

Would You Like to Hear from your Heavenly Father, Today?

"Whereas, in many parts and in many ways of old, Yahweh spoke unto the fathers, in the prophets, At the end of these days, He hath spoken unto us in his Son..."(Heb. 1:1-2). One additional group of people that Yahweh speaks through are the believers that prophesy, as was foretold Joel 2 and came into manifestation in Acts 2; the pouring out of his ruah (spirit) on the day of Pentecost in order that the believers would prophesy (Joel 2, Acts 2, 19). This kind of prophesy is unveiled in 1 Corinthians chapter fourteen.

What Prophecy 'Is'

This kind of prophesy, is not the prophesy of the prophets but the prophesy that is one of the nine manifestations of the ruah (spirit), as presented in 1Corinthians 12:10. Our Heavenly Father gives words of edification, exhortation and comfort to the believer to give to the receiver (1 Cor. 14:3). These words will result in the secrets of the receivers heart, become manifest, "...and, so, falling down upon his face, he will do homage unto Yahweh, reporting that, in reality, Yahweh is, among you" (1 Cor. 14:24-25). An example of this kind of prophesy is presented in John chapter one. Yahweh spoke through Yahoshua (Jesus) to Nathanael, words of edification, exhortation and comfort. When Yahoshua saw Nathanael, he spoke edifying words from Yahweh in the present tense, " See! Truly, an Israelite, in whom is no guile." Then Yahoshua spoke words from Yahweh concerning Nathanael's past, "Before Philip called thee,—when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee." These words validated that Yahweh was giving Yahoshua the words. The secrets of Nathanael's heart had become manifested. Nathanael did homage to Yahweh by saying to his Son, "Rabbi! thou, art, the Son of Yahweh: Thou, art, King, of Israel." Finally, Yahweh foretold Nathanael's future by Yahoshua saying, "Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? A greater thing than these, shalt thou see! And he saith unto him—Verily, verily, I say unto you: Ye shall see heaven—when set open, and, the messengers of Yahweh, ascending and descending unto the Son of Man."

Nathanael was contacted (touched) by Yahweh through the prophesy given by Yahoshua because the words Yahoshua spoke were supernatural, the result being, Yahweh was worshipped. Your Heavenly Father, Yahweh, also desires to personally speak to you, through a believer, if you will walk out in faith, according to his Word. His words to you will be words of edification, exhortation and comfort as promised in 1 Corinthians chapter fourteen.
