23 And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they are hindered from continuing : 24 but he, because he abideth <sup>e</sup> for ever, <sup>7</sup> hath his priesthood <sup>8</sup> unchangeable. 25 Wherefore also he is able to <sup>h</sup> save <sup>9</sup> to the uttermost them that <sup>i</sup> draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to <sup>k</sup> make intercession for them.

26 For such a <sup>l</sup> high priest became us, <sup>m</sup> holy, <sup>n</sup> guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and <sup>o</sup> made higher than the heavens ; 27 who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to <sup>p</sup> offer up sacrifices, <sup>q</sup> first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people : for this he did <sup>r</sup> once for all, when he <sup>s</sup> offered up himself. 28 For the law appointeth men high priests, <sup>t</sup> having infirmity ; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth <sup>u</sup> a Son, <sup>v</sup> perfected for evermore.

13 In that he saith, <sup>c</sup> A new covenant, he hath made the first old. <sup>d</sup> But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 Now even the first covenant had <sup>e</sup> ordinances of divine service, and <sup>f</sup> its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world. 2 For there was <sup>g</sup> a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein <sup>h</sup> were <sup>i</sup> the candlestick, and <sup>j</sup> the table, and <sup>k</sup> the showbread; which is called the Holy place. 3 And after <sup>l</sup> the second veil, the tabernacle which is called <sup>m</sup> the Holy of holies; 4 having a golden <sup>n</sup> altar of incense, and <sup>o</sup> the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein <sup>p</sup> was <sup>q</sup> a golden pot holding the manna, and <sup>r</sup> Aaron's rod that budded, and <sup>s</sup> the tables of the covenant; 5 and above it <sup>t</sup> cherubim of glory <sup>u</sup> overshadowing <sup>v</sup> the mercy-seat; of which things we cannot now speak severally. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests <sup>w</sup> go in continually into <sup>x</sup> the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; 7 but into <sup>y</sup> the second <sup>z</sup> the high priest alone, <sup>a</sup> once in the year, <sup>b</sup> not without blood, which he <sup>c</sup> offereth for himself, and for the <sup>d</sup> errors of the people: 8 <sup>e</sup> the Holy Spirit this signifying, <sup>f</sup> that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest, while the first tabernacle is yet standing; 9 which <sup>g</sup> is <sup>h</sup> a figure for the time present; according to which are <sup>i</sup> offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, <sup>j</sup> make the worshipper perfect, <sup>k</sup> being only (with <sup>l</sup> meats and <sup>m</sup> drinks and divers <sup>n</sup> washings) <sup>o</sup> carnal ordinances, im-

that the <sup>k</sup> copies of the things in that the heavens should be cleansed with these; but <sup>l</sup> the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ <sup>m</sup> entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to <sup>n</sup> the true; but into <sup>o</sup> heaven itself, now <sup>p</sup> to appear before the face of God for us: 25 nor yet that he should offer himself often, as <sup>q</sup> the high priest entereth into <sup>r</sup> the holy place <sup>s</sup> year by year with blood not his own; 26 else must he often have suffered since <sup>t</sup> the foundation of the world: but now <sup>u</sup> once at <sup>v</sup> the <sup>w</sup> end of the ages hath he been <sup>x</sup> manifested to put away sin <sup>y</sup> by the sacrifice of himself. 27 And inasmuch as <sup>z</sup> it is <sup>aa</sup> appointed unto men once to die, and after this <sup>ab</sup> cometh judgment; 28 so Christ also, having been <sup>ac</sup> once offered to <sup>ad</sup> bear the sins of many, shall appear <sup>ae</sup> a second time, <sup>af</sup> apart from sin, to them that <sup>ag</sup> wait for him, unto <sup>ah</sup> salvation.

10 For the law having <sup>a</sup> a shadow of <sup>b</sup> the good things to come, not the very image of the things, <sup>c</sup> can <sup>d</sup> never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, <sup>e</sup> make perfect them that <sup>f</sup> draw nigh. 2 Else would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more <sup>g</sup> consciousness of sins. 3 But <sup>h</sup> in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins year by year. 4 For it is <sup>i</sup> impossible that <sup>j</sup> the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore <sup>k</sup> when he cometh into the world, he saith,

Let us draw near with a True Heart. For Wilful Sin there is no More Sacrifice. Recall Former Constancy

7 Then said I, Lo, I am come (In <sup>a</sup>the roll of the book it is written of me)

To do thy will, O God.

8 Saying above, <sup>b</sup>Sacrifices and offerings and <sup>c</sup>whole burnt offerings and sacrifices <sup>a</sup>for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are offered according to the law), 9 then hath he said, <sup>a</sup>Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. 10 <sup>1</sup>By which will we have been <sup>f</sup>sanctified through <sup>g</sup>the offering of <sup>h</sup>the body of Jesus Christ <sup>i</sup>once for all. 11 And every <sup>j</sup>priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and <sup>k</sup>offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which <sup>l</sup>can never take away sins: 12 but he, when he had offered one sacrifice <sup>m</sup>for <sup>n</sup>3 sins <sup>o</sup>for ever, <sup>p</sup>sat down on the right hand of God; 13 henceforth expecting till <sup>q</sup>his enemies be made the footstool of his feet. 14 For by one offering he hath <sup>r</sup>perfected <sup>s</sup>for ever them that are sanctified. 15 And <sup>t</sup>the Holy Spirit also beareth witness to us; for after he hath said,

