

Democrats, who call themselves, Christians

A Democrat is not a follower of Christ, even though they attend Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches. They are the enemies of Christ because they break, at least, 5 of Yahweh's 10 commandments. Many of our family members and friends are professed Democrats, yet they are accepted in our families! Would we accept George Tiller (a famous abortionist) as one of our family members? Yet Democrats vote for the same wickedness that George Tiller performed everyday. These family members and or friends, who we eat with and attend Church with, vote for people who will legalize murder, legalize sodomy and legalize stealing. Yahweh commands us, "Remove ye the wicked man from among, yourselves!"

The Democratic Platform consist of breaking 5 of the 10 Commandments:

- 1.) Abortion; "You shall not murder." (Ex. 20:13)
- 2.) Sodomy (Homosexual); "You shall not commit adultery (fornication)." (vs. 14)
- 3.) Estate Tax, taking 50% of a wealthy persons income upon death; "You shall not steal." (vs. 15)
- 4.) Taxing the Rich; "You shall not covet...anything that is your neighbor's." (vs. 17)
- 5.) Speaking falsely; "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor." (vs. 16)

If you confess to be a Catholic or Protestant, saying you are a follower of Jesus Christ, you can not be a Democrat. Christ proclaims in Luke 6:46, "And why call ye me, Lord! Lord! and not do the things that I say?" Repent and turn from the above wickedness and you will be forgiven (Jn. 1:9) or otherwise the following warning will apply to you, "For, if, having escaped from the defilements of the world by a personal knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, but, by the same having again become entangled, they are defeated, the, last, state hath become, for them, worse than, the first; For, better, had it been for them—not to have obtained a personal knowledge of the way of righteousness, than, having obtained such knowledge, to turn back out of the holy commandment delivered unto them. There hath befallen them the thing spoken of in the true proverb—A dog, turning back unto his own vomit, and—A sow, as soon as washed, unto wallowing in mire" (2 Pe. 2:20-22).

You might tell me to, "Mine your own business," but I am minding Yahweh's business because he has commanded us, in Galations 6:1, "Brethren! if a man should even be overtaken in any fault, ye, the spiritual, be restoring such a one, in a spirit of meekness, looking to thyself, lest, even thou, be put to the test." Also in James 5:19-20 we are instructed, "My brethren! If one among you be led to err from the truth, and one turn him back, Be ye taking note—that, he that turneth back a sinner out of the error of his way—will save his soul out of death, and hide a multitude of sins."

You might be tempted to resist Yahweh's commandment, not desiring to sever a relationship, saying, "This is my family, they might reject me," but Yahoshua declared in Matthew 10:37, "He that loveth father or mother above me, is not, worthy, of me,—and, he that loveth son or daughter above me, is not, worthy, of me." We must chose to sever a relationship with Yahweh or with our Democratic friends and family members. We can not serve two Masters. Your Republican Christian parents, brothers and sisters have been given these same commandments. They also need to be obedient to Yahweh. If we are obedient, we have been promised that, "...whosoever left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or children, or lands, for sake of my name, manifold, shall receive, and life, age-abiding, shall inherit" (Matthew 19:29).

Yahweh gives us exact procedures in how to address this problem:

1.) "But, if thy brother sin, withdraw, convince him, betwixt thee and him, alone,—If unto thee he hearken, thou hast gained thy brother; But, if he do not hearken, take with thee, yet one or two, that, at the mouth of two witnesses or three, every declaration, maybe established; But, if he hear them amiss, tell it to the assembly,—And, if, even the assembly, he hear amiss, Let him be unto thee, just as the man of the nations and the tax-collector" (Mt. 18:15-17).

2.) "I wrote unto you in my letter—not to be mixing yourselves up with fornicators; — Not at all, meaning the fornicators of this world, or the covetous and extortioners, or idolaters,—else had ye been obliged, in that case, to go out of the world! But, now, I have written unto you not to be mixing yourselves up,—if anyone named a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such a one as this, not so much, as to be eating together, For what have I to do to be judging them who are without? Do, ye, not judge, them who are within, Whereas, them who are without, God, judgeth? Remove ye the wicked man from among, yourselves" (1 Cor. 5:9-13).

Let us learn from the mistake of Jehoshaphat. "And it came to pass, that, Yahweh, was with Jehoshaphat,—because he walked in the first ways of David his father [following his commandments], and sought not unto the Baalim. (2 Chr. 17:3) And it came to pass, when Jehoshaphat had riches and honour, in abundance, that he contracted, by marriage, affinity with Ahab [sodomy, abortion, stealing, etc.]. (2 Chr. 18:1) After which Ahab asked for Jehoshaphat's help, which Jehoshaphat proclaimed, "...So am I, even as thou, and, like thy people, are my people..." (2 Chro. 18:3). Ahab dies in the war, "And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned unto his own house in peace, to Jerusalem. And there came out to meet him, Jehu son of Hanani, the seer, who said unto King Jehoshaphat, Unto the lawless (Ahab (Democrat)), was it right to give help? and, on them who hate Yahweh (Democrats), to bestow thy love? For this cause, therefore, is there wrath against thee, from before Yahweh; (2 Chr. 19:1-2) The consequences of Jehoshaphat's association with Ahab (Democrat), a Hebrew brother, resulted in the murder of Jehoshaphat's children and grandchildren (2 Chr. 21:4, 22:10).

We have been commanded to sever any relationship, including family members, which are unholy. The Democratic party's platform is wickedness. Any friend or family member who has chosen the Democratic party as their party is wicked. How are we supposed to treat these people? "And, if anyone be not giving ear unto our word through means of this letter, on this one, set a mark—not to be mixing yourselves up with him,—that he may be reprov'd; And, not as an enemy, be esteeming him, but be admonishing him, as a brother" (2 Thes. 3:14-15). If they chose to be stiff-neck in their wickedness, we must wipe their dust off of our feet.

The Democratic party released its platform at the Democratic National Convention which began on Monday night in Philadelphia. Over three weeks, 187 members of the party platform committee debate what language the document should include. Party leaders called the platform "aggressive" and a "bold vision" for where America needs to move in the next four years. The platform stands in stark contrast to the Republican platform unveiled last week. The Republican document opposed rights for transgender Americans, same-sex marriage, abortions and increased restrictions on gun ownership. Read what the Democratic platform says about abortion, guns and other hot-button issues below.

"We believe unequivocally, like the majority of Americans, that every woman should have access to quality reproductive health care services, including safe and legal abortion—regardless of where she lives, how much money she makes, or how she is insured. We believe that reproductive health is core to women's, men's, and young people's health and wellbeing. We will continue to stand up to Republican efforts to defund Planned Parenthood health centers, which provide critical health services to millions of people."

"Democrats believe that LGBT rights are human rights and that American foreign policy should advance the ability of all persons to live with dignity, security, and respect, regardless of who they are or who they love. We applaud President Obama's historic Presidential Memorandum on International Initiatives to Advance the Human Rights of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Persons, which combats criminalization, protects refugees, and provides foreign assistance. We will continue to stand with LGBT people around the world, including fighting efforts by any nation to infringe on LGBT rights or ignore abuse."¹