16 <sup>u</sup>This is the covenant that <sup>v</sup>I will make with them

After those days, saith the Lord: I will put my laws on their heart,

And upon their mind also will I write them;

then saith he,

17 <sup>w</sup>And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, <sup>x</sup>boldness to <sup>y</sup>enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by <sup>z</sup>the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through <sup>aa</sup>the veil, that is to say, his flesh; 21 and having <sup>ab</sup>a great priest <sup>ac</sup>over the house of God; 22 let us <sup>ad</sup>draw near with a true heart in <sup>ae</sup>fulness of faith, having our hearts <sup>af</sup>sprinkled from an evil <sup>ag</sup>conscience: and having our body <sup>ah</sup>washed with pure water, 23 let us hold fast the <sup>ai</sup>confession of our <sup>aj</sup>hope that it waver not; for <sup>ak</sup>he

And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not <sup>3</sup>of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the <sup>4</sup>saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is <sup>5</sup>assurance of things <sup>6</sup>hoped for, a <sup>6</sup>conviction of <sup>7</sup>things not seen. 2 For therein <sup>a</sup>the elders <sup>i</sup>had witness borne to them. 3 By faith we understand that the <sup>7k</sup>worlds have been framed <sup>b</sup>by the <sup>m</sup>word of God, so that what is seen hath <sup>n</sup>not been made out of things which appear. 4 By faith <sup>o</sup>Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he <sup>h</sup>had witness borne to him that he was righteous, <sup>g</sup>God bearing witness <sup>9</sup>in respect of his <sup>p</sup>gifts: and through it he <sup>q</sup>being dead yet speaketh. 5 By faith <sup>r</sup>Enoch was translated that he should not <sup>s</sup>see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: <sup>10</sup>for he hath had witness borne to him that before his translation he had been well-pleasing unto God: 6 and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him; for he that <sup>t</sup>cometh to God must believe that he is, and <sup>u</sup>that he is a rewarder of them that seek after him. 7 By faith <sup>v</sup>Noah, being <sup>w</sup>warned of God concerning <sup>x</sup>things not seen as yet, <sup>z</sup>moved with godly fear, <sup>y</sup>prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of <sup>z</sup>the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith <sup>a</sup>Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to <sup>b</sup>receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing whither he went. 9 By faith he became a sojourner in <sup>c</sup>the land of promise, as in a <sup>d</sup>land not his own, <sup>11a</sup>dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, <sup>e</sup>the heirs with him of the same promise: 10 for he looked for <sup>f</sup>the city which hath <sup>g</sup>the foundations, <sup>h</sup>whose <sup>13</sup>builder and maker is God. 11 By faith even <sup>i</sup>Sarah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him <sup>k</sup>faithful who had promised: 12 wherefore also there sprang of one, and <sup>l</sup>him as good as dead, <sup>m</sup>so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable.

13 <sup>n</sup>These all died <sup>13</sup>in faith, <sup>o</sup>not having received the promises, but <sup>p</sup>having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having <sup>q</sup>confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. 14 For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a country of their own. 15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that <sup>r</sup>country from which they went out, <sup>s</sup>they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they desire a better <sup>t</sup>country, that is, a <sup>u</sup>heavenly: wherefore <sup>v</sup>God is not ashamed of them, to be <sup>w</sup>called their God; for <sup>x</sup>he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith <sup>y</sup>Abraham, being tried, <sup>14</sup>offered up Isaac: yea, he that had gladly <sup>z</sup>received the promises was offering up his only begotten son; 18 even he <sup>15</sup>to whom it was said, <sup>16z</sup>In Isaac shall thy seed be called: 19 accounting that <sup>a</sup>God is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a <sup>b</sup>figure receive him back. 20 By faith <sup>c</sup>Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. 21 By faith <sup>d</sup>Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and <sup>e</sup>worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith <sup>f</sup>Joseph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. 23 By faith <sup>g</sup>Moses,

Past Triumphs should be Present Incitements. The Heavenly Father's Chastening Fruitful

when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. 24 By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; 25 choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; 26 accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked unto the recompense of reward. 27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were swallowed up. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, of Barak, of Samson, of Jephthah; of David and of Samuel and the prophets: 33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of aliens. 35 Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: 37 they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword: they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated 38 (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having had witness borne to them through their faith, received not the promise, 40 God having provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against himself, that ye wax not weary, fainting in your souls. 4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin: 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord, Nor faint when thou art reproved of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto <sup>a</sup> the Father of <sup>1</sup> spirits, and <sup>b</sup> live? 10 For they indeed for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, <sup>c</sup> that we may be partakers of his holiness. 11 All chastening seemeth <sup>a</sup> for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yieldeth <sup>c</sup> peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the fruit of righteousness. 12 Wherefore <sup>2</sup> lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; 13 and <sup>9</sup> make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not <sup>3</sup> turned out of the way, but rather <sup>b</sup> be healed.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

Address and Greeting. Pray in Faith. Rejoice in Lowliness. Temptation not from God. Be Doers of the Word

2 <sup>g</sup> Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into <sup>h</sup> manifold <sup>i</sup> temptations; 3 knowing that <sup>j</sup> the proving of your <sup>k</sup> faith worketh <sup>5l</sup> patience. 4 And let <sup>5i</sup> patience have <sup>its</sup> perfect work, that ye may be <sup>m</sup> perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you <sup>n</sup> lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and <sup>o</sup> upbraideth not; and <sup>p</sup> it shall be given him. 6 But let him <sup>q</sup> ask in faith, <sup>r</sup> nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the surge of the sea <sup>s</sup> driven by the wind and tossed. 7 For let not that man think <sup>t</sup> that he shall receive anything of the Lord; 8 a <sup>u</sup> double-minded man, <sup>v</sup> unstable in all his ways.

9 <sup>w</sup> But let the brother of low degree glory in his high estate: 10 and the rich, in that he is made low: because <sup>x</sup> as the flower of the grass he shall pass away. 11 For the sun ariseth with <sup>y</sup> the scorching wind, and <sup>z</sup> withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 <sup>a</sup> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive <sup>b</sup> the crown of life, which the Lord <sup>c</sup> promised to them that <sup>d</sup> love him. 13 Let no man say when he is tempted, <sup>e</sup> I am tempted <sup>f</sup> of God; for God <sup>g</sup> cannot be tempted with <sup>h</sup> evil, and he himself tempteth no man: 14 but each man is <sup>i</sup> tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then the lust, <sup>j</sup> when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the <sup>g</sup> sin, when it is full-grown, bringeth forth death. 16 <sup>h</sup> Be not deceived, <sup>i</sup> my beloved brethren. 17 Every good <sup>11</sup> gift and every perfect gift is <sup>k</sup> from above, coming down from <sup>l</sup> the Father of lights, <sup>m</sup> with whom can be no variation, neither shadow that is cast by turning. 18 Of <sup>n</sup> his own will he <sup>o</sup> brought us forth by <sup>p</sup> the word of truth, that we should be a kind of <sup>q</sup> firstfruits of his creatures.

2 <sup>g</sup> My brethren, <sup>2</sup> hold not <sup>h</sup> the <sup>i</sup> faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>j</sup> the Lord of glory, with <sup>k</sup> respect of persons. 2 For if there come into your <sup>l</sup> synagogue a man with a gold ring, in <sup>m</sup> fine clothing, and there come in also a poor man in <sup>n</sup> vile clothing; 3 and ye have regard to him that weareth the <sup>o</sup> fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man, Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; 4 <sup>p</sup> do ye not make distinctions <sup>q</sup> among yourselves, and become judges <sup>r</sup> with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, <sup>s</sup> my beloved brethren; did not <sup>t</sup> God choose them that are poor as to the world to be <sup>u</sup> rich in faith, and <sup>v</sup> heirs of the kingdom which he <sup>w</sup> promised to them that love him? 6 But ye have dishonored the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves <sup>x</sup> drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 <sup>y</sup> Do not they blaspheme the honorable name <sup>z</sup> by which ye are called? 8 Howbeit if ye <sup>aa</sup> fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, <sup>ab</sup> Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well: 9 but if ye have <sup>ac</sup> respect of persons, ye commit sin, being <sup>ad</sup> convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet <sup>ae</sup> stumble in one point, he is become <sup>af</sup> guilty of all. 11 For he that said, <sup>ag</sup> Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be judged by <sup>ah</sup> a law of liberty. 13 For <sup>ai</sup> judgment is without mercy to him that hath showed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgment. 14 <sup>aj</sup> What doth it profit, <sup>ak</sup> my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save him? 15 <sup>ag</sup> If a brother or sister be naked and in lack of daily food, 16 and one of you say unto them, <sup>ah</sup> Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth it profit? 17 Even so <sup>ai</sup> faith, if it have not works, is dead in itself. 18 <sup>aj</sup> Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy <sup>ak</sup> faith apart from <sup>al</sup> thy works, and I <sup>am</sup> by my works will <sup>an</sup> show thee <sup>ao</sup> my faith. 19 Thou believest that <sup>ap</sup> God is one; <sup>aq</sup> thou doest well: <sup>ar</sup> the demons also believe, and shudder. 20 But wilt thou know, <sup>as</sup> O vain man, that <sup>at</sup> faith apart from works is barren? 21 <sup>au</sup> Was not Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son upon the altar? 22 <sup>av</sup> Thou seest that <sup>aw</sup> faith wrought with his works, and by <sup>ax</sup> works was faith made perfect; 23 and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, <sup>ay</sup> And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; <sup>az</sup> and he was called <sup>ba</sup> the friend of God. 24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not only by faith. 25 And in like manner was not also <sup>bb</sup> Rahab the harlot justified by works, <sup>bc</sup> in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so <sup>bd</sup> faith apart from works is dead.

whole body also. 4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. 5 So the tongue also is a little member, and <sup>a</sup>boasteth great things. <sup>b</sup>Behold, <sup>1</sup>how much wood is kindled by how small a fire! 6 And <sup>c</sup>the tongue is <sup>2</sup>a fire: <sup>3</sup>the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which <sup>d</sup>defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel of <sup>e</sup>nature, and is set on fire by <sup>f</sup>hell. 7 For every <sup>g</sup>kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed <sup>7</sup>by <sup>h</sup>mankind: 8 but the tongue can no man tame; it is a restless evil, it is full of <sup>i</sup>deadly poison. 9 Therewith bless we <sup>j</sup>the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, <sup>k</sup>who are made after the likeness of God: 10 <sup>l</sup>out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Doth the fountain send forth from the same opening sweet water and bitter? 12 <sup>m</sup>can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? <sup>n</sup>let him show by his <sup>o</sup>good life his works in meekness of wisdom. 14 But if ye have bitter <sup>p</sup>jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against <sup>q</sup>the truth. 15 This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down <sup>r</sup>from above, but is <sup>s</sup>earthly, <sup>t</sup>sensual, <sup>u</sup>devilish. 16 For where <sup>v</sup>jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every vile deed. 17 But the wisdom that is <sup>w</sup>from above is first <sup>x</sup>pure, then <sup>y</sup>peaceable, <sup>z</sup>gentle, easy to be entreated, <sup>aa</sup>full of mercy and good fruits, without <sup>ab</sup>variance, without <sup>ac</sup>hypocrisy. 18 And the <sup>ad</sup>fruit of righteousness is sown in peace <sup>ae</sup>for them that make peace.

For ye are a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. 15 <sup>1</sup>For that ye ought to say, <sup>6</sup>If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that. 16 But now ye glory in your vauntings: <sup>6</sup>all such glorying is evil. 17 <sup>a</sup>To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

12 But above all things, <sup>h</sup>my brethren, <sup>1</sup>swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but <sup>6</sup>let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgment.

13 Is any among you <sup>k</sup>suffering? <sup>1</sup>let him pray. 19 My brethren, <sup>b</sup>if any among you err from <sup>c</sup>the truth, and one convert him; 20 <sup>10</sup>let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall <sup>d</sup>save a soul from death, and shall <sup>e</sup>cover a multitude of sins.

Address and Salutation. The "Inheritance incorruptible and that fadeth not away"

<sup>a</sup> when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is <sup>1</sup> acceptable with God. 21 For <sup>b</sup> hereunto were ye called : <sup>c</sup> because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you <sup>d</sup> an example, that ye should follow his steps: 22 who <sup>e</sup> did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth : 23 who, when he was <sup>f</sup> reviled, reviled not again ; when he suffered, threatened not ; but committed <sup>g</sup> himself to him that judgeth righteously : 24 who his own self <sup>h</sup> bare our sins in his body upon <sup>i</sup> the tree, that we, <sup>j</sup> having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness ; <sup>k</sup> by whose <sup>l</sup> stripes ye were <sup>m</sup> healed. 25 For ye were <sup>n</sup> going astray like sheep ; but are now returned unto the <sup>o</sup> Shepherd and <sup>p</sup> Bishop of your souls.

7 <sup>ab</sup> Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor <sup>ac</sup> unto the woman, as unto the weaker <sup>ad</sup> vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life ; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, <sup>ae</sup> be ye all likeminded, <sup>af</sup> compassionate, <sup>ag</sup> loving as brethren, <sup>ah</sup> tenderhearted, <sup>ai</sup> humble-minded : 9 <sup>aj</sup> not rendering evil for evil, or <sup>ak</sup> reviling for reviling ; but

4 Forasmuch then as 'Christ suffered in the flesh, 'arm ye yourselves also with the 'same 'mind; for 'he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased 'from sin; 2 'that 'ye no longer should live 'the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God. 3 For 'the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have 'walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carousings, and abominable idolatries: 4 wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same 'excess of 'riot, 'speaking evil of you: 5 who shall give account to him that is ready to judge 'the living and the dead. 6 For unto this end 'was 'the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But 'the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and 'be sober unto 'prayer: 8 above all things being 'fervent in your love among yourselves; for 'love covereth a multitude of sins: 9 'using hospitality one to another without 'murmuring: 10 'according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good 'stewards of the manifold grace of God; 11 'if any man speaketh, 'speaking as it were 'oracles of God; if any man ministereth, 'ministering as of 'the strength which God supplieth: that 'in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, 'whose is the glory and the dominion 'for ever and ever. Address and Salutation. "Be not idle nor unfruitful." "We were Eyewitnesses of his Majesty"

False Teachers and Bondservants of Corruption warned against

wrong-doing; men that count it pleasure to <sup>m</sup>revel in the <sup>n</sup>day-time, spots and blemishes, <sup>o</sup>reveling in their <sup>11</sup>deceivings <sup>o</sup>while they feast with you; 14 having eyes full of <sup>12</sup>adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; <sup>p</sup>enticing <sup>q</sup>unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised <sup>r</sup>in covetousness; <sup>s</sup>children of cursing; 15 forsaking <sup>t</sup>the right way, they went astray, having followed <sup>u</sup>the way of Balaam the son of <sup>13</sup>Beor, who loved <sup>v</sup>the hire of wrong-doing; 16 but he was rebuked for his own transgression: <sup>w</sup>a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet. 17 These are <sup>x</sup>springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; <sup>y</sup>for whom the blackness of darkness hath been reserved. 18 For, uttering <sup>z</sup>great swelling words of <sup>aa</sup>vanity, they <sup>ab</sup>entice in the lusts of the flesh, by <sup>ac</sup>lasciviousness, those who are just <sup>ad</sup>escaping from them that live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for <sup>ae</sup>of <sup>14</sup>whom a man is overcome, of the same is he also brought into bondage. 20 For if, after they have <sup>af</sup>escaped the defilements of the world through <sup>ag</sup>the knowledge of <sup>15</sup>the <sup>ah</sup>Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again <sup>ai</sup>entangled therein and overcome, <sup>aj</sup>the last state is become worse with them than the first. 21 <sup>ak</sup>For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from <sup>al</sup>the holy commandment <sup>am</sup>delivered unto them. 22 It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, <sup>16</sup>The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

3 This is now, <sup>a</sup>beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I <sup>b</sup>stir up your sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; <sup>2</sup> that ye should <sup>c</sup>remember the words which were spoken before by <sup>d</sup>the holy prophets, and <sup>e</sup>the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles: <sup>3</sup> knowing this first, that <sup>1</sup>in the last days <sup>b</sup>mockers shall come with mockery, <sup>4</sup>walking after their own lusts, <sup>4</sup> and saying, <sup>5</sup>Where is the promise of his <sup>2</sup>coming? for, from the day that the fathers <sup>m</sup>fell asleep, all things continue as they were <sup>n</sup>from the beginning of the creation. <sup>5</sup> For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth <sup>o</sup>compactd out of water and <sup>3</sup>amidst water, <sup>p</sup>by the word of God; <sup>6</sup> by which means <sup>q</sup>the world that then was, being overflowed with water, <sup>r</sup>perished: <sup>7</sup> but <sup>s</sup>the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been <sup>t</sup>stored up for <sup>u</sup>fire, being reserved against <sup>v</sup>the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

<sup>8</sup> But forget not this one thing, <sup>w</sup>beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and <sup>x</sup>a thousand years as one day. <sup>9</sup> <sup>y</sup>The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but <sup>z</sup>is longsuffering to you-ward, <sup>aa</sup>not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>10</sup> But <sup>ab</sup>the day of the Lord <sup>b</sup>will come as a thief; in the which <sup>ac</sup>the heavens <sup>c</sup>shall pass away with a great noise, and the <sup>ad</sup>elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and <sup>e</sup>the earth and the works that are therein shall be <sup>f</sup>burned up. <sup>11</sup> Seeing

<sup>14</sup> Wherefore, <sup>beloved</sup>, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be <sup>found</sup> in peace, <sup>without</sup> spot and blameless in his sight. <sup>15</sup> And account that the <sup>longsuffering</sup> of our Lord is salvation; even as <sup>our</sup> beloved brother Paul also, <sup>according</sup> to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you; <sup>16</sup> as also in all <sup>his</sup> epistles, speaking in them of <sup>these</sup> things; <sup>wherein</sup> are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and <sup>unstedfast</sup> wrest, as <sup>they do</sup> also <sup>the</sup> other scriptures, unto their own destruction. <sup>17</sup> Ye therefore, <sup>beloved</sup>, knowing <sup>these things</sup> beforehand, <sup>beware</sup> lest, being carried away with <sup>the</sup> error of <sup>the</sup> wicked, ye <sup>fall</sup> from your own steadfastness. <sup>18</sup> But grow in the grace and <sup>knowledge</sup> of our <sup>Lord</sup> and Saviour Jesus Christ. <sup>To</sup> him <sup>be</sup> the glory both now and <sup>for</sup> ever. # THE FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN

Introduction. "Walk in the Light . . . even as He walked." The Contrasted Darkness

1 That which was <sup>a</sup> from the beginning, that which we have <sup>b</sup> heard, that which we have <sup>c</sup> seen with our eyes, that which we <sup>d</sup> beheld, and our hands <sup>e</sup> handled, concerning the <sup>f</sup> Word of life <sup>g</sup> (and <sup>h</sup> the life was manifested, and we have <sup>i</sup> seen, and <sup>j</sup> bear witness, and declare unto you the life, <sup>k</sup> the eternal life, which was <sup>l</sup> with the Father, and was <sup>m</sup> manifested unto us); <sup>n</sup> 3 that which we have <sup>o</sup> seen and <sup>p</sup> heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our <sup>q</sup> fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ: <sup>r</sup> 4 and <sup>s</sup> these things we write, that <sup>t</sup> our <sup>u</sup> joy may be made full.

<sup>v</sup> 5 And <sup>w</sup> this is the message which we have heard from him and announce unto you, that <sup>x</sup> God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>y</sup> 6 <sup>z</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we <sup>aa</sup> lie, and <sup>ab</sup> do not the truth: <sup>ac</sup> 7 but if we <sup>ad</sup> walk in the light, as <sup>ae</sup> he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and <sup>af</sup> the blood of Jesus his Son cleanseth us from all sin. <sup>ag</sup> 8 <sup>ah</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the <sup>ai</sup> truth is not in us. <sup>aj</sup> 9 <sup>ak</sup> If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and <sup>al</sup> to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>am</sup> 10 <sup>an</sup> If we say that we have not sinned, we <sup>ao</sup> make him a liar, and <sup>ap</sup> his word is not in us.

"Love not the World." "Abide in the Son, and in the Father." Righteousness and Brotherly Love the Marks of cause ye know him <sup>a</sup> who is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because <sup>b</sup> ye have overcome <sup>c</sup> the evil one. <sup>1</sup> I have written unto you, little children, because <sup>d</sup> ye know the Father. <sup>14</sup> <sup>1</sup> I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him <sup>a</sup> who is from the beginning. <sup>1</sup> I have written unto you, young men, because ye are <sup>e</sup> strong, and the <sup>f</sup> word of God abideth in you, and <sup>g</sup> ye have overcome the evil one. <sup>15</sup> Love not <sup>h</sup> the world, neither the things that are in the world. <sup>i</sup> If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup> For all that is in the world, <sup>k</sup> the lust of the flesh and <sup>l</sup> the lust of the eyes and <sup>m</sup> the vainglory of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. <sup>17</sup> And <sup>n</sup> the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

<sup>18</sup> Little children, <sup>o</sup> it is the last hour: and as ye heard that <sup>p</sup> antichrist cometh, <sup>q</sup> even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup> <sup>r</sup> They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but <sup>s</sup> they went out, <sup>t</sup> that they might be made manifest <sup>u</sup> that they all are not of us. <sup>20</sup> And ye have an <sup>v</sup> anointing from <sup>w</sup> the Holy One, <sup>x</sup> and <sup>y</sup> ye know all things. <sup>21</sup> I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but <sup>z</sup> because ye know it, and <sup>aa</sup> because no lie is <sup>ab</sup> of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but <sup>ac</sup> he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is <sup>ad</sup> the antichrist, <sup>ae</sup> even he that denieth the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> <sup>af</sup> Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath the Father also. <sup>24</sup> As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard <sup>ag</sup> from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also <sup>ah</sup> shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> And <sup>ai</sup> this is the promise which he promised <sup>aj</sup> us, <sup>ak</sup> even the life eternal. <sup>26</sup> These things have I written unto you concerning them that would <sup>al</sup> lead you astray. <sup>27</sup> And as for you,

abideth in him : and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God. 10 In this the <sup>a</sup>children of God are manifest, and the <sup>b</sup>children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that <sup>c</sup>loveth not his <sup>a</sup>brother. 11 <sup>e</sup>For this is the message <sup>f</sup>which ye heard from the beginning, <sup>g</sup>that we should love one another: 12 not as <sup>h</sup>Cain was of <sup>i</sup>the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because <sup>k</sup>his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if <sup>l</sup>the world hatheth you. 14 We know that we have <sup>m</sup>passed out of death into life, <sup>n</sup>because we love the brethren. He that loveth not abideth in death. 15 Whosoever <sup>o</sup>hatheth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that <sup>p</sup>no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. 16 Hereby know we love, because <sup>q</sup>he laid down his life for us: and <sup>r</sup>we ought to lay down our lives for the <sup>s</sup>brethren. 17 But <sup>t</sup>whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and <sup>u</sup>shut-teth up his compassion from him, <sup>v</sup>how doth the love of God abide in him? 18 <sup>w</sup>My <sup>x</sup>little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and <sup>y</sup>truth. 19 Hereby shall we know that we are <sup>z</sup>of the truth, and shall <sup>1</sup>assure our heart <sup>2</sup>before him: 20 because if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 <sup>a</sup>Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have <sup>b</sup>love toward God; 22 and <sup>c</sup>whatsoever we ask we receive of him, because we <sup>d</sup>keep his commandments and do <sup>e</sup>the things that are pleasing in his sight. 23 And this is his commandment, that we should <sup>f</sup>believe in <sup>g</sup>the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as <sup>h</sup>he gave us commandment. 24 And he that <sup>i</sup>keepeth his commandments <sup>j</sup>abideth in him, and he in him. <sup>n</sup> many false prophets are gone out into the world. 2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: <sup>o</sup>every spirit that <sup>p</sup>confesseth that <sup>q</sup>Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: 3 and every spirit that <sup>r</sup>confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the <sup>s</sup>spirit of the <sup>t</sup>antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and <sup>u</sup>now it is in the world already. 4 Ye are of God, <sup>v</sup>my <sup>w</sup>little children, and <sup>x</sup>have overcome them: because <sup>y</sup>greater is he that is in you than <sup>z</sup>he that is in the world. 5 <sup>1</sup>They are of the world: therefore speak they <sup>as</sup> of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 <sup>a</sup>We are of God: <sup>b</sup>he that knoweth God heareth us; <sup>c</sup>he who is not of God heareth us not. <sup>1</sup> Some ancient authorities read annulleth Jesus.
<sup>2</sup> Or, in our case

"He that abideth in Love abideth in God."

"If we ask anything according to His Will, He heareth us"

"abideth in him, and he in God. 16 And <sup>b</sup>we know and have believed the love which God hath <sup>1c</sup>in us. <sup>a</sup>God is love; and he that <sup>e</sup>abideth in love abideth in God, and God abideth in him. 17 Herein is <sup>f</sup>love made perfect with us, that we may have <sup>g</sup>boldness in <sup>h</sup>the day of judgment; because <sup>i</sup>as he is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love: but <sup>k</sup>perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not <sup>l</sup>made perfect in love. 19 <sup>m</sup>We love, because he first loved us. 20 <sup>n</sup>If a man say, I love God, and <sup>o</sup>hateth his brother, he is a <sup>p</sup>liar: for <sup>q</sup>he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, <sup>2q</sup>cannot love God whom he hath not seen. 21 And <sup>r</sup>this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God <sup>s</sup>love his brother also.

eth not God hath <sup>ai</sup>made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne concerning his Son. 11 And the witness is this, that God gave unto us <sup>aj</sup>eternal life, and <sup>ak</sup>this life is in his Son. 12 <sup>al</sup>He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

Address to Gaius. Prayer for his Prosperity. "He that doeth good is of God." "Peace be unto Thee"

1 <sup>a</sup>The elder unto Gaius the beloved, whom I <sup>b</sup>love in truth.

2 Beloved, I pray that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth. 3 For I <sup>1c</sup>rejoiced greatly, when <sup>a</sup>brethren came and bare witness unto thy truth, even as thou <sup>o</sup>walkest in truth. 4 Greater joy have I none than <sup>2</sup>this, to hear of <sup>e</sup>my children <sup>o</sup>walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest a faithful work in whatsoever thou doest toward them that are <sup>a</sup>brethren and <sup>f</sup>strangers withal; 6 who bare witness to thy love before the church: whom thou wilt do well to <sup>u</sup>set forward on their journey <sup>h</sup>worthily of God: 7 because that for the sake of <sup>i</sup>the Name they went forth, <sup>k</sup>taking nothing of the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers <sup>3</sup>for the truth.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend earnestly for the Faith." The Warnings of History to the Ungodly

1<sup>1</sup> <sup>a</sup>Jude, a <sup>2</sup>servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of <sup>3</sup>James, <sup>4</sup>to them that are called, beloved in God the Father, and <sup>a</sup>kept for Jesus Christ: 2 <sup>c</sup>Mercy unto you and peace and love <sup>f</sup>be multiplied.

3 <sup>g</sup>Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our <sup>h</sup>common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to <sup>i</sup>contend earnestly for <sup>k</sup>the faith which was once for all <sup>l</sup>delivered unto <sup>m</sup>the saints. 4 For there are certain men <sup>n</sup>crept in privily, even they who were of old <sup>o</sup>written of beforehand unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning <sup>p</sup>the grace of our God into <sup>q</sup>lasciviousness, and <sup>r</sup>denying <sup>s</sup>our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to <sup>t</sup>put you in remembrance, though <sup>u</sup>ye know all things once for all, that <sup>v</sup>the Lord, <sup>w</sup>having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, <sup>x</sup>afterward destroyed them that believed not. 6 And <sup>y</sup>angels that kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath <sup>z</sup>kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as <sup>aa</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah, and the <sup>ab</sup>cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication and <sup>ac</sup>gone after strange flesh, are set forth <sup>ad</sup>as an <sup>ae</sup>example, suffering the <sup>af</sup>punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings <sup>ag</sup>defile the flesh, and <sup>ah</sup>set at nought dominion, and <sup>ai</sup>rail at <sup>aj</sup>dignities. 9 But <sup>ak</sup>Michael <sup>al</sup>the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about <sup>am</sup>the body of

THE REVELATION OF JOHN

The Revelation of Jesus Christ : Blessed he that readeth, heareth, keepeth. To the Seven Churches :

4 <sup>j</sup>John to <sup>k</sup>the seven churches that are in <sup>l</sup>Asia : <sup>m</sup>Grace to you and peace, from <sup>n</sup>him who is and who was and <sup>o</sup>who is to come ; and from <sup>p</sup>the seven Spirits that are before his throne ; 5 and from Jesus Christ, who is <sup>q</sup>the faithful witness, the <sup>r</sup>firstborn of the dead, and the <sup>s</sup>ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that <sup>t</sup>loveth us, and <sup>u</sup>loosed us from our sins <sup>v</sup>by his blood ; 6 and he made us to be a <sup>w</sup>kingdom, to be <sup>x</sup>priests unto <sup>y</sup>his God and Father ; <sup>z</sup>to him be the glory and the dominion <sup>aa</sup>for ever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, he <sup>ab</sup>cometh with the clouds ; and <sup>ac</sup>every eye shall see him, and they that pierced him ; and all the tribes of the earth shall <sup>ad</sup>mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am <sup>ae</sup>the Alpha and the Omega, saith the <sup>af</sup>Lord-God, <sup>ag</sup>who is and who was and <sup>ah</sup>who is to come, the Almighty.

Message to the Church in Ephesus ; to the Church in Smyrna ; to the Church in Pergamum ; to the Church in Thyatira ;

* the keys of death and of Hades. 19 <sup>b</sup> Write therefore <sup>c</sup> the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass <sup>a</sup> hereafter ; 20 the <sup>c</sup> mystery of the <sup>f</sup> seven stars which thou sawest <sup>1</sup> in my right hand, and the <sup>g</sup> seven golden <sup>2</sup> candlesticks. The <sup>f</sup> seven stars are the angels of <sup>h</sup> the seven churches : and the seven <sup>2</sup> candlesticks are seven churches.

2 <sup>k</sup> To the angel of the church in <sup>k</sup> Ephesus write :

These things saith he that holdeth <sup>1</sup> the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh <sup>m</sup> in the midst of the seven golden <sup>2</sup> candlesticks : 2 <sup>n</sup> I know thy works, and thy toil and <sup>3</sup> patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst <sup>o</sup> try them that call themselves <sup>p</sup> apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false ; 3 and thou hast <sup>2</sup> patience and didst bear <sup>q</sup> for my name's sake, and hast not grown weary. 4 But I have this against thee, that thou didst <sup>r</sup> leave thy first love. 5 Remember therefore whence thou art fallen, and <sup>s</sup> repent and <sup>t</sup> do the first works ; or else I come to thee, and will move thy <sup>u</sup> candlestick out of its place, except thou repent. 6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the <sup>v</sup> Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 <sup>x</sup> He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. <sup>y</sup> To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of <sup>z</sup> the tree of life, which is in the <sup>7</sup> <sup>a</sup> Paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in <sup>b</sup> Smyrna write :

These things saith <sup>c</sup> the first and the last, who <sup>6</sup> <sup>a</sup> was dead, and lived again : 9 I know thy <sup>c</sup> tribulation, and thy <sup>f</sup> poverty (but thou art <sup>g</sup> rich), and the <sup>7</sup> blasphemy of them that <sup>g</sup> say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of <sup>h</sup> Satan. 10 Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer : behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be <sup>i</sup> tried ; <sup>8</sup> and ye shall have <sup>9</sup> tribulation <sup>k</sup> ten days. Be thou <sup>1</sup> faithful unto death, and I will give thee <sup>m</sup> the crown of life. 11 <sup>x</sup> He thou wert cold or hot. 16 So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth. 17 Because thou sayest, "I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: 18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold refined by fire, that thou mayest become rich; and white garments, that thou mayest clothe thyself, and that the shame of thy nakedness be not made manifest; and eyesalve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see. 19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. 20 Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me. 21 He that overcometh, I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. 22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

4 After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, a voice as of a trumpet speaking with me, one saying, "Come up hither, and I will show thee the things which must come to pass hereafter. 2 Straightway I was in the Spirit: and behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting upon the throne; 3 and he that sat was to look upon like a jasper stone and a sardius: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, like an emerald to look upon. 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty thrones: and upon the thrones I saw four and twenty elders sitting, arrayed in white garments; and on their heads were crowns of gold. 5 And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; 6 and before the throne, as it were a sea of glass like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne,

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great <sup>e</sup>earthquake; and <sup>f</sup>the sun became black as <sup>g</sup>sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and <sup>h</sup>the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, <sup>i</sup>as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs when she is shaken of a great wind. 14 And <sup>j</sup>the heaven was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up; and <sup>k</sup>every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And <sup>l</sup>the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the <sup>m</sup>chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they <sup>n</sup>say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him <sup>o</sup>that sitteth on the throne, and from the <sup>p</sup>wrath of the Lamb: 17 for <sup>q</sup>the great day of their wrath is come; and <sup>r</sup>who is able to stand?

8 And when he opened the a seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. 2 And I saw b the seven angels that stand before God; and there were given unto them seven c trumpets.

3 And k another angel came and stood 2 over the l altar, having a m golden censer; and there was given unto him much n incense, that he should 3 add it unto the o prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And p the smoke of the incense, 4 with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand. 5 And the angel q taketh the censer; and he r filled it with the fire of the altar, and s cast it 6 upon the earth: and there followed t thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an u earthquake.

6 And the seven angels that had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded, and there followed v hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast 6 upon the earth: and x the third part of the earth was burnt up, and x the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green y grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great z mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and x the third part of the sea became blood; 9 and there died z the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the b ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there c fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the x third part of the rivers, and upon the d fountains of the waters; 11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the x third part of the waters became e wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the x third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the x third part of the stars; that the x third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the x third part of it, and the night in like manner.

13 And I saw, and I heard 7 an eagle, flying in v mid heaven, saying with a great voice. h Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the k three angels, who are yet to sound.

9 And the k fifth angel sounded, and I saw a l star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to him the m key of the pit of the n abyss. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a o smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and p the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And out of the smoke came forth q locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the r scorpions of the earth have power. 4 And it was said unto them that they should not s hurt the t grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the u seal of God on their foreheads. 5 And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented v five months: and their torment was as the torment of a r scorpion, when it striketh a man.

The Sixth Angel sounds. The Angel with the Little Book. The Book eaten up of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to war. 10 And they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is their power to hurt men five months. 11 They have over them as king the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name Apollyon.

12 The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woes hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 one saying to the sixth angel that had the trumpet, Loose the four angels that are bound at the great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were loosed, that had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third part of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: I heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth fire and smoke and brimstone. 18 By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths. 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they hurt. 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk: 21 and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and in heaven: and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. 4 And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon standeth before the woman that is about to be delivered, that when she is delivered he may devour her child. 5 And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and unto his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon; and the dragon warred and his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him. 10 And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accuseth them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not their life even unto death. 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like unto a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. 12 And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he maketh the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was healed. 13 And he doeth great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon the earth in the sight of men. 14 And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who hath the stroke of the sword and lived. 15 And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; 17 and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18 Here is wisdom. These are they that follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth was found no lie: they are without blemish.

<sup>12</sup> And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the <sup>2</sup> great river, the river Euphrates; and <sup>a</sup> the water thereof was dried up, that <sup>b</sup> the way might be made ready for the kings that come <sup>c</sup> from the sunrising. <sup>13</sup> And I saw coming out of the mouth of the <sup>d</sup> dragon, and out of the mouth of the <sup>e</sup> beast, and out of the mouth of the <sup>f</sup> false prophet, three <sup>g</sup> unclean spirits, as it were <sup>h</sup> frogs: <sup>14</sup> for they are <sup>i</sup> spirits of demons, <sup>k</sup> working signs; which go forth <sup>7</sup> unto the kings of the <sup>1</sup> whole <sup>8</sup> world, to

<sup>a</sup> scarlet-colored beast, <sup>1</sup> full of <sup>b</sup> names of blasphemy, having <sup>c</sup> seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman <sup>d</sup> was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and <sup>2</sup> decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand <sup>e</sup> a golden cup full of abominations, <sup>3</sup> even the unclean things of her fornication, <sup>5</sup> and upon her forehead a name written, <sup>4</sup> MYSTERY, <sup>7</sup> BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF <sup>h</sup> THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the <sup>i</sup> blood of the saints, and with the blood of the <sup>5</sup> martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered with a great wonder. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the <sup>j</sup> mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the <sup>c</sup> seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest <sup>k</sup> was, and is not; and is about to <sup>l</sup> come up out of the <sup>m</sup> abyss, <sup>6</sup> and to <sup>n</sup> go into perdition. And <sup>o</sup> they that dwell on the earth shall <sup>p</sup> wonder, <sup>q</sup> they <sup>r</sup> whose name hath not been written <sup>7</sup> in the book of life <sup>s</sup> from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that <sup>k</sup> he was, and is not, and <sup>8</sup> shall come. <sup>9</sup> Here is the <sup>9</sup> mind that hath wisdom. The <sup>t</sup> seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth: 10 and <sup>10</sup> they are seven <sup>u</sup> kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a little while. 11 And the beast that <sup>k</sup> was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he <sup>v</sup> goeth into perdition. 12 And the <sup>w</sup> ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, <sup>x</sup> for one hour. 13 These have <sup>y</sup> one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the beast. 14 These shall <sup>z</sup> war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall <sup>aa</sup> overcome them, for he is <sup>b</sup> Lord of lords, and <sup>bb</sup> King of kings; and <sup>cc</sup> they also shall over-

20 And I saw <sup>bo</sup> an angel coming down out of heaven, having the <sup>bp</sup> key of the abyss and a great chain <sup>bq</sup> in his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the <sup>br</sup> dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and <sup>bs</sup> bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the <sup>bt</sup> abyss, and shut it, and <sup>bu</sup> sealed it over him, that he should <sup>bv</sup> deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw <sup>bw</sup> thrones, and <sup>bx</sup> they sat upon them, and <sup>by</sup> judgment was given unto them: and I saw <sup>bz</sup> the souls of them that had been <sup>ca</sup> beheaded for the <sup>cb</sup> testimony of Jesus,
